He said that either DE MOHRENSCHILDT or BOURE paid OSWALD's bill at the YMCA because OSWALD was in a destitute situation. He said OSWALD had very poor clothing and was making a minimum wage where he was employed. He said MARINA moved back to Fort Worth when the PAINE woman had a serious automobile accident. He said about three or four days later he picked OSWALD up at the YMCA and they drove to Fort Worth where they met MARINA, obtained OSWALD's furnishings, and he drove them back to Dallas. He said he believed they then moved into an apartment near Zangs and Davis Streets and he did not see very much of them after this move except for an occasional phone call and a visit. He believed this was some time in October, 1962. He thought that ALEXANDRA, his wife, did not see the OSWALDs after this time. He said he saw LEE OSWALD in November, 1962, for the last time but tumped into MARJNA on the street in November, 1962, and he learned they were living in another apartment near the first one he had moved them into. He said he talked to MARINA with the use of the Russian-English dictionary. He said during this brief conversation MARINA mentioned LEE was studying at Crosier Tech and going to night school. He said he believed GEORGE DE MOHRENSCHILDT later mentioned OSWALD was studying photography at Crosier Tech. He said during this brief talk with MARINA he promised to visit the OSWALDs but he never saw LEE again.

TAYLOR advised he last saw MARINA in June, 1963, when they had a brief talk on the street and afterwards he left town in July, 1963, touring Texastaking films for a travelogue concern for a two month period. He said he was shocked when the President was shot and that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had been implicated in the shooting. He said in his opinion OSWALD did not appear to be the vicious type and was more of a milk toast, mild-mannered individual with the only indication of his violence being in the treatment he had given MARINA. He said in this regard he had observed MARINA with black and blue marks on her person and had learned that OSWALD had beaten her up.

TAYLOR said OSWALD did not appear to be too educated but did read a lot and he had never heard OSWALD mention the KENNEDYS or CONNALLYS or their administrations or policies. He said he never heard OSWALD say he intended to or had given up his U. S. citizenship or that the Russians wanted him to do so. He advised OSWALD had mentioned he had trouble getting out of Russia with MARINA and had mentioned he had worked as a sheet metal worker in an electronics factory in Minsk. He advised OSVALD never mentioned JACK RUBY or JACK RUBENSTEIN in his presence.

TATLOR advised he had read in the newspaper that LEE " OSWALD had traveled to New Orleans and to Mexico. He said he had no knowledge of these trips personally but was wondering where OSWALD obtained momey to make these journeys. He said OSWALD was not paid very well when he worked and as he previously mentioned, OSWALD received a minimum wage and OSWALD did not remain on any one job or position very long. He said he worked for the welding company in Fort Worth a few mouths and later worked for a printing company which he believed to be Jaggars in Dallas for about five or six months. He said his clothing when he transported them from Fort Worth to Dallas was very poor, in a run down condition, and OSWALD often went four or five days wearing the same clothes without bathing. He added however that when photographed in New Orleans which photograph was in the paper, OSWALD was wearing a white shirt, tie, and what appeared to be form fitting trowsers giving the appearance he had obtained some money. He said he had never seen OSVALD dressed up before or in decent wearing apparel until he saw him in this photograph. He said the only person he knew of that would have provided OSWALD with money would have been GEORGE DR KMERENSCHILDT who took a great interest in OSWALD. Re said that from his relationship with the two he thought OSWALD would do anything that DE MOMRENSCHILDE told him. He said if DE MOHRENSCHILDT had told OSWALD to move to Houston OSWALD would have gone. He said he knew of no other person who had more influence over OSVALD than DE MORRENSCHILDT.

He said in regard to his former father-in-law, GEORGE DE MOHRENSCHILDT, that DE MOHRENSCHILDT preferred the Russian form of Government over the United States and stated so in his presence on a number of occasions. He also had indicated a desire to return to Russia but not because it was his home land. He said he did not believe DE MOHRENSCHILDT had any living relatives in Russia. He said the financial status of GEORGE DE MOHRENSCHILDT also varied. He said by this he meant at times DE MOHRENSCHILDT appeared to be scrimping and scraping to make ends neet and then all of a sudden DE MOHRENSCHILDT and his wife would have enough momey to do as they pleased. He said he could not understand how they could travel throughout Mexico, the Caribbear, and Guatemala for fourteen months if they had been in such dire need financially. He advised that although JEANNE DE MOHRENSCHILDT, also known as Jon Le Gon, Jean Le Gon, hid worked for IKE CLARK as a fashion designer in the late 1950's and for Sanger-Harris more recently. He did not believe she made enough money to finance any trip to Mexico, Caribbean, and Guatemala. He said it was while JEANNE was working for the CLARKS that they went to Guatemala and Mexico. He said they stayed on the plantation of an acquaintance of theirs whom they had met in Tubac, Arizona. He said they met these people through ALEXANDRA's cousin, NANCT TILTON. He said he did not know how long they stayed in Guatemals on this plantation before they went to the Caribbean and eventually to Haiti but it was about 14 months before they returned to Dallas. He said whem they returned DE MOHRENSCHILDT bought a new car from Ben Griffins Ford Agency. He said he thought DE MOHRENSCHILDT paid cash for the car and he felt this was certainly more money than DE MOHRENSCHILDT had when he left town on the trip.

In regard to the last trip or permanent trip, he said that JEANNE DE MOHRENSCHILDT was working for Sanger-Harris when they decided to leave for Port-au-Prime, Haiti. He said they had been scrimping and saving allegedly for this trip but he could not understand how they could manage to cutfit themselves so well prior to departing for Haiti. He said they went to Haiti via Miami, Florida, some time in May or June, 1963. He said he did not get along too well with his former father-in-law so his former father-in-law corresponds with his mother and in this regard his mother received a letter from JEANNE DE MOHRENSCHILDT in care of the American Embassy, Port-au-Prince which he thought was some time in June, 1963. He advised that three weeks ago his mother received a letter from GEORGE DE MOHRENSCHILDT with a return address Box 575-1, Port-au-Prince, Haiti. He said he believes that DE MOHRENSCHILDT was arranging to operate a plantation of some kind in Haiti, for a group of financiers. He said the last letter received by his parents was within the week and it was from JEANNE DE MORRENSCHILDT with a return address in care of American Embassy, Port-au-Prince.

TAYLOR advised that for background information concerning GEORGE DE MOHRENSCHILDT he advised be married his last wife, JEANNE, also known as Jon Le Gom, in May or June, 1959, in Dallas. He was born in Russia in the Georgian section; claimed that if the feudal system were still in effect he would have the title of Baron. He said he traveled a bit and had made numerous trips to Houston, Texas, allegedly to promote work for himself and supposedly had seen GUS BROWN on these trips prior to BROWN's death. He said GUS BROWN was a partner in Brown and Root Construction Company. He said that DE MORRENSCHILDT claimed to have worked as a consulting geologist for JAMES P. NEIL about four years ago. He said NEIL has offices in the Exchange Bank Building, Dallas. DE MORRENSCHILDT also claimed he had a brother who is a professor at the University of Princeton and his name is believed to be VON MORRENSCHILDT. He advised in this regard he understood GEORGE to say that his brother and he changed their He stated that DE MORRENSCHILDT claimed he had worked for the State Department in the mid 1950's and in this regard DE MOHRENSCHILDT exhibited to TAYLOR photographs of the DE MOERENSCHILDTS which photographs the DE MOERENSCHILDTS stated were taken in Czechoslovakia and Yugoslavia.

He advised that one LOUIS/McNULTON, Jr., a younger individual, more so than DE MOHRENSCHILDT, was an associate of DE MORRENSCHILDT and a constant guest in the DE MORRENSCHILDT residence. He stated he thought possibly DE MORRENSCHILDT had worked for BEN GRIFFIN, a Ford dealer, where DE MCHRENSCHILDT had obtained his car. He said DE MOHRENSCHILDT claims he can speak sixteen foreign languages and can write thirteen of this sixteen. Included in this group are Chinese and Russian fluently. He said he believed DE MOHHENSCHILDT's first wife who may live in Boston had DE MORRENSCHILDT followed by a detective agency during a custody case of one of his daughters by their first marriage. He said the woman won the suit. He advised that JEANNE was DE MOHRENSCHILDT's third wife. He advised he first met GEORGE DE MCHRENSCHILDT in the fall of 1958 when DE MCRKENSCHILDT con it is adde lived in the Maple Terrace Apartments. He said afterward they moved to a house within a block of the apartment building believed on Dickens Street and that after their return from their fourteen month trip mentioned previously they moved back to another area on Dickens Street.

He believed she used the name DE MCERENSCHILDT at the time. He stated her daughter, CHRISTIANA BOGOVALLENSKIA, attended UCLA and he thought CHRISTIANA's real father, first name unknown BOGOVALLENSKIA, had been in California in a state mental hospital 🕆 where CHRISTIANA used to visit him quite frequently while attending -UCLA. ROBERT S. LEONARD, 2315 Wilbarger Street, Vernon, Texas, advised that Mrs. MARGUERITE OSWALD had worked for him as a house-keeper and practical nurse for approximately three or four weeks during the early part of 1962. He added that during the time she worked for him he considered her to be a loyal American citizen inasmuch as she had never said anything which would indicate therwise. He added that he recalls that she mentioned, during the time she lived at his house and took care of his mother, who was a semi-invalid, that she had a son overseas and from her talk she thought he might be working for the Government. He added that he does not recall her mentioning that her son was in Russia.

. He further added that during the time she was there she was expecting some money to be sent to her from her son who was supposedly overseas.

He added that due to the short period of time that she worked for them he did not get to know her very well, but that she appeared to be very nice, and that her employment was entirely satisfactory. He added that she had quit their employment and, he thought, had returned to Fort Worth, Texas, which was her home, but that she might have worked for some other family in the vicinity prior to returning to Fort Worth.

OTIS GRAFFORD, McAdams Eanch, Crowell, Texas, advised that Mrs. MARGUERITE CLAPERIE OSWALD had worked for him as a housekeeper and cook from June 1, 1961, until August 1, 1961, when she left his employment because she and his mother-in-law, Mrs. LESLIE MC ADAMS, started fussing at each other nearly all of the time. He added he and his wife first became acquainted with Mrs. OSWALD when she answered an ad they had placed in a Fort Worth, Texas, paper. He added she was an excellent housekeeper and an excellent cook and, so far as he knew, she appeared to be a loyal American citizen and never said anything which would in any way indicate otherwise.

Mr. GRAFFORD further advised that Mrs. OSWALD had told them that she had a son who had gone to Russia to live and married a Russian girl. He added she corresponded with her son and told them that when her won, LEE, was dishearged from the United States Marines, he came to her home in Fort Worth, Texas, and stayed a few days, then left to go to New Orleans, Louisiana, to work. He added that she had advised that she thought her son was in New Orleans, working until she read in a local Fort Worth paper that he had defected to Russia. He added Mrs. OSWALD stated to them on several occasions that she did not have any idea why her son had gone to Russia.

Mr. GRAFFORD stated that when she left their ranch, she moved to Vernon, Texas, where she apparently worked for several families.

He added that during the time she worked for him, she appeared to be a loyal American citizen but was considerably upset and talked quite a bit. He further advised that Mrs. OSWALD had stated that she resented the fact that people did not have anything to do with her and turned their backs on her because her son had gone to Russia. He added that during the time Mrs. OSWALD worked for him, she received information that her son had landed in New York City with his wife and son and that she immediately proceeded to Fort Worth, Texas, and arrived there the day he arrived from New York. He said that for some reason she had to stay in a motel that night and that a couple of days later she returned to Crowell, Texas, but that she only worked for a few days and then quit her job and moved to Fort Worth so she could be near her son, his wife and child. He added that Mrs. OSWALD during the time he knew her was a very worried and confused person.

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA (FPCC) NEW ORLEANS

No record was found in New Orleans of the issuance of a parade permit to LEE HARVEY OSWALD during April, 1962.

New Orleans Police Department records indicate he was arrested August 5, 1963, for disturbance of the peace for which he was fined $10.00 on August 12, 1963.

Under the name OSBORNE, OSWALD ordered 1,000 copies printed of "Hands Off Cuba" FPCC handbills from Jones Printing Company, 422 Girod Street, New Orleans, May 29, 1963, which he probably received on June 4, 1963. As LEE OSBORNE he ordered 500 copies printed of an FPCC membership application from the Mailers Service Company, 225 Magazine Street, New Orleans, on June 3, 1963, receiving same on June 5, 1963. Shortly thereafter he ordered 300 copies printed of an FPCC membership card by the same firm.

OSWALD was arrested by the New Orleans Police Department on August 9, 1963, in the 700 block of Canal Street and charged with disturbance of the peace by creating a scene following an altercation with CARLOS JOSE BRINGUIER, CELSO MACARIO HERNANDEZ, and MIGUEL MARIANO CRUZ (members of the anti-Castro Cuba Students Directorate (Directorio . Revolucionario Estudiantil) (D.R.E.) while he was distributing FPCC handbills. At the time of arrest, he was in possession of a National FPCC membership card issued May 28, 1963, signed by V. T. LEE, Executive Secretary; New Orleans Chapter FPCC membership card issued June 6, 1963, signed by A. HIDELL, President; and a cardboard sign reading "Viva, Viva FIDEL." During police interrogation, OSWALD stated he had first become interested in the FPCC while a Marine at Los Angeles, California, in 1958; that the New Orleans Chapter of FPCC consisted of 35 persons, five of whom regularly attended monthly meetings on Pine Street; denied being a Communist 👌 but stated he was a socialist and embraced the teachings of KARL MARX in "Das Kapital"; and that he would not allow members of his family to learn English as he hated America and did not want them to become Americanized; and that there were "fat stinking politicians in Russia just like over here."

DRE members indicated OSWALD had offered that organization his services as a trainer of guerrilla fighters on August 5, 1963, which offer was refused.

No connection was established between OSWALD and the New Orleans Council for Peaceful Alternatives or the Southern Conference Educational Fund. Copies of the FPCC handbillwere found on the campus of Tulane University during the summer of 1963.

OSWALD distributed FPCC handbills in front of the International Trade Mart, Camp and Commerce Streets, New Orleans, on August 16, 1963. A portion of this distribution was televised locally.

OSWALD was interviewed by WILLIAM K. STUCKEY on August 17, 1963, and a portion of the interview was utilized by STUCKEY in his "Latin Listening Post" radio program on Station WDSU, New Orleans, on that date. He also appeared on STUCKEY's "Carte Blanche" radio program on the same station on August 21, 1963, with representatives of DRE and the Information Council of the Americas. During this broadcast, he stated that the FPCC was not a Communist controlled organization and that he was a Marxist.

1 DL 100-10461 DL 89-43 WKB:BJD

OSWALD applied for a United States Passport at New Orleans either June 21 or June 24, 1963, giving residence address as Post Office Box 30061, New Orleans. Passport #D092526 issued to him June 25, 1963. He applied for a Tourists Card to visit Mexico on September 17, 1963, #987 Series 24085. Mexican Immigration Service records, Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, indicate he entered Mexico there between 6:00 AM and 2:00 FM on September 26, 1963, under Tourist Permit #24085, method of travel not shown, and thereafter departed from Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on October 3, 1963, method of travel automobile, destination New Orleans, Louisiana.

Persons interviewed who also traveled to Mexico during this period, either singly or in groups, did not see OSWALD there or know; him.

Checks of airline, bus, railroad and travel agency records, New Orleans, failed to indicate OSWALD utilized those facilities under true name or known aliases. He was not recalled by ticket agents. Common Carrier and Mexican Consul checks San Diego and Miami negative.

Mr JOHNNY TACKETT, Reporter, Fort Worth Press, Fifth and Junes Street, advised that in June, 1962, he attempted to interview LEE HARVEY OSWALD regarding OSWALD's trip to Russia.

TACKETT stated that he made two or three trips to OSWALD's brother's (ROBERT OSWALD's) house at 7313 Davenport, and ROBERT was reluctant to have TACKETT interview LEE OSWALD.

TACKETT stated he also talked to the sister-inlaw of LEE OSWALD but was unable to contact LEE OSWALD.

TACKETT stated he has some recollection that LEE OSWALD called the Port Worth Press on one occasion, but TACKETT did not talk to him.

TACKETT stated he thereafter contacted Mr. PETER GREGORY who had been in contact with LEE OSWALD.

TACKETT stated that he asked Mr. GREGORY if GREGORY would contact OSWALD and have OSWALD come to GREGORY's office. GREGORY declined to do this as he felt it would be a trick and did not want any part of it.

TACKETT stated that GREGORY did agree to be a go-between for TACKETT to send a message to OSWALD.

TACKETT stated that he then wrote a letter addressed to LEE OSWALD stating that TACKETT heard that OSWALD had some notes regarding his trip to Russia.

TACKETT stated he pointed out, he believed, in the letter to OSWALD that some information had appeared in the Fort Worth Press, and TACKETT desired to do a story on OSWALD.

TACKETT stated also in the letter that he pointed out to OSWALD that TACKETT was approximately the same age as OSWALD, was a writer and did not desire to cause OSWALD any harm.

TACKETT stated that the letter he wrote was quite lengthy, and he gave it to Mr. GREGORY to give to LEE OSWALD.

TACKETT stated that about a week after he gave Mr. GREGORY the letter that he had telephonically contacted GREGORY, and GREGORY stated that OSWALD had picked up the letter.

TACKETT stated that he had been very interested in doing a story on LEE OSWALD, but he never did hear from OSWALD and never made any contact with OSWALD.

EDWARD A. BRAND telephonically contacted the Dallas Office, on December 2, 1963. At this time, he advised that approximately two weeks before President JOHN F. KENNEDY was assassinated in Dallas, Texas, an individual entered his insurance office, which is located at 1045 North Zangs, in Dallas. His insurance company is known as the Tower Insurance Agency. This individual identified himself as O. H. LEE and stated he resided directly across the street in a rooming house owned by A. C. JOHNSON. LEE further stated he had just moved to Dallas from San Antonio, Texas, and was inquiring regarding automobile liability insurance. BRAND inquired of LEE what type of car he owned, to which LEE replied he did not own a car, but intended to buy one in the near future: For this reason, BRAND was unable to quote any exact insurance rates, but suggested LEE return after purchasing a car.

BRAND also was of the opinion the only identification he saw of LEE's was a Texas drivers license, but did not notice if the initials were O. M., but believed the last name was LEE on this drivers license.

BRAND concluded by saying he did not immediately recognize LEE HARVEY OSWALD's photograph in the Dallas ewspapers, or on television, until after reading OSWALD had in the past used the name LEE, at which time he did recognize OSWALD's photograph as being the individual who contacted him regarding insurance under the name of O. H. LEE.

TROY C. BOND, principal, public evening school located at Crozier Tech High School, 2218 Bryan, advised their records indicated LEE H. OSWALD, 602 Elsbeth, a commercial photographer for Jagger's Printing Company, 532 Browder, enrolled at their school on January 14, 1963. He advised that his age was 23 years and he had gone to high school but did not wish high school credits for this course. He enrolled in a beginner's typing course from January 28, 1963 until he stopped on April 8, 1963. He said he took the course each evening from 6:15 P.M. to 7:15 P.M., and Mrs. YOKUM was his teacher. He said the course primarily dealt with the general knowledge of the keyboard. He said he paid a $9.00 tuition fee on January 28, 1963 under Receipt No. 24817.

Mr. BOND advised that Mr. SEMEOf the Secret Service talked to them this morning about OSWALD's record and they also interviewed Mrs. YOAKIM, OSWALD's teacher, who recalled she kept a little black book on all of her class pupils, but could not recall whether or not she had commented about OSWALD. He advised that the Secret Service intended to get in touch with Mrs. YOKUM at a latter date when she had a chance to review her little black diary.

GLADYS YOAKUM, 2234 Carnes, Whitehall 8-9822, teacher at Public Evening School, Crozier Tech High School, 2218 Bryan, advised that LEE H. OSWALD attended her typing class from January 28, 1963, until she dropped him from the rolls on April 8, 1963. She said that the class was an hour in length, from 6:15 P. M. to 7:15 P. M., on Mondays, Tuesdays and Thursdays, and they have a policy of four absences before they drop an individual from the rolls. She advised that this being the case, the last day OSWALD would have attended her class would have been March 28, 1963. She advised that Secret Service Agents had interviewed her this morning in an effort to find attendance records for OSWALD but evidently the school had thrown all the previous records away.

Miss YOAMUM advised that OSWALD was not outstanding or unusual in any way but his clothing and appearance was that of an unkempt person. She particularly noticed he always came to class with dirty fingernails. She remarked that a typing teacher would notice this. She recalled that he did not attend class regularly and he had no associates in the class of twenty-five (25) or thirty (30).

Miss YOAKUM further advised she searched her records at home but could not locate anything connected with the typing class that OSWALD attended.

Mrs. DIXIE L. WILSON, Principal Clerk, Selective Service Local Boards 111-114, Meacham Building, advised that Selective Service records reflect that LEE HARVEY OSWALD registered on September 14, 1959, with Local Board 114, Ft. Worth, and he has SSN 41-114-39-532. OSWALD was born October 18, 1939, at New/Orleans, Louisiana, and resided at 3124 W. 5th Street, Ft. Worth, when he registered. He listed as his nearest relative, a brother, ROBERT OSWALD, 7313 Davenport Street, Ft. Worth. OSWALD served in the U. S. Marine Corps from October 24, 1956, to November 7, 1959, when he was honorably discharged. In the military service he was an electronics operator and his civil occupation was that of a radio operator. On February 2, 1960, OSWALD was classified IV-A.

A newspaper clipping reflected that OSWALD attended Arlington High School one year before he entered the U.S. Marine Corps and he went to Moscow five weeks after his discharge from the Marine Corps.

With regard to Selective Service card bearing the name LEE HARVEY OSWALD, SSN 43-354-39-37, Mrs. WILSON advised that the numeral 43 is a prefix for the state of Vermont and 354 is the indicated Local Board. The state of Vermont has only 14 Local Boards therefore this appears to be an altered card.

With regard to Selective Service card bearing the name ALEK JAMES HIDELL, SSN 42-224-39-5321, Local Board No. 4, Ft. Worth, Texas, Mrs. WILSON advised there is no Local Board No. 4 in Ft. Worth. She stated the numeral 42 is a prefix for the state of Utah and 224 is the indicated Local Board. The state of Utah has only 39 Local Boards therefore this appears to be a fictitious registration card.
