DAVID AARON WITTS Before Dallas
Salesmanship Club, Dallas, Texas,
May 21, 1964, and Basis for Such Remarks

DL 100-10461

EFP:sh

The Thursday, May 21, 1964, issue of "The Dallas Times Herald" newspaper contained the following article captioned as follows:

"DEFEND DALLAS, LAWYER URGES

"Dallas attorney David Witts told the Dallas Salesmanship Club Thursday that the city is being falsely accused throughout the world for a tragedy in which it had no guilt.

"As shocking as the tragic assassination itself is the use which has been made, whether by ignorance or by plan, to turn the murderous act of a Communist into a vicious complaint against Dallas and Texas," Mr. Witts said at a noon luncheon in the Dallas Athletic Club.

"Mr. Witts charged that in all communications media a massive effort has been made to cover up the fact that the assassin was a Communist.

"He told the group that when Lee Harvey Oswald defected to the Soviet Union he took with him such important military code and electronic secrets that the Marine Corps had to change its whole system of codes on the West Coast.

"The speed with which Oswald obtained a Russia visa, when it normally takes from 60 to 90 days, indicates the Soviets gave him special attention," the lawyer said. "He either had a visa while still on duty as a Marine or received one immediately, cutting through red tape."

"Mr. Witts said that among other things that would indicate favored treatment by the Soviets for Oswald was his job in Minsk, where he could not possibly have lived on the income the Soviets claimed he did.

"The Dallas attorney said Minsk was also the location of a Soviet assassins' school.

"And on that salary he traveled, enjoyed social life, met and married the relative of a Soviet intelligence agent, all fitting the pattern for espionage agents," the lawyer said.

"Mr. Witts said that when Oswald 're-defected' back to this country the Soviets granted his visa and passports for his wife immediately and while the U. S. embassy paid for his trip, someone else paid for his wife's.

"Oswald received unusually special treatment by the Soviets and this would not have been done unless it was of some use to the Soviet intelligence service," Mr. Witts said.

"He said the first news bulletin from Radio Moscow after the assassination was that the shots were fired by right-wing extremists.

"That was the party line and it has been amplified ever since by the Communists," he said.

"Mr. Witts told the club members that Dallas is one of the truly great cities of the world and he considered it time for Dallasites to speak up in defense of the city.

"He demonstrated his statement that a continuing smear campaign is being conducted against Dallas by holding up copies of national and international magazines, books and newspapers, describing Dallas' 'shame.'

"Mr. Witts told the group that guilt was not collective and that a fundamental truth of Christian faith was being ignored by those who would try Dallas as a whole rather than the man who committed the crime."

DAVID

DAVID AARON WITTS, Attorney, Room 1000, Vaughn Building, 1712 Commerce Street, Dallas, Texas, advised he is engaged in the practice of general civil law as a partner in the firm of "Witts and Swing" at that address. WITTS advised he was born December 13, 1920, at Denton, Texas, and presently resides at 6007 Glendora Street, Dallas, with his family.

TEXAS

WITTS was exhibited an article published in "The Dallas Times Herald" newspaper, dated Thursday, May 21, 1964, captioned, "Defend Dallas, Lawyer Urges," in which the article sets forth certain allegations concerning communist affiliations of LEE HARVEY OSWALD allegedly made by him, WITTS, before the Dallas Salesmanship Club on May 21, 1964. WITTS was asked to specifically advise interviewing Agents as to the basis for the alleged facts set forth therein and the circumstances surrounding his speaking engagement.

WITTS advised that the statements attributed to him in this newspaper article were, in fact, made by him before an assemblage of the Dallas Salesmanship Club at their monthly business luncheon which was, in this instance, held at the Dallas Athletic Club, Athletic Club Building, 1805 Elm Street, Dallas, on Thursday, May 21, 1964.

WITTS explained that, although he is not a member of the Dallas Salesmanship Club, nor does he have any business affiliations with this group, he was asked to attend the luncheon as a guest speaker by a banker friend, as he is frequently called upon to speak at similar functions and is considered an enlightening speaker on legal phases of general business activity. He advised that on this occasion, however, he digressed from his usual speaking format and developed the theme as set forth in this article in retaliation to the volume of bad publicity about the City of Dallas and its citizens, which has been so widespread in the last several months. He stated it was about time someone spoke up in defense of the City of Dallas and he decided to take it upon himself to do so on this occasion.

Miss FRANCES BLANTON, 6619 Ascot Lane, who is employed as a bookkeeper at the North Haven Gardens, 7700 Northaven Road, Dallas, Texas, advised she had been sorting out some old magazines at her residence on Sunday, April 19, 1964, and came upon "Time" magazine, Volume 81, No. 25, dated June 21, 1963, with the printed label addressed to LEE H. OSWALD, Box 2915, Dallas 21, Texas. Miss BLANTON furnished this issue of "Time" magazine which bears the label with the following printing: "DEC 63 OWA 9991SL97T780321, LEE H. Miss BLANTON said that ANCIRA is a self-employed consulting engineer with offices adjacent to the Wade Corporation where she was employed as a secretary at the time. She said ANCIRA was employed on a contract basis by the Wade Corporation on a contract that that corporation was in the process of fulfilling.

Concerning the above issue of "Time" magazine, Miss BLANTON said she checked the cover and noticed it contained an article concerning MEDGAR EVERS which she was interested in reading. She said she asked ANCIRA if she could take the magazine home with her and he said it did not belong to him. GONZALO ANCIRA, Room 1305, Hartford Building, Dallas, Texas, advised he is self-employed as a consulting engineer with offices adjacent to the Wade Corporation, and resides at 1803 Cooper Drive, Irving, Texas. ANCIRA said he was born December 15, 1929, at Sabinas Hidalgo, Nuevo Leon, Mexico, and stated he is a citizen of Mexico. He said he attended Southern Methodist University and that his wife and three children are American citizens.

ANCIRA said he obtained Post Office Box 2915 at the Main Post Office, Dallas, Texas, on May 20, 1963. He said up until the assassination of President KENNEDY there was placed in his box mail addressed to LEE H. OSWALD. He said most of this mail consisted of what appeared to be foreign periodicals originating from Russia. ANCIRA said he would mark through the address and note on this mail that it was not for this box and would then return it to the mail drop in the Post Office.

ANCIRA was exhibited "Time" magazine, Volume 81, No. 25, dated June 21, 1963, with the printed label addressed to LEE H. OSWALD, Box 2915, Dallas 21, Texas, which label had been scratched through with ink. ANCIRA was asked if he recalled seeing this particular magazine before, and further if he had loaned this magazine to Miss FRANCES BLANTON, who was an employee of Wade Corporation, Hartford Building, Dallas, Texas, at the time the magazine was issued or if he had loaned this magazine to any other person. ANCIRA stated he cannot recall ever seeing this magazine or loaning it to anyone. He stated however that it appeared he did scratch through the name and address appearing on the label because this is the way he usually marked the mail addressed to OSWALD which was placed in his box.

ANCIRA said he could not recall the names of any of the foreign publications or periodicals addressed to OSWALD which had been placed in his box. He advised he could not recall the names of any domestic publications or periodicals addressed to OSWALD which were placed in his box.

Regarding the statement allegedly attributed to him to the effect that he said when asked if he were intending to view the Presidential motorcade, "He's not my President," ANCIRA stated that inasmuch as he is a Mexican citizen he was simply referring to that fact without intending to disparage the President of the United States in any way whatsoever. ANCIRA said he did not view the motorcade and when he first heard of the assassination of President KENNEDY he was in front of the Southland Building and a passing motorist informed him that the President had been shot. ANCIRA stated he was shocked and amazed that the assassination of President KENNEDY could occur in the United States. ANCIRA stated he returned immediately to his offices and subsequently learned over the radio of the death of President KENNEDY and he left the office at approximately 2:30 p.m. and while en route to his residence in Irving, Texas, he heard over the radio that one LEE HARVEY OSWALD was considered a suspect in the assassination. Recalling the previous boxholder of Box 2915 through which he had been receiving mail, he immediately returned to the Hartford Building intending to notify the appropriate authorities of this fact and located a uniformed police officer near the building and advised this officer of this fact. He accompanied the officer to the Main Post Office and after verifying the previous boxholder to be LEE H. OSWALD, the officer telephoned his headquarters.

ANCIRA advised further that he is the owner of an 18,000 acre cattle ranch in the state of Nuevo Leon, Mexico, and is required to make frequent business trips to that property and as a result intended to visit the ranch the weekend of November 23-24, 1963. Following the assassination of President KENNEDY, however, he learned the United States-Mexican border was closed on Saturday, November 23, 1963. He, therefore, delayed his departure until Sunday, November 24, 1963, at which time he departed for Mexico with his wife and three children. While en route to Laredo, Texas, he learned via radio broadcast of the killing of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, Sunday, November 24, 1963. He advised that per his usual schedule he remained in Mexico for four to five days before returning to his home in Irving, Texas.

ANCIRA stated he was not acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY and to his knowledge had no contact with either.
