Mr. and Mrs. JESSE JAMES GARNER, 4911 Magazine Street, advised that OSWALD rented the apartment at 4905 Magazine Street on May 9, 1963 and moved into the apartment either the same day or the following day. His wife and baby came to New Orleans two or three days after OSWALD moved into the apartment in a station wagon bearing Texas license plates driven by a woman who spoke the Russian language. OSWALD paid his rent in cash and there was no written rental agreement which was signed by him. Actually the apartment is owned by Mrs. BLAINE GREGORY, 414 Emerald Street, New Orleans, and Mr. and Mrs. GARNER act as rental agents for the apartments located in the building.

OSWALD advised Mrs. GARNER in September, 1963, that his wife was going to have a baby and that she was going to Texas for her confinement. The OSWALDS packed the wife's and baby's clothing on Sunday, September 22, 1963, and the same station wagon which had brought Mrs. OSWALD to New Orleans and driven by the Russian speaking woman who brought Mrs. OSWALD here was observed in front of the apartment. On this occasion, this woman was accompanied by her two small children. The clothes and play pen and other personal effects were loaded into the station wagon on the morning of September 23, 1963 during the mid-morning. According to Mrs. GARNER, the front seat of the station wagon was occupied by the driver and her two children, together with Mrs. OSWALD and her child. The rear portion of the station wagon was packed full with the OSWALDS' household effects and according to Mrs. GARNER, there was no room for any other passenger. OSWALD was observed by Mrs. GARNER after his wife departed, to board a bus at the corner near his residence. He left some clothes hanging on the line at the rear of his apartment. He was not seen or heard in the apartment on September 24, 1963, however on September 25, 1963, Mr. GARNER entered the OSWALD apartment and found the keys on a table and observed that all of OSWALD's personal effects had been removed, including the clothes on the line.

According to Mr. and Mrs. GARNER, OSWALD did not associate with anyone in the neighborhood and rarely spoke to them. Mr. GARNER recalled that OSWALD did not even bid him the time of day. On one occasion in the evening, an

Mrs. GARNER observed an elderly couple visiting the OSWALDS in their apartment one evening for a short period of time but Mrs. GARNER was unable to furnish any information or description concerning these two persons. A visual observation was made of the residence at 4607 Magazine Street. It was found to be a one story double, being the house next to the corner house. On the downtown side of the house, is an apartment with the address 4905. There is an unpainted rusty chain fence, of the type typical to older New Orleans dwellings, along the front of the residence in which there are two gates. This fence connects to a chain link fence which runs alongside of the house.

Visual observation was also made at 757 French Street and it was found that there is no fence of any type at this house nor are there any fences in the entire 700 block of French Street.

Mrs. GLADYS RODGERS, 4907 Magazine Street, was interviewed in an office in the Psychiatric Ward of Charity Hospital. Her psychiatrist, Dr. KYLE HAMM, was present during the entire interview. New Orleans La.

She advised that she remembered LEE OSWALD and his wife who resided in the apartment which was immediately adjacent to her apartment. She said that LEE OSWALD worked at a coffee company for several months and then lost his job. During the time he was working he would leave home at 7 a.m. and return home at about 5 p.m. During the time he was working he spent the weekends at home with his wife and baby. After he lost his job, occasionally he would leave home about 1 p.m. and come back at about 5 o'clock in the evening. Occasionally he would change this routine and leave sometime around 10 or 11 a.m. and return at about 5 p.m. in the afternoon. On these occasions he was casually dressed, usually wearing a dark pair of trousers and a white sports shirt. She said that OSWALD conversed with his wife in a foreign language which she thought was Russian. He was very mean to his wife and beat her up on several occasions. OSWALD was aloof and kept to himself and only had one conversation with her. On this occasion he inquired as to why she would raise her window and leave it in that position for a short period of time and then close the window. She stated that she told him that she was trying to keep the insecticide, which he used to spray for ants and other pests, from coming in her apartment. In this connection she stated that frequently she would observe OSWALD spraying the under portion of the floors of his apartment. She recalled that OSWALD had two male visitors who arrived at about 3 p.m. one afternoon. One was a tall slender individual whose name was BILL STUCKEY. He conversed with OSWALD about a radio program and instructed him to be at 520 South Broad Street at 4:30 p.m. She advised that the companion of BILL STUCKEY was PETE MOLLAR (Phonetic). She heard them mention an individual named HAYDEL (Phonetic), but she does not recall in what connection his name was mentioned.

Mrs. RODGERS said that upon one occasion she observed an individual talking to her husband, ERIC RODGERS, and asked for the location of the OSWALD apartment. This was several days before OSWALD moved. She described this person as white male, 5'7", 175 pounds, dark complexion, wearing dark trouser and a white shirt, and had a foreign appearance, probably Spanish. She recalled that OSWALD received a package of books through the mail and said that in his spare time he always sat on his front porch and read. She recalled an elderly couple visited OSWALD on two occasions, both during the day time, once was on a Saturday and once was on a Sunday. This couple drove up in a green, medium sized station wagon and on the last occasion when this couple called, Mrs. OSWALD packed all of her clothes and personal effects and went off in the station wagon. Mrs. RODGERS remembered that prior to the time Mrs. OSWALD left in the station wagon, a young couple in their early 20's stopped in to see the OSWALDs and that they arrived in an automobile but that she did not know the make or model of the car. She said that she did not see any firearms in the possession of either Mr. or Mrs. OSWALD.

She recalled that after OSWALD lost his job a female, who wore a white coat and who was thought by Mrs. RODGERS to be a welfare worker, called at the OSWALD apartment. She stated that several days later OSWALD brought home a large bag of groceries which she assumed he got from either the welfare agency or a relative.

JOHN E. HEVRON, Assistant Secretary and Treasurer, New Orleans Public Service, Inc., 317 Baronne Street, advised that his records show that LEE H. OSWALD applied for gas and electric services for the lower center apartment at 4907 Magazine Street, on May 9, 1963. He indicated a former address of 757 French Street, and showed his employer as LEON ISRAEL Company, 300 Magazine Street. He said that the service was turned on on the morning of May 10, 1963, and that no one was home at the time the service man made the installation and that the service man had obtained the keys for the apartment from a neighbor. He said the service was ordered disconnected on October 7, 1963, as a result of a telephone call received by GUY HENNESSEY, Service Center Representative and the records indicate that the caretaker of the apartment had called and advised that the apartment had been vacated. A notation in the file showed that it was a possibility that the occupant of the apartment had left the city. Mr. HEVRON stated that OSWALD owed the Public Service a gas and electric bill of $23.17, and that when the service was discontinued, the bill was mailed to the address 4907 Magazine Street.

RUSSELL MOLINERE, 4934 1/2 Constance Street, advised he is employed as a room clerk at the LaSalle Hotel and checked in BEA OSWALD on October 3, 1963. He advised that the guest said he wanted a room with a good view of Canal Street so that he could take pictures. This individual was described by MOLINERE as a white male, age - in 20's, 5'11" tall, 160 pounds, dark brown hair. He examined a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and said he is not identical with BEA OSWALD. La Salle Hotel Nov 1963

Mr. MOLINERE stated that at about 7:00 P.M. on November 22, 1963, a picture of LEE HARVEY OSWALD was shown on the TV set in the lobby of the hotel. He said that he recognized him as a person whom he had seen before and at first thought it was a former guest. He checked hotel records and discovered the registration of BEA OSWALD on October 3, 1963. He stated that he now is sure that BEA OSWALD is not identical with LEE HARVEY OSWALD and that he recognized the latter because he lives quite near his former residence on Magazine Street.

Mr. MOLINERE advised that he did not know the whereabouts of OSWALD on September 18, 1963, but did see him walking on Magazine Street sometime after OSWALD was arrested in New Orleans on August 9, 1963. He could not specify the exact date.

According to MOLINERE, elevator operator THERESA DENNIS, 1419 Baronne Street, was on duty at 7:00 P.M., November 22, 1963. He said she had not identified OSWALD as a former guest but may have been present when he located the registration card of BEA OSWALD.

JOHN P. MC NULTY, owner, Jerie's Pharmacy, 4861 Magazine Street, advised he had reviewed his prescriptions thoroughly but would make them available to SA GIST for further review, which he did. He assisted in the review of these prescriptions for the period of May 1, 1963 to September 30, 1963, inclusive, and, when asked, explained the nature or content of any prescription of question. He said he knew most of the persons for whom he had filled these prescriptions, being in that neighborhood for many years. No prescription was found in the name of OSWALD, HIDELL or O. H. or V. L. LEE, or for any person for the addresses of 4907 Magazine Street or 757 French Street.

MC NULTY stated that he recalled LEE HARVEY OSWALD, upon seeing his photograph in the paper after the assassination of President KENNEDY, as a person who used to come in that pharmacy to purchase a daily paper, this being during the summer of 1963 (dates unrecalled). He knew he had never filled any prescriptions of any nature for OSWALD. He said he did not know Mrs. OSWALD and might possibly have filled a prescription for her, although he does not recall same. He said a prescription could have been filled by him for certain type ear or nose drops, skin cream, or antibiotic ointment, in which instance he would not have retained the prescription and the item purchased by the customer would not have required labeling. To obtain a refill, the patient need only call for the drug by name or return an empty bottle for a refill.

HENRY GOGREVE, owner of Henry's Market, 5101 Magazine, New Orleans, Louisiana, advised that he recalled seeing LEE HARVEY OSWALD in his store several times, but never had any conversation with OSWALD nor could he recall any particular date that OSWALD was in the store.

He further advised that during the early afternoon of November 26, 1963, a man and a woman, who appeared to be husband and wife, and who also appeared to be Cuban inasmuch as they spoke with a Cuban or Spanish accent, came into his store, purchased a soft drink, and began a conversation with him. He said that the man and woman told him that OSWALD was not guilty and should not have been shot. He said that he was of the opinion that they arrived by bus, although he did not actually see what means of transportation they used to get to his store. He said he had never seen these two individuals before and from their conversation, they were apparently friends or sympathizers of OSWALD. They began this conversation by asking him if he was the individual whom they saw on television and who had made statements that he had known OSWALD. He said it was obvious that these two people did not enter his store to conduct business, but primarily to express their opinion regarding LEE HARVEY OSWALD and his death.

Mr. ERIC ROGERS, 407 Magazine Street, front apartment, advised that he and his wife moved into this apartment on about July 16, 1963 and that OSWALD and his wife were already living in the adjoining apartment at 4905 Magazine. ROGERS said that he was out of work and that it was not until October 1, 1963 that he, ROGERS obtained a part-time job at the Meal-A-Minute, 1000 Canal Street, as a waiter. He said that up until he went to work he believes that he saw OSWALD at least once every day, up until the time OSWALD left.

He recalls that OSWALD had packed household effects and clothes in a station wagon one afternoon and that OSWALD's wife and child departed with the woman who drove the station wagon on the following morning. He said on the following day he saw OSWALD running to catch a bus on the corner, carrying two suitcases. That was the last time he saw him.

Shortly after ROGERS moved into the neighborhood he observed an individual whom ROGERS thought to be of Spanish descent called to visit OSWALD. The exact time of this visit not recalled by ROGERS, but he is certain that it was before the time OSWALD was arrested by the New Orleans Police Department.

ROGERS never saw any guns or firearms in the OSWALD apartment and never saw OSWALD with anything resembling a firearm. He recalls that although OSWALD spent the majority of his time reading either on the porch or in the front room of his apartment, in the afternoons he would walk to the corner and catch a bus going toward the business section or would walk in that direction. He said occasionally OSWALD would walk up to the confectionary on the corner of Magazine and Dufosse to buy ice cream, since he would see him returning to the apartment with it. He said that OSWALD always spoke Russian to his wife, in fact, Mrs. OSWALD could not speak any English.

He said that it was rumored in the neighborhood that Mrs. OSWALD was pregnant at the time she moved and he believed that on one occasion OSWALD took her to a physician. The date and time of this visit was not recalled by ROGERS, nor was the identity of the physician known to him.

but cannot be certain that OSWALD made some mention of visiting Baton Rouge, Louisiana.

After OSWALD lost his job at the coffee company she observed him sitting around his apartment reading nearly all of the time. Occasionally, he would leave home in the afternoon and she thought for a while that maybe he had been placed on the evening shift.

Although Mrs. GARNER saw him often, she cannot be sure that she saw him on a daily basis since some days she never leaves her apartment. She repeated that the last time she saw OSWALD was the afternoon following the departure of OSWALD's wife and child, at which time he was standing on the corner between the hours of 4:00 and 5:00 PM, waiting for a bus.

JESSE JAMES GARNER, 4911 Magazine Street, advised that on September 16, 1963 he approached OSWALD at the OSWALD apartment and asked OSWALD when he intended to pay his rent for the apartment which was due on September 9, 1963. OSWALD said that he did not have the money to pay the rent because his wife was going to have a baby and that he wanted to keep a few dollars for emergencies. Mr. GARNER agreed to give OSWALD more time to pay his rent. He said that on Wednesday, September 18, 1963 he believes that he saw OSWALD sitting on his front porch reading but that he cannot positively affirm this. On Thursday, September 19, 1963 and Friday, September 20, 1963, GARNER was off from work and stayed at the apartment, cutting grass and doing other chores in the yard. He recalled that the woman who was visiting the OSWALDs and who drove a station wagon with Texas license plates was in the small yard in front of the OSWALD apartment with her two children. He asked her how she liked New Orleans and she replied that she enjoyed it and had visited the New Orleans French Quarter with the OSWALDS on the previous day. GARNER observed OSWALD in the OSWALD apartment on both of these dates, namely September 19 and September 20, 1963.

On September 21, 1963 GARNER went to work and did not observe OSWALD until that evening when he, GARNER returned home from work and he observed that OSWALD was placing some of his personal effects in the station wagon which belonged to the woman from Texas. On Sunday, September 22, 1963, OSWALD completed packing the station wagon and was tying down a baby's stroller on the back of the station wagon when GARNER approached him and again asked him for the rent. OSWALD replied that his wife was going to Texas for her confinement and that he, OSWALD intended to remain in New Orleans. He promised to pay his rent at a later date.

Mrs. MILDRED SAWYER, 126 Exchange Place, New Orleans, Louisiana furnished the following information:

Mrs. SAWYER advised that she is the widow of JOSEPH S. SAWYER, and that she was residing at 126 Exchange Place in the latter part of 1955, and has continued to reside at that address since that time. She stated that she recalled a Mrs. OSWALD and her young son living there at that time. She stated that the boy was only about 14 or 15 years old and attended school during the day. She did not know of any jobs that he might have had, either after school or on the week ends.

Mrs. SAWYER advised that Mrs. OSWALD was a saleslady and worked for one of the large department stores on Canal Street. The son would always arrive home prior to his mother, and was always very quiet. He seemed to read a lot and was seen on several occasions bringing library books home to read. Mrs. SAWYER stated that at that time the son appeared to be an average, normal teenage boy, dressed neatly, and was not boisterous in any way. As far as she could recall she never heard him being reprimanded by his mother. Both Mrs. OSWALD and her son seemed to have few friends, and very few people visited them in their apartment. She believed that on a few occasions some teenage boys did come home with the OSWALD boy after school, however, they were always very quiet, and did not stay long.

Mrs. SAWYER stated that she never saw the OSWALD boy with any kind of gun, and never heard Mrs. OSWALD mention that he had any gun, or was interested in guns.

Mrs. SAWYER advised that she believed sometime in the Spring of 1956, Mrs. OSWALD told her that she was leaving New Orleans with her son, and that she was going to Fort Worth, Texas where she had another son. Mrs. SAWYER could not recall if Mrs. OSWALD quit her job voluntarily or whether she was terminated by the department store where she was employed

On November 27, 1963, Mrs. JONATHAN PARKER, 1945 Bay Street, Baton Rouge, Louisiana, advised that on November 22, 1963, she was a guest at Hotel LaSalle, New Orleans. A female Negro elevator operator observed a TV program at about 7:00 P.M. and recognized LEE HARVEY OSWALD as a former guest. The manager supposedly pulled a card showing that LEE HARVEY OSWALD registered on October 3, 1963, for a period of 2 or 3 hours at a cost of $5.00.

The registration card of BEA OSWALD, 6581 Elder Street, Los Angeles, California, #S7427, shows that he registered at the LaSalle at 10:14 A.M., on October 3, 1963, and checked out at 5:15 P.M. on the same date.

The original registration card was obtained from ROLAND A. BAHAN, JR., Co-manager of the LaSalle and is being forwarded to the FBI Laboratory for handwriting comparison.

A teletype was sent to Los Angeles on November 27, 1963, requesting Los Angeles to determine if there is such a person as BEA OSWALD.

Confidential Informant NO T-3 advised on November 29, 1963, that he knows the address 4905 Magazine Street, New Orleans, very well since it is the third stop on his route. He observed a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and stated that he does not recall seeing him. He further stated that he does not recall ever seeing OSWALD's wife. He said that the mail received by the OSWALDS consisted of newspapers wrapped in brown paper, origin unknown to him, some third-class printed matter and a very few first-class letters, some of which he recalls came from foreign countries, the identity of which he could not recall.

Confidential Informant NO T-4 advised on November 29, 1963, that he worked on a route which includes the address 4905 Magazine Street, each Monday. He recalled that a majority of the mail received by LEE HARVEY OSWALD consisted of newspapers wrapped in such a fashion that the name of the paper was not discernible. NO T-4 advised that whereas the mail addressed to OSWALD was always addressed to 4907 Magazine Street, OSWALD actually lived in an apartment which bore the number 4905. He recalled that some of these newspapers were postmarked some place in Texas and occasionally there would be some postage due.

NO T-4 said he observed a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and recognized him as the occupant of one of the apartments at 4905 Magazine Street. He said that he saw him on about three occasions and never had any conversation with him.

Mr. JOHN E. HEVRON, Assistant Secretary and Treasurer, New Orleans Public Service, Inc., 317 Baronne Street, advised that his company's records show that the electric and gas meters at the apartment rented by LEE HARVEY OSWALD, 4907 Magazine Street, were read on May 24, 1963 and a bill was rendered for $2.85 which was due on or before June 17, 1963. The records do not show the date this bill was paid or whether the payment was made by cash or check.

The electric and gas meters were read on June 25, 1963 and a bill of $7.22 was rendered and was paid in cash on July 17, 1963. The electric and gas meters were again read on July 25, 1963 and a bill for $8.54 was rendered, which bill was paid in cash on August 13, 1963.

The meters were again read on August 26, 1963 and a bill for $10.32 was rendered. This bill was not paid on or before September 17, 1963, the due date, and therefore the penalty was added to the bill, which on that date became a total of $11.36.

The meters were read again on September 25, 1963 and a bill of $11.02 was rendered, which was due to be paid on or before October 17, 1963. This bill was not paid and therefore after October 17, the penalty of $.79 was assessed, making the total amount owed to the New Orleans Public Service $23.17. Deducting the deposit of $10 which was made by OSWALD at the time he applied for electric and gas service, plus the interest earned on this deposit of $.20, the net amount owed to the Public Service was $12.97.

CHESTER ALLEN RIGGS, JR., Vice President, Orbit Industries, Inc., 230 Carroll, home address 836 Edgefield, advised that he is the owner of a duplex house at 2703 Mercedes Street. Mr. RIGGS said that he owns the duplexes at 2701 through 2715 Mercedes and acquired this property as an investment because the property is located in commercial zoning. He said the duplexes are of a low income type rent property.

Mr. RIGGS said further that he does not keep a record of persons presently residing in the duplexes and has no record of persons by name as having resided in these duplexes as the only record maintained by him is the rental income, which would be for tax purposes only.

Mr. RIGGS said that as a result of the assassination of President KENNEDY in Dallas on November 22, 1963, and the ensuing total television and radio coverage, that it came to his attention, and he recalls that LEE OSWALD did reside in his duplex located at 2703 Mercedes for a period of about three months during the summer and possibly early fall of 1962. Mr. RIGGS said that he has searched his records of rental income during that period of time through his accountant and has found that there is no individual rental shown on each duplex and that the income was all grouped. Therefore, he would say there would be no way of pinpointing the exact dates that OSWALD and his wife resided at 2703 Mercedes.

Mr. RIGGS said further that he could furnish the following information from memory concerning OSWALD. He said he cannot now recall the conditions under which OSWALD and his wife moved from 2703 Mercedes; however, he recalls that there was no adverse condition which prompted OSWALD to move.

Mr. RIGGS said further that the only conversation he would have had with OSWALD would be when he would collect the rent, and he does recall that each time he collected the RIGGS said that he told OSWALD he would furnish curtains and at a later time went by the house and talked to OSWALD's wife, but upon talking to this person discovered that she could not speak English. RIGGS said he does not know what language she spoke.

RIGGS said further that he recalls during the period OSWALD was living at 2703 Mercedes, he recalls OSWALD telling him he worked for some welding company located nearby. RIGGS said further that his business office is located near the duplexes and that he recalls seeing OSWALD walk to work and knows that he did not have a car during the period of time he lived at this address.

RIGGS said further that he cannot recall any other conversation with OSWALD except that concerning the curtains.

RIGGS advised that after OSWALD and his wife left 2703 Mercedes that he did not know where this family moved. He said he does not know where the OSWALD family resided prior to living at 2703 Mercedes. RIGGS stated that he did not know any background concerning OSWALD.

Mr. RIGGS advised that the duplex owned by him is furnished. He said there is no other person living in his group of duplexes at the present time that would have lived in the duplexes at the time LEE OSWALD resided at 2703 Mercedes with the exception of one person and that is Mrs. MARION BOYD, who resides at 2707 Mercedes, which is next door to 2703 Mercedes. RIGGS explained that the turnover of tenants in his group of duplexes is very great due to the type of housing.

The following investigation was conducted by SA JAMES P. HOSLY, JR.:

On October 18, 1963, Dallas Confidential Informant T-1 advised that in March, 1963 ROBERT L. OSWALD of 7313 Davenport Avenue, Fort Worth, Texas, moved from Fort Worth to Box 32-C, Malvern, Arkansas.

On October 18, 1963, Mrs. EDITH SHANNON, 2701 Mercedes Street, Fort Worth, Texas, advised that she could not recall LEE OSWALD or his wife when they lived at 2703 Mercedes Street, Fort Worth, Texas.

On October 18, 1963, Mrs. M. M. BOYD, 2705 Mercedes Street, Fort Worth, Texas, advised that she could not recall LEE OSWALD when he resided at 2703 Mercedes Street, Fort Worth, Texas.

On October 29, 1963, a pretext interview by a Special Agent of the FBI at 2919 West Fifth Street, Irving, Texas, reflected that Mrs. RUTH PAINE resided at 2515 West Fifth Street. Mrs. PAINE was separated from her husband, MICHAEL R. PAINE. It was determined that Mrs. PAINE was employed at St. Mark's School, Dallas, Texas, on a part-time basis as a teacher of the Russian language and she had a Russian born woman living with her. This Russian born woman gave birth to a girl about a week ago and Mrs. PAINE was taking care of this woman. It was determined that the husband of the Russian born woman visited his wife at this address periodically but did not reside there.

On October 31, 1963, Mrs. DOROTHY SMITH, Irving, Texas, Credit Bureau, advised that they had a credit record for MICHAEL R. PAINE and his wife RUTH PAINE, who resided at 2515 West Fifth Street, Irving, Texas. Mrs. SMITH advised their credit was satisfactory and that Mr. PAINE was employed by Bell Helicopter Company in Fort Worth as a Design Engineer. Mrs. PAINE was employed as a housewife.

On October 31, 1963, Mr. EDWARD T. OVIATT, Assistant Head Master, St. Mark's School of Texas, Dallas, Texas, advised that Mrs. PAINE was a satisfactory employee and was loyal to this country and he considered her to be a stable individual. Mr. OVIATT stated that Mrs. PAINE was employed on a part-time basis as a teacher of Russian language. He also advised that he had recently learned from a conversation with Mrs. PAINE that she had a Russian born woman living with her and she was assisting this woman in view of the fact that she had recently had a new baby and she, Mrs. PAINE, was improving her Russian speaking ability by having this Russian speaking person in her house.

On October 31, 1963, J. H. ~~KITCHING~~, Dallas County Sheriff's Office, and LEON ~~POWERS~~, Irving, Texas, Police Department, advised that they had no record for RUTH PAINE.

Mrs. PAINE furnished OSWALD's place of employment as the Texas School Book Depository, 411 Elm Street, Dallas, Texas, where he was employed as a laborer. Mrs. PAINE stated that she did not know where OSWALD was residing in Dallas at this time but that it was his plan as soon as he had enough money, to get an apartment for his family and take his wife and children to live with him. Mrs. PAINE volunteered that she would be glad to furnish this address to the FBI as soon as she determined where the OSWALDs were residing.

On November 5, 1963, Mrs. RUTH PAINE advised SAs JAMES P. HOSTY, JR. and GARY S. WILSON that she had not been able to obtain the address of LEE OSWALD in Dallas, Texas, but that she would furnish it to the FBI as soon as she was able to obtain it. Mrs. PAINE advised that LEE OSWALD had visited his wife, MARINA OSWALD on November 2 and 3, 1963, at Irving, Texas.

Mrs. PAINE then expressed the opinion that she considered LEE OSWALD to be a very illogical person and recalled that he admitted to her being a "Trotskyite Communist."

She advised that a file from Beauregard Jr. High School revealed LEE OSWALD, 126 Exchange, New Orleans, Louisiana, entered Beauregard Jr. High School on January 1, 1954, and stayed through the 1955 school year. The record further shows that OSWALD's father was ROBERT EDWARD OSWALD while his mother was MARGRET OSWALD. The record showed both of the above individuals resided at 126 Exchange, New Orleans. Both OSWALD's father and mother were employed as store managers but the name and address of the stores were not listed. The file also showed that OSWALD listed no brothers but had two sisters.

The file reflected that OSWALD was born on October 18, 1939, at New Orleans, Louisiana. He listed his height as 5' 5", weight at 135 pounds. The subjects OSWALD liked best were Civics, Math, and Science while the subjects he liked least were English and Art. OSWALD listed his present vocational choice as Biology and Mechanical Drawing. Mrs. ANE stated that OSWALD came to Warren Easton High School on September 8, 1955, and left on approximately October 14, 1955. She stated that the file shows a letter dated October 7, 1955, from MARGRET OSWALD in which it is explained that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was being withdrawn from school due to the fact that she and LEE were moving to San Diego, California.
