EXHIBIT NO. 7, ON EXAMINATION OF TEXAS
JOURNAL, 2/17/64
NEW YORK, N.Y.

J.R.R.

Dear Mr. Johnson;

In September I had written you saying I expected to move from Dallas, Tex., to the Philadelphia-
Baltimore area. You advised me that I could contact you when I had you in mind. There and only you would contact me in that area.
Since then my personal plans have changed and I have settled in Dallas, the purpose of this through a friend, I have been introduced into the American Civil Liberties Union local chapter, which holds monthly meetings on the campus of Dallas, Dallas, Texas, and at the first meeting I attended was on October 25th, a film was shown and afterwards a very excited discussion of the ultra-right in Dallas.

On October 23rd, I had attended an ultra-right meeting headed by the great Edwin A.
Walker, who lives in Dallas.

This meeting preceded by one day the attack on a.c. Johnson at the annual National Day meeting at which he spoke.

On your own side political reaction between "left" and "right" is being put ahead.

Could you send me as to the

A. Johnson Exhibit #7

general view of O. on the American and the American people?

and to what degree, if any, it should attempt to highlight its progenitor tendencies?

The Italian branch of the A.C.P.I., is generally in the hands of "liberal" professionals people (a minister and two law professors conducted the re-formation) however, none of them present showed marked clearness and insight.

Respectfully,
Leo W. Conroy

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Reference is made to your letter dated April 29, 1964, enclosing two copies of a memorandum dated April 24, 1964, Dallas, Texas, relating to the advertisement which appeared in the Dallas Morning News of November 22, 1963.

The Commission would like you to interview the three persons identified in the memorandum as contributors to the fund which was used in payment of the advertisement in question, Mr. H. R. Bright, Mr. Edgar Crissey and Mr. Nelson Bunker Hunt. We would like to know in fact whether these men did contribute to the fund and whether the money so contributed represented their own funds or was supplied by other persons. We would like these three men to be interrogated generally regarding their knowledge relating to the placing of this advertisement. In addition, we would like each to be asked as to any contacts which he may have had with either Lee Harvey Oswald or Jack L. Ruby. If other contributors are identified, we would like these interviewed along the same lines as the above.

"Dallas Morning News" on the morning of 11/22/63 carried advertisement entitled "Welcome, Mr. Kennedy to Dallas," which was signed by the "American Fact Finding Committee, Bernard Weissman, Chairman, Post Office Box 1792, Dallas 21, Texas." We learned the money for this add was solicited by Joseph P. Grinnan, Dallas independent oil man. At request of the President's Commission we interviewed Mr. Grinnan 4/20/64 to determine the names of the contributors to this add. On 4/24/64 Mr. Grinnan stated the money, approximately $1500 was contributed by H. R. Bright, independent oil operator in Dallas; Edgar Crissey, insurance man in Dallas; and Nelson Bunker Hunt, an independent oil man in Dallas who is the son of H. L. Hunt, a well-known oil man in Dallas. Grinnan stated he did not know the amounts each of the contributors gave to the fund and felt each may have solicited funds from others for the payment for the add. Grinnan stated he himself did not contribute to the fund. We disseminated results of our interview with Grinnan to the President's Commission by letter 4/29/64. Commission has now requested we interview Bright, Crissey and Hunt in this matter and any others who may have contributed to the add through these three men.

Re your airtel 5/8/64 enclosing undated letterhead dealing with interviews of Mrs. Jesse Garner and Mr. and Mrs. Eric Rogers concerning luggage of Oswald.

Letterhead is not suitable for dissemination to Commission. Note that President's Commission did not designate photographs of bags as Exhibits A1 and C254. These are Bureau designations. Merely refer to these items as luggage designated Exhibits A1 and C254.

Word "exhibit" in line two, second paragraph, page one, referenced letterhead, should be initial capped. Grammatical construction throughout letterhead and particularly in second, fourth and fifth paragraphs, page one, is poor. Statement in last paragraph, page one, that Rogers advised that Exhibit A1 resembled the two bags carried by Oswald is somewhat inconsistent with his later statement that bags in possession of Oswald were black. Suggest that Rogers' first comment be immediately qualified with statement that bag depicted as A1 resembled bags carried by Oswald, except as to color. Suggest that words "previously enumerated" in second paragraph, page two, be changed to "recalled."

Properly rewrite referenced letterhead so that it meets standards for dissemination and date same. Handle at once. Score errors for preparation and approval of referenced letterhead and exercise caution to prevent recurrence. Enclosed for your assistance is one copy of referenced letterhead with penciled notations and marks thereon.

On May 7, 1964, the Dallas Office forwarded by urgent teletype the results of an interview with Dallas Police Chief Curry which was conducted on that day. This interview was conducted at the request of the President's Commission following an article which appeared in the "National Enquirer" alleging that a high official of the Justice Department sent a letter to Dallas Police Chief Curry requesting the Dallas Police not to arrest Oswald and Ruby in connection with the General Walker shooting.

In the interview Chief Curry emphatically stated that he never received or heard of a letter from the Justice Department and he was never requested by any official of the FBI not to arrest Oswald or Ruby. Chief Curry described the allegation as absolutely false.

The Dallas teletype concluded that unless advised to the contrary by the Bureau the results of the interview would not be included in a report or a letterhead memorandum. The Director noted, "Of course it must be in a report so we can send it to the Commission."

On May 8 SAC Shanklin was telephonically instructed to include the interview of Chief Curry in an FD-302 as an insert in the next investigative report to be submitted by the Dallas Office in their investigation of the Oswald case. SAC Shanklin noted that the complete results of the interview were incorporated in the urgent teletype sent to the Bureau, and he was of the belief that the Bureau would send the results to the President's Commission by letter.

The results of the interview of Chief Curry were incorporated in a letter which was sent to the Honorable J. Lee Rankin of the President's Commission on May 8, 1964. The Commission is, therefore, cognizant and their files reflect the denial by Chief Curry that a letter was sent to him requesting the Dallas Police not to arrest Oswald and Ruby.

JOHN K. JACOBS was interviewed by SA JEROME E. VEIGLE. He did not identify any relatives of his wife with whom latter corresponds in USSR.

Mr. JACOBS stated before arrangements were completed to have Mrs. MARINA OSWALD to dinner, he advised his immediate superior at U. S. Information Agency (USIA), the public relations staff at USIA and the Security Office, USIA. He pointed out he realized the visit could be a "ticklish situation" and he did not wish to embarrass anyone concerned.

In addition he remarked he felt the invitation could be embarrassing since it involved entertaining the wife of the accused slayer of President Kennedy whom he strongly supported.

JOHN K. JACOBS;
KATIA JACOBS

It is recalled a previous communication dated April 17, 1964, indicated John K. Jacobs advised the United States Information Agency (USIA) Security Office, that Mrs. Marina Oswald was expected to dinner at his home February 7, 1964.

John K. Jacobs, Editor, "Al-Hayat," Arabic-Language Magazine for the Middle East, USIA, was interviewed by a representative of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), on April 24, 1964. He furnished the following information:

Shortly after the assassination of the late President John F. Kennedy, his wife, Katia Jacobs, felt sorry for the wife of the accused slayer of the President, Mrs. Marina Oswald. She decided to write a letter to Mrs. Oswald and point out this hideous crime will not be visited upon Mrs. Oswald or her children by the American people. Mrs. Jacobs wanted to offer Mrs. Oswald her friendship since Mrs. Oswald appeared to be pretty much alone in the United States at that time.

According to Mr. Jacobs, his wife then wrote Mrs. Marina Oswald in care of the Dallas, Texas, Police Department. Mrs. Oswald answered Mrs. Jacobs' letter during the Christmas season of 1963. She was grateful for the kind words of Mrs. Jacobs and indicated she would appreciate hearing from Mrs. Jacobs again. Mrs. Jacobs and Mrs. Oswald exchanged letters approximately two more times prior to Mrs. Oswald's coming to Washington, D. C., to testify before the Warren Commission.

Mrs. Jacobs upon learning Mrs. Marina Oswald was in Washington, D. C., to testify, called the Commission in an attempt to contact Mrs. Oswald. Mr. Jacobs stated a short time later he checked with the General Counsel's Office of the Commission to determine if that office would interpose any objection to inviting Mrs. Oswald, on behalf of his wife, Katia, to his home. At this time he was advised Mrs. Marina Oswald had completed her testimony and was a free person to go as she liked. Shortly after this Mrs. Oswald then called Mrs. Jacobs and accepted a dinner invitation.

Mr. Jacobs stated, after telephonically contacting his wife, that Mrs. Marina Oswald, her young daughter, her business manager and her attorney dined with the Jacobses at Tauxemont Road, Alexandria, Virginia, on February 7, 1964. Mrs. Oswald was to return to Dallas, Texas, the following day, February 8, 1964.

He related that on February 7, 1964, at about 6:00 p.m., he picked up Mrs. Oswald and her party in front of the Willard Hotel, Washington, D. C., and drove them to his home, where they dined. He drove them back to Washington, D. C., and dropped them in front of the Willard Hotel the evening of February 7, 1964, at about 11:30 p.m.

Mrs. Marina Oswald, during the visit to the Jacobs home, spoke mostly to Mrs. Jacobs in Russian. Mr. Jacobs said he does not speak Russian.

Mrs. Jacobs later advised Mr. Jacobs as to the conversation which took place between herself and Mrs. Oswald during this visit. Mrs. Oswald remarked it was her feeling that her late husband, Lee Harvey Oswald, was guilty of the assassination of President Kennedy. She expressed the prayer that "God may have mercy on the evil done" by her late husband. She also asked the Jacobses to thank their church, which had sent a donation to her sometime after the assassination. Mrs. Oswald indicated her late husband, Lee Harvey Oswald, was at times difficult to live with since he ordered her around. She indicated also a dislike for her late husband's mother, Mrs. Oswald.

Mrs. Oswald, in addition, remarked she had written to her family in the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics (USSR) after the assassination of President Kennedy but had received no answer from them.

JOHN K. JACOBS; KATIA JACOBS

Mr. Jacobs explained that during Mrs. Oswald's visit to his home he conversed mainly with her manager and with her attorney on current news items. He said he got the impression that Mrs. Oswald's manager was attempting to commercialize too much on the plight of Mrs. Oswald who impressed him and his wife as an honest, quiet, dignified and sincere person. Mrs. Oswald had received approximately sixty thousand dollars from various people and organizations since the assassination, but this seemed unimpressive to her since she indicated she was healthy and able to earn her own living.

Mr. Jacobs stated neither he nor his wife has had any further contact with Mrs. Marina Oswald.

He stated neither he nor his wife ever received any requests or suggestions from anyone in the Soviet Union to contact Marina Oswald, or to take any other action regarding her. He remarked that his wife corresponds with relatives in the Soviet Union.

Mr. Jacobs related when he and his wife worked with the American National Exhibition in Moscow in 1959, his wife met an uncle whom she had believed dead. He pointed out that he was formerly Deputy Director of the Magazine "America Illustrated," published by USIA. He said in connection with his duties at that time, he met his Soviet counterpart for the Soviet magazine, "USSR," a Mr. Zhiltsov.

He said Zhiltsov, after the assassination of President Kennedy, expressed sorrow on the occasion but did not comment further.

Nikolai V. Zhiltsov is First Secretary, Soviet Embassy, Washington, D. C., and is referred to as Managing Editor of the "USSR" magazine, a publication of the Soviet Embassy, Washington, D. C.

Memo from Branigan to Sullivan dated 5/8/64 referred to the Soviet Government documents which allegedly had been turned over to the President's Commission concerning Lee Harvey Oswald. It was recommended that this matter be discussed with the President's Commission and indicate the Bureau's interest in obtaining copies of these documents.

This matter was discussed with J. Lee Rankin on May 12, 1964. Mr. Rankin advised that he certainly understood the Bureau's interest in these documents. He stated Chief Justice Warren had advised he wanted to see the documents as soon as they were translated and before the documents were made available to anyone other than the President's Commission. Mr. Rankin stated he would make known the Bureau's request to the Commission and he felt certain that the Soviet documents would be made available to the Bureau.

ACTION: In the event this information is not received from the Commission within a reasonable time, it will be followed with Mr. Rankin.

The "Washington Post" on May 7, 1964, reported that the Soviet Union had given the U.S. additional documents concerning Lee Harvey Oswald, the accused assassin of President Kennedy.

Through liaison we determined that CIA has not had an opportunity to see the documents furnished by the Soviet Government. CIA has been advised by Commission representatives that a large quantity of documents have been received, but they are in the Russian language and they are being translated. It was CIA's impression that when the translations have been made both their Agency and the FBI will be given an opportunity to review these documents.

ACTION:

It is therefore recommended, in order to insure an opportunity to review the Soviet Government documents on Oswald, that our interest in this regard be mentioned to Mr. Rankin by Inspector Malley at an opportune time.

The Soviet Union has given State Dean Rusk Tuesday by the United States additional Soviet Ambassador Anatoly documents concerning Lee Harvey Oswald, the accused assassin of President Kennedy, officials said yesterday. The presidential commission headed by Chief Justice Earl Warren, which has been investigating the assassination, recently requested additional information from the Russians on Oswald's stay in the Soviet Union from 1959 to 1962. Shortly after Mr. Kennedy was killed, the Russians turned over their official file on Oswald to the United States.

The additional information was delivered to Secretary of State Dean Rusk Tuesday by Soviet Ambassador Anatoly F. Dobrynin. The nature of the new information was not disclosed. It will be turned over to the Warren commission.

Enclosed is one copy of memorandum dated 5/7/64 concerning Marilyn Dorothea Murret. One copy of this memorandum is also enclosed for Dallas for its information.

Murret is a cousin of Lee Harvey Oswald, her mother being a sister of Oswald's mother. She was interviewed on 11/29/63 and advised she took a trip around the world beginning in July, 1959, and ending in January, 1963.

You will note that in paragraph four on page one of the memorandum mention is made of a Professor Harold Isaacs of Massachusetts Institute of Technology. This man may be identical with Harold Robert Isaacs, the subject of your file 105-1125, who in 1958 was employed at the Center for International Studies, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Cambridge, Massachusetts. You should submit a letterhead memorandum captioned "Marilyn Dorothea Murret" suitable for dissemination to the President's Commission. Refer to the enclosed memorandum and include identifying information on Isaacs and background data about him. Include also any information as to an association between Isaacs and Murret. Handle promptly.

NOTE: Murret was named in a newspaper column written by Paul Scott as "one of the "most wanted" defectors to Russia or satellite countries. In interview Scott advised he had some information to indicate "tie-up" between Murret and "the case of Lee Harvey Oswald" but said this was not confirmed. Scott apparently did not know she was Oswald's cousin. Although there is nothing in Scott's information which would affect the Oswald case, we should check out the allegation regarding the association of Murret and Isaacs. Boston is origin in the Harold Robert Isaacs case, Bufile 100-286243.
