

SCHILLER advised that he, MOSS, and VAUGHAN never discussed any photographs with attorney TOM HOWARD in Dallas, Texas. Also he advised that he had never discussed any photographs regarding the assassination of President KENNEDY with WOODFIELD or EARL RUBY. He stated that the only exception was that in talking with EARL RUBY he mentioned the fact that "Life" magazine paid a big price to ABRAHAM ZAPRUDER for movies of the assassination of President KENNEDY, but the subsequent sale of a story on JACK RUBY could not be expected to bring as much money as just the movie film, without a story.

SCHILLER advised that EARL RUBY has committed himself to an insane asylum for mental treatment on at least one occasion and possibly has committed himself on more than one occasion. He described EARL RUBY as a very nervous individual who is not emotionally stable. He expressed the opinion that anything EARL RUBY says should not be accepted at face value without corroboration.

SCHILLER advised that on March 5, 1964, shortly before arriving at the Los Angeles FBI Office, he had a telephonic conversation with WILLIAM REED WOODFIELD in which WOODFIELD had outlined information furnished by WOODFIELD to Special Agent BRADY of the FBI on the morning of March 5, 1964. SCHILLER stated that WOODFIELD was wrong in stating that the offers of "Life" magazine and the "Saturday Evening Post" to the RUBY family shortly after the shooting of OSWALD, were based on the assumption that JACK RUBY would retain attorney TOM HOWARD of Dallas and that HOWARD would be able to obtain certain photographs from public officials through his right of discovery. SCHILLER stated that he believes this is a conclusion arrived at by WOODFIELD, not supported by any factual evidence. SCHILLER expressed the opinion that in all likelihood no photographs were taken of President KENNEDY's body after his death in Dallas, Texas. He further stated that he had never heard any rumor that "morgue type" photographs had been taken of President KENNEDY.

By letter dated January 11, 1964, J. D. ~~X~~ROYCE, 496 West Scott Avenue, Clovis, California, advised Parade Publications, Inc., New York, New York, that he had what he believed to be "positive proof that LEE HARVEY OSWALD did not assassinate the President of the United States."

On January 23, 1964, J. D. ROYCE advised Special Agents of the FBI that the "positive proof" he referred to in the above-mentioned letter was based entirely on a double-page photograph which appeared on Pages 24 - 25 of the December 14, 1963, edition of the Saturday Evening Post. He stated that after examining this photograph with a magnifying glass, which photograph was reported to have been taken the instant President KENNEDY was shot, he was convinced that the individual standing in the background in the left edge of the doorway was OSWALD.

On January 30, 1964, Mrs. HELEN SHIRAH, 5530 Santa Monica Boulevard South, Jacksonville, Florida, was contacted by Special Agents of the FBI regarding a letter she wrote to the U. S. Secret Service, Washington, D. C. Mrs. SHIRAH exhibited the magazine, "Four Dark Days in History," and pointed out an individual in the photograph on Page 4 which showed the Presidential motorcade passing the Texas School Book Depository, 411 Elm Street, Dallas, Texas, as being that of an individual she believed to be LEE HARVEY OSWALD. Mrs. SHIRAH based her identification of OSWALD solely upon having seen previous photographs of him. On February 19, 1964, Mrs. SHIRAH was again shown the photograph of the Presidential motorcade appearing on Pages 4 - 5 in the magazine, "Four Dark Days in History," by Special Agents of the FBI. Mrs. SHIRAH pointed out the same photograph as she had previously, stating that it was of an individual she believed to be LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

BILLY NOLAN LOVELADY appeared at the Dallas FBI Office at which time he consented to be photographed.

LOVELADY advised that on the day of the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY, November 22, 1963, at the time of the assassination and shortly before, he was standing in the doorway of the front entrance to the Texas School Book Depository (TSBD) Building, 411 Elm Street, Dallas, Texas, where he is employed. He stated he was wearing a red and white vertical striped shirt and blue jeans.

LOVELADY stated his picture has appeared in several publications which picture depicts him on the far left side of the front doorway to the TSBD. LOVELADY was exhibited a picture appearing on pages 4-5 of the magazine entitled "Four Dark Days in History," Copyright 1963 by Special Publications, Inc., 6627 Hollywood Blvd., Los Angeles 28, California. He immediately identified the picture of the individual on the far left side of the doorway of the TSBD as being his photograph. He stated this same photograph or one identical to it has appeared in the Dallas Times Herald newspaper of November 23, 1963, and in the Cincinnati Inquirer of December 3, 1963. He stated it also appeared in an edition of the Saturday Evening Post the date of which he does not know.

Mr. LOVELADY stated his close resemblance to LEE HARVEY OSWALD has become somewhat embarrassing. He stated his step-children, TIMMY EKSTEDT, age 6, and stepdaughter, ANGELA EKSTEDT, age 4, were watching television shortly after the assassination at a time when LEE HARVEY OSWALD was shown while in custody of the Dallas Police Department and both of these children remarked that they thought their daddy was on television referring to his close resemblance to LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

In view of the fact that BILLY NOLAN LOVELADY closely resembles LEE HARVEY OSWALD, it was deemed advisable to reinterview him to determine if he had ever visited the Irving Furniture Mart in Irving, Texas, seeking a gun shop; to determine the make, model and color of the automobile driven by him, and to determine if he had appeared at the Downtown Lincoln-Mercury Showroom, Dallas, Texas, on November 9, 1963, or any other date to try out an automobile.

It should be noted that previous investigation has indicated that an individual appeared at the Irving Furniture Mart in Irving, Texas, seeking a gun shop, which individual was alleged to have been LEE HARVEY OSWALD. It is further pointed out that previous investigation has indicated that LEE HARVEY OSWALD allegedly appeared at the Downtown Lincoln-Mercury Showroom in Dallas, Texas, on November 9, 1963, for the purpose of trying out an automobile.

BILLY NOLAN LOVELADY, Apartment C, 7722 Hume, Dallas, Texas, no telephone, who is employed at the Texas School Book Depository, 411 Elm Street, Dallas, Texas, telephone RI 7-3521, advised he drives a 1956 Ford Station Wagon, which is two-tone blue in color, light blue on top and dark blue on the bottom.
