

in 1955 and graduated with a diploma as a pharmacist in June, 1959. During her first year in pharmacy school, she also worked at a drugstore in Leningrad. This drugstore was a central drugstore located on Nevsky Prospect, a main street in Leningrad.

FAMILY LIFE AND RELATIVES

In interview of November 30, 1963, subject advised her mother had died when she was in the second year of pharmacy school in Leningrad. She continued to reside with her stepfather although she felt like a stranger in the house. She explained that she and her stepfather did not get along well together, and that this had been a situation of long-standing. She explained that this situation was probably more due to her actions than to those of her stepfather. She said she had been "fresh" with her mother, and her stepfather had not liked this. She said she was not amenable to discipline, and was generally a source of concern to her stepfather.

She said while she was in attendance at the pharmacy school following the death of her mother, she took her meals away from the stepfather's home although she slept there. She further explained that upon the death of her mother, the children had come into a pension, and this was divided between the three children. MARINA said she did not feel her childhood had been a happy one because of the friction between herself and her stepfather.

In addition to her parents who are listed above, MARINA has advised in interviews on November 30, 1963, December 2, 1963, December 9, 1963, and December 16, 1963, of the following other relatives who reside in Russia:

Her uncle, ILIA VASILIEVICH PRUSAKOV, who is approximately 53 years of age, and his wife, VALENTINA GURIEVNA PRUSAKOVA, who is now approximately 38 years of age, reside at Minsk, Belorussia, SSR. This aunt and uncle had previously lived at Arkhangelsk when she had lived there. Her grandmother had lived with this aunt and uncle for a while prior to her death. There was a mutual liking between this aunt and uncle and MARINA. This uncle had graduated from college as an engineer specializing in lumber. He had been in the Russian armed forces in World War II, and after the war was assigned to the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Belorussia in Minsk, and at last knowledge of MARINA was in charge of the department which deals with lumber. She stated this uncle, although he works as an engineer, has the rank of a Colonel or Lieutenant Colonel and always wears a military uniform. She said this uncle, ILIA VASILIEVICH PRUSAKOV, was a member of the Communist Party. His wife, VALENTINA GURIEVNA PRUSAKOVA, is not. MARINA stated in an interview on December 2, 1963, that neither her stepfather nor her mother were members of the Communist Party.

In her testimony before the Warren Commission on February 5, 1964, subject referred to her uncle, ILIA VASILIEVICH PRUSAKOV, and noted that he had a nice apartment in an apartment house as compared with the other apartments. He had a telephone in his apartment. She stated under questioning that this uncle is a communist.

In interviews on December 9, 1963, and December 16, 1963, MARINA OSWALD identified another aunt as POLINA VASILIEVNA MIKHAILOVA and her husband, MARINA's uncle, YURI MIKHAILOV. They have a son, VALENTINE YURIEVICH MIKHAILOV. MARINA advised the latter cousin previously had an amorous interest in her. This uncle holds a very responsible position as an engineer in the Building Trades Program in the town of Kharkov, Russia. On December 16, 1963, subject advised she believes her uncle, YURI MIKHAILOV, is a member of the Communist Party. This aunt and uncle have a large three room apartment. MARINA advised on December 16, 1963, she had taken a vacation trip in October, 1961, to Kharkov, Russia, and had visited in the home of her Aunt POLINA. She was married to OSWALD at this time and was pregnant with her first child. She stated that her activities were very limited while on this vacation trip, and she mostly had slept and generally rested. She recalls she was gone on this vacation trip on October 18, 1961, because this is the anniversary of LEE HARVEY OSWALD's birth. She returned to Minsk where the OSWALDS were living from this vacation trip about five days after October 18, 1961.

On December 19, 1963, subject identified another aunt (a sister of her mother) LIUBOV AKSIONOV, who is believed to be divorced but still uses her husband's name. She has been living with VASILII (last name unknown) for the past eight years, but her actual marital status is not known to MARINA.

EMPLOYMENT

Subject advised on November 30, 1963, she had been assigned work in a pharmaceutical warehouse in Leningrad upon graduation from the Pharmacy Technicum in June, 1959. This work consisted of packing and preparing pharmaceutical orders. She did not like this work and quit after one day. She explained that generally a person had three days in which to decide whether or not to retain a professional type job, and it was not a black mark to quit a job during the first three days. After quitting this job, she took a two month vacation and just enjoyed herself. At this time she was residing in her stepfather's house in Leningrad. Toward the end of August, 1951, she bought a railroad ticket to Minsk, Belorussia, SSR, as she had decided to go live with her aunt and uncle, ILIA VASILIEVICH PRUSAKOV and VALENTINA GURIEVNA PRUSAKOVA. Upon her arrival in Minsk, her aunt and uncle had a general discussion with her about her future. It was agreed that she could remain at the apartment and live with them. MARINA said that she would look for a job. She stated she had begun work in October, 1959, in the drug section of the Third Clinical Hospital in Minsk, which is located on Lenin Street in the central section of Minsk. She worked there for one year until October, 1960, at which time she earned a month's vacation. She took this vacation in a rest home near Leningrad.

In her testimony before the Warren Commission on February 5, 1964, MARINA OSWALD stated she had received in her job at the Third Clinical Hospital in Minsk the sum of 35 rubles per month in salary. She said her hours were from 10 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., six days a week. She testified the nature of her work had been the preparation of prescriptions.

In her testimony before the Warren Commission, MARINA OSWALD identified a union membership booklet in the name of MARINA NIKOLAEVNA PRUSAKOVA, Trade Union card number 3517282 which notes she joined the Trade Union of Medical Workers as a student in 1956. This membership booklet reflects payment of dues of one ruble in June, 1959, and 50 kopecks in July, 1959, and in 1960 she paid dues of two rubles for each of the months of January through August.

Warren Commission exhibit number 22, which is subject's workbook in Russia, reflects under her work record she was taken on the staff of the Third Clinical Hospital at Minsk as an analytical chemist of the pharmacy on October 29, 1959, and was released from work, according to application filed, on March 20, 1962.

ORGANIZATIONS AND POLITICAL ACTIVITIES

On December 2, 1963, MARINA OSWALD stated she had been a member of two organizations during her residence in Russia. One of these organizations had been the Medical Workers Union, which is referred to above. She was also considered a member of the Komsomol, which she identified as a communist youth organization, for approximately one year while she was employed in the drug section of the Third Clinical Hospital in Minsk. She said she had been relieved of this membership, however, when she failed to pick up her membership card. She said she attended no meetings of the Komsomol and had no interest in it. She said she belonged to no other organization.

In the various interviews, MARINA has stated she has never been politically minded. She said she had no interest in politics while she was a resident in Russia, and she has no interest in politics in the United States.

MARINA advised she had never been contacted by any Russian Intelligence employee in Russia prior to or subsequent to her marriage in Russia, and that she had not been so contacted in the United States. She said she had made application with the appropriate Russian officials to obtain appropriate documentation to leave the country. She said she has nothing against Russia nor against the United States. She said she would not carry out an espionage or intelligence assignment for either country if she were asked because she wants to lead a simple plain life.

On December 9, 1963, MARINA was questioned as to why the Soviets had permitted her to leave Russia. She said when she first applied for permission from the Russian Government to leave Russia, she did not have high hopes of being able to depart. She said she had not heard of any specific difficulties which had to be overcome by a Russian citizen requesting permission to live abroad, but she thought she would have a hard time obtaining this permission. She received a standard letter from authorities in answer to her initial request for an exit permit. Following this, she received on about New Year's of 1962 a communication from the Russian Government that permission would be granted her to depart for the United States. She received her actual exit permit in May, 1962. In this connection, MARINA OSWALD advised on December 9, 1963, she does not believe OSWALD had any trouble obtaining official Russian documentation to depart Russia. She said generally speaking foreigners who reside in Russia do not have any difficulty in this regard. She feels sure there was no deal between OSWALD and Russia for OSWALD to furnish information to them in return for being permitted to leave Russia. She said OSWALD had been given certain preferential treatment while in Russia, which most foreigners are allowed. For example, he was permitted to live in an apartment rather than a dormitory while in Minsk, while probably it would have been better that he be required to live in a dormitory so he would know what Russian life was like.

FRIENDS, ACQUAINTANCES AND SOCIAL LIFE IN RUSSIA

Subject advised on November 30, 1963, her uncle and aunt in Minsk had discussed with her her possibilities of getting married, and her uncle was opposed to an early marriage by her. MARINA said she was eighteen at this time. MARINA said she, herself, was opposed to marriage at this time and desired only to get a job and go to work. She had previously had male admirers in Leningrad and had recently broken up with a young man by the name of OLEG PAVLOVICH TARUSIN because the boy's mother, EKATERINA NIKITCHENA TARUSINA, was very much interested in her son marrying MARINA, but neither the boy nor MARINA felt their relationship was close enough for marriage. TARUSINA and her son resided at Leningrad, Russia. In discussing her address book in an interview on December 17, 1963, MARINA advised the latest address which she has for OLEG TARUSIN is Kirovsky Oblast; Shabolinsky Section; Ukazinsky, SSR.

In the interview of November 30, 1963, subject said that while living in Leningrad, she had visited Minsk on several occasions. On one of these occasions her uncle at Minsk had introduced her to a young man who lived in the same apartment as did the uncle. Through this acquaintance-ship, MARINA became acquainted with a great many young men and women in Minsk with whom she associated socially when she later lived in Minsk. These young people were for the most part students in schools of architecture, medicine, and engineering. Their social life was taken up in good part by getting together in cafes where they would sip coffee, exchange gossip, and read newspapers. She said very heated discussions were carried on among the students about different architectural designs and other professional topics. She said also the various young people would get together at someone's house and listen to phonograph records. She advised this period was a very enjoyable one in her life, and she found her social associations very pleasant.

In her testimony before the Warren Commission on February 5, 1964, subject testified she did not belong to any social groups or culture groups in Minsk. She said she had gone out with groups of students in the evening and after she came to the United States she had corresponded with certain of these friends who lived in Minsk. Various letters received from her friends who are listed herein below have been identified by subject in her testimony before the Warren Commission. The majority of this correspondence was from her girl friend, GALINA KHONTULEVA and friends of OSWALD and herself, ERIC (ERICH) TITOVETS or TITOVIETS and PAVEL GOLOVACHEV. She has identified before the Warren Commission other correspondence with her friends ELLA SOBOLEVA, ALEXANDER ZIEGER and his family, and OLGA DMOVSKAYA.

In interviews of December 1, December 3, December 17, and December 19, 1963, and interview of February 25, 1964, MARINA OSWALD furnished the names and addresses, where known, of various of her friends in Russia as follows:

MARRIAGE TO LEE HARVEY OSWALD

MARINA OSWALD advised on November 30, 1963, she had been invited to attend a social affair to be held at the Palace of Culture in Minsk by some medical student friends. This was about the middle of March of 1961. She went to this dance and there was introduced by a mutual friend of hers and OSWALD, YURI MEREZSHINSKY, to LEE HARVEY OSWALD. She was invited to dance by OSWALD and she accepted, and thereafter they spent much time together that evening. She noted OSWALD's Russian, although good, bore a definite accent. She thought OSWALD possibly had come from one of the Russian-speaking Baltic countries. That evening OSWALD asked if he could see her again.

Subject advised in an interview on December 1, 1963, that she and a girl friend had again gone to the Palace of Culture a week later to attend a dance, and she found OSWALD waiting for her. She and OSWALD joined company and spent the entire evening dancing and thereafter OSWALD took her home. At this time she was residing in the apartment of her aunt and uncle. She and OSWALD made arrangements to meet the following Friday on a certain street corner in Minsk. During that following week, her aunt told her that a boy named ALIK had called on the telephone and asked for MARINA, and ALIK had told the aunt he was in the Fourth Clinical Hospital in the Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Department. MARINA explained OSWALD was known to her as ALIK because the Russian people preferred to call him ALIK in preference to LEE. She said the pronunciation of the name LEE is foreign to the Russian ear. She visited OSWALD at the Fourth Clinical Hospital and discovered he was a patient for correction of a glandular ear problem. She visited him everyday while he was at the hospital.

Subject explained she had found out that OSWALD was an American on the occasion of their first meeting at the Palace of Culture. She found this out through a third party. On her first visit to the hospital to see OSWALD, she asked him some questions about America. OSWALD told her he preferred America to Russia because he could not take the hard winters. He said he did not think he could live through another hard Russian winter. She asked him why he had come to Russia, and he replied that as Russia was considered the leader of the Socialist World he wanted to see it. OSWALD did not say how long he was going to stay in Russia. She asked him on this first visit to the hospital if he could return to the United States and he said he could not return. OSWALD said he had given up his American documents to the American Embassy and told the American officials he would never return to America. She said that after they were married OSWALD told her he had been offered Soviet citizenship prior to their marriage, but he had refused it.

Subject explained she had been interested in the United States while she resided in Russia as she was interested in all foreign countries. She said she knew OSWALD could not return to the United States because he said he could not. Subject at this point volunteered the information she had married OSWALD because she loved him and not because he was an American or for the purpose of coming to the United States.

Following his release from the hospital, OSWALD and subject frequently saw each other. He was introduced to subject's uncle and aunt, who did not disapprove of OSWALD but were, in fact, glad MARINA had reduced the number of her boy friends to almost one. She explained she also on occasion saw a young man by the name of ANATOLI (Last Name Unknown) who was attending medical school.

On April 20, 1961, she agreed to marry OSWALD. Together they went to the registrar to file their intent to marry. They were told it would take her seven days to obtain permission to marry a foreigner. This permission was granted in seven days, and it was, thereafter, necessary to wait three more days to fulfill the required ten days waiting period. They were certified as married by the registrar on April 30, 1961. On that same date, her aunt and uncle had a reception for them in their apartment and invited their friends.

During this interview of December 1, 1963, MARINA said she had not been interviewed by any official concerning her proposed marriage to OSWALD, and the only act she had performed was to register as related above.

MARINA OSWALD stated in an interview on December 2, 1963, after her marriage she moved into OSWALD's apartment which was located in an apartment house, address Kommunisticheskaya, House 4, Apartment 25, Minsk. This apartment house was in the middle of town and was occupied mainly by workers in the plant where OSWALD was employed. OSWALD was employed in a radio factory in Minsk. He was an unskilled laborer and was paid by piece work. His salary was adequate in comparison with people his age and with his line of work. She said OSWALD had been offered a transfer to another department in the factory where he could make more money but by the time he received this offer, he was thinking of returning to the United States and there was no stimulus for him to make the change. Their apartment was on the fourth floor of a five-story building and the rent was seven and one-half rubles per month which included utilities. It consisted of a combination living, dining and bedroom, a kitchen, a bath and a foyer. They had a balcony, which was a private balcony.

Subject said following their marriage they frequently had friends to visit them in their apartment house, and they also attended the opera, concerts, the circus and the films. They did not have the use of an automobile and used a bus or taxi or walked to their destination.

Subject continued her work at the Third Clinical Hospital.

On December 1, 1963, subject advised she had taken employment at the Third Clinical Hospital in October, 1959, and her last date of work at this place was in December, 1961, on which date she went on maternity leave which would normally end two months after the birth of the child. Her first child, JUNE LEE OSWALD, was born February 15, 1962. She would normally be entitled to maternity leave ending approximately April 15, 1962; she did not, however, return to work after the birth of her child.

CITIZENSHIP AND IMMIGRATION DOCUMENTATION AND EXIT TO UNITED STATES

In the interview with MARINA OSWALD on December 2, 1963, subject stated OSWALD had begun to speak of his desire to return to the United States about three months after they were married. MARINA agreed to this and thereafter OSWALD advised the American Embassy at Moscow of his marriage and expressed a desire to return to the United States and requested permission for approval for MARINA to accompany him. She meanwhile wrote a government department in Minsk requesting Russian documentation to depart for the United States, and her request was forwarded to the foreign office in Moscow. She received papers from Minsk and also from Moscow to complete. She completed the papers and forwarded them as directed. She then wrote to the American Embassy in Moscow requesting permission to depart for the United States with her husband. Subject advised that sometime after writing the American Embassy in Moscow she and OSWALD were requested to appear for an interview in Moscow. She stated she believed this date to be in the late summer, 1961. She and OSWALD flew to Moscow where OSWALD was interviewed by an American official at the Embassy while she waited outside. Later she was interviewed by an American official. She advised the American official that she desired to depart for the United States with her husband.

In testimony before the Warren Commission on February 6, 1964, subject stated she had never had any status in the Armed Forces of the Soviet Union, but all medical workers had a military obligation. Subject identified Warren Commission Exhibit No. 23 which is a booklet entitled "Draft Registration Certificate, Ministry of Defense of the USSR. 1957." This draft certificate is in the name of MARINA NIKOLAEVNA OSWALD (name "PRUSAKOVA" is crossed out). This certificate was issued by The Frunze District Military Commissariat at the city of Minsk on October (?) 28, 1959, by the District Military Commander. A summary of the information given on this form reflects the birth of subject in 1941, and she was classified as a reserve in the second category in draft group "SA" under the specialty of Pharmacist, with a military rank of Private.

WRH/jtf

It was noted she was a "non-party" woman. In answer to the question, "If member of the Komsomol, month and year joined", the answer was given "Not a member". Her nationality was listed as Russian, her native language as Russian, and it was stated she does not know any foreign languages. In answer to the question as to her social class, she was listed as an employee. Her education was given as "Completed 7 years of the secondary school in 1955, and 4 year course of the Leningrad Pharmaceutical School in 1959".

According to the subject in an interview on December 3, 1963, she had applied in May of 1961 to the Russian officials at Minsk and Moscow for permission to leave Russia for the United States. She and OSWALD received permission from the United States officials first and waited at Minsk for the arrival of the Russian papers. The Russian permit for exit for subject arrived about New Years of 1962. She said OSWALD had been granted permission by the Russian officials earlier. She said OSWALD had been advised by the American Embassy that he could depart for the United States and suggested to him he could depart without MARINA, but he refused to do so as he desired to take his wife with him. MARINA received her actual exit permit from the Russian Government about the middle of May, 1962.

Shortly after receiving all necessary documentation, subject and OSWALD left Minsk with their baby and arrived in Moscow about May 20, 1962. They spent about ten days in Moscow where they stayed at the Hotel Ostankino and the Hotel Berlin while OSWALD tended to the formalities necessary for the departure to the United States. While in Moscow, they exchanged sufficient rubles to obtain one-hundred eighty U.S. dollars. They departed from Moscow by train, according to subject's statement, about May 30, 1962, and traveled through Poland, Germany and Holland. At Amsterdam they boarded a ship for the United States and arrived in New York on June 13, 1962.

A review of Warren Commission Exhibit No. 29 (above), which is subject's passport, reflects subject was issued a transit visa on May 29, 1962, from the Polish Government, the Government of the Netherlands, the German Democratic Republic and the Federal Republic of Germany, and she exited from the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics on June 2, 1962, at Brest.

(This residence has been confirmed by M. W. GEORGE,

DL 105-1435
WRH/jtf

According to an interview with Mrs. RUTH PAINE at 2515 West Fifth Street, Irving, Texas, subject's husband was taken by her and subject to the bus station at Dallas, Texas, from where he left for New Orleans, Louisiana, on April 24, 1963. Thereafter, she resided with Mrs. PAINE at this address until May 10, 1963, when Mrs. PAINE drove subject to New Orleans to join her husband.

Subject and her husband and daughter resided at 4905 Magazine Street, New Orleans, from her arrival on approximately May 11, 1963, until September 23, 1963, on which date subject and Mrs. PAINE and subject's daughter, according to interviews, left New Orleans to return to the Dallas area. From September 24, 1963, until November 22, 1963, MARINA resided at the PAINE residence as confirmed in interviews with Mrs. PAINE and subject.

Following the assassination of President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY, subject resided for a short time at the Inn of the Six Flags, Arlington, Texas.

She began residence at the home of JAMES HERBERT MARTIN, 11611 Farrar Street, Dallas, Texas, on December 30, 1963, and remained there until February 9, 1964.

From February 9, 1964, until February 29, 1964, she resided at the home of Mr. and Mrs. DECLAN FORD, 14057 Brookcrest, Dallas, Texas.

On February 29, 1964, MARINA and her two children moved into a rented home at 629 Belt Line Road, Richardson, Texas, which was her residence as of December 30, 1964.

Subject's residences at the Inn of the Six Flags, at the homes of JAMES HERBERT MARTIN and DECLAN FORD, and at her present address are verified by observation on the part of interviewing FBI Agents at Dallas, Texas.

Mrs. MARGUERITE CLAVERIE OSWALD, 2220 Thomas Place, Fort Worth, Texas, advised Special Agents W. HARLAN BROWN and CHARLES T. BROWN, JR., on November 22, 1963, she is the mother of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and her son and subject had resided with her following a short residence with her other son, ROBERT LEE, when they returned from Russia.

WRH/jtf

ROBERT LEE OSWALD, brother of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, then a resident at 1009 Sierra, Denton, Texas, who now resides at Wichita Falls, Texas, advised Special Agents RICHARD E. HARRISON and JOHN V. ALMON on November 22, 1963, subject and his brother, LEE HARVEY, had resided with him at his home at 7313 Davenport, Fort Worth, Texas, for approximately two months.

Mrs. JOHN R. (ELENA) HALL, 4760 Trail Lake Drive, Fort Worth, Texas, advised Special Agents EARLE HALEY and ROBLEY D. MADLAND on November 29, 1963, she had met subject and her husband through a friend, GEORGE BOUHE, of Dallas, Texas, in June or July, 1962. She stated there is a small group of Russian-speaking people, like herself, in the Dallas-Fort Worth area who are friends and visit together, and when any Russian-speaking persons come into the community, they try to help them out so they will not be so lonely. She said she felt sorry for MARINA OSWALD from her first meeting with the latter because she had no clothes, and her husband was out of work. She said the OSWALDS were residing at 2703 Mercedes Street, Fort Worth, Texas, at this time.

Mrs. HALL continued that in early October, 1962, subject told her that her husband wanted to move to Dallas, and she had no money to pay for the house and the bills. Mrs. HALL said she asked MARINA OSWALD to move into her home until she could go to Dallas to join her husband.

She said she took MARINA OSWALD and her daughter to Dallas on about October 17, 1962, where the daughter, JUNE LEE, was baptized at the Saint Seraphim Eastern Greek Orthodox Church. Subject continued to live in her home until sometime in early November, 1962.

Mrs. TEOFIL (ANNA) MELLER, 5930½ LaVista Drive, Dallas, Texas, advised Special Agents ALVIN J. ZIMMERMAN and W. HARLAN BROWN on November 23, 1963, she is of Russian extraction and had met subject during July or August, 1962, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. PETER GREGORY, 3512 Dorothy Lane, in Fort Worth, Texas. Subject could not speak English; had no friends in the United States; and was destitute financially.

WRH/jtf

Mrs. MELLER made trips from her home in Dallas to Fort Worth and took Mrs. OSWALD clothing which had been donated by friends. She also contributed groceries to the family during this period.

Mrs. MELLER stated one night, possibly in November, 1962, she received a telephone call about 11:00 p.m. from subject. The latter told her in Russian her husband had beaten her and she had no money to secure lodging. Mrs. MELLER directed subject to take a taxi to her home. Subject and her baby arrived at the MELLER home in Dallas, and they stayed at her home for about one week. Since she lives in an apartment, Mrs. MELLER made arrangements for subject and her baby to reside at the home of Mr. and Mrs. DECLAN FORD at 14057 Brookcrest in Dallas.

Mrs. DECLAN (KATHERINE) FORD, 14057 Brookcrest, Dallas, advised Special Agents JAMES P. HOSTY, JR., and JACK PEDEN on November 24, 1963, she is the wife of DECLAN FORD and is a friend of subject. Mrs. FORD advised she was born in Russia and speaks the Russian language. She became acquainted with subject and OSWALD in the fall of 1962 through Mr. GEORGE BOUHE of Dallas. Mrs. FORD advised subject and her child had resided at her home from November 11, 1962, until November 17, 1962. Following this she went to reside at the residence of FRANK HENRY RAY at 4524 Alta Vista Lane, Dallas. On November 18, 1962, LEE HARVEY OSWALD contacted his wife; they made up, and she went back to live with him at 604 Elsbeth Street, Dallas, Texas.

Mrs. MICHAEL R. (RUTH) PAINE, 2515 West Fifth Street, Irving, Texas, advised Special Agents JAMES P. HOSTY, JR., and JOE B. ABERNATHY on November 23, 1963, she first met OSWALD and subject during the winter of 1963, very possibly on February 22, 1963, at a social gathering where Mrs. PAINE (who speaks Russian) had a conversation with subject. She said that in approximately April of 1963, subject and OSWALD visited in her home for dinner. She advised MARINA OSWALD and her daughter, JUNE LEE, resided at her home in Irving, Texas, from April 24, 1963, when OSWALD went by bus to New Orleans, until May 10, 1963, when Mrs. PAINE drove subject to New Orleans to join her husband who was residing at 4905 Magazine Street. They arrived in New Orleans on May 11, 1963. Thereafter, Mrs. PAINE returned to New Orleans in September, 1963, to pick up subject again. She took subject and her daughter, JUNE LEE, from New Orleans on September 23, 1963, and returned with them to her home in Irving, Texas, where they resided until the day of the assassination of President KENNEDY, November 22, 1963.

In her testimony before the Warren Commission on February 3, 1964, subject relates information concerning her residence with her brother-in-law, ROBERT LEE OSWALD, at Fort Worth, for about one and one-half to two months and her subsequent residence at Mercedes Street in Fort Worth. She recalls her temporary residence with Mrs. ELENA HALL at Fort Worth and her residence on Elsbeth Street and Neely Street in Dallas, Texas. In her testimony on this date, she described her residence with Mrs. RUTH PAINE and her trip to New Orleans, Louisiana, from Dallas, Texas, and from New Orleans to Dallas with Mrs. PAINE. She also relates she resided on Magazine Street in New Orleans, Louisiana.

Dear Comrade Reznichenko!

I wish to let you know that at present we, i. e., Oswald, Marina Nikolaevna, and the family are living in Dallas, and not in Fort Worth, as formerly. I believe that my former Fort Worth address should remain in the passport, or, rather, in the Residence Permit, because my husband's brother lives there permanently, while we change our address often because my husband changes work and for other reasons. Because of this, my Soviet passport would only be travelling back and forth all the time, from me to you. Here is my post office address, in case you need to send me any correspondence:

Mrs. M. Oswald
Box 2915, Dallas, Texas

I wish you a happy New Year once more and send you my sincerest wishes, not strictly officially, but in a simple, informal manner. Excuse me for being somewhat familiar, but I do not mean any offense by this.

I wish you health and success.

Sincerely,

/s/ Marina Oswald

Dear Comrade Reznichenko!

I beg your assistance to help me to return to the Homeland in the USSR where I will again feel myself a full-fledged citizen. Please let me know what I should do for this, i. e., perhaps it will be necessary to fill out a special application form. Since I am not working at present (because of my lack of knowledge of the English language and a small child), I am requesting you to extend to me a possible material aid for the trip. My husband remains here, since he is an American by nationality. I beg you once more not to refuse my request.

Respectfully,

/s/ Marina Oswald.
