(1) Records of the Leslie Welding Company, Incorporated, 11241 West Melrose Street, Franklin Park, Illinois, and its branch office in Fort Worth, Texas

a. Application for employment dated July 13, 1962
b. Undated letter to Company's branch office, Fort Worth, Texas
c. Eleven time punch cards showing employment from July 21, 1962, to October 3, 1962
d. Thirteen payroll vouchers
e. Thirteen payroll checks

Mr. Werner Geisler, Comptroller, Leslie Welding Company, Incorporated, 11241 West Melrose Street, Franklin Park, Illinois, advised the original payroll checks received by Oswald were obtained by the Secret Service in November, 1963, and have not been returned to the Company. It was necessary to contact the Secret Service and make copies from their copies of these checks, as the originals could not be located. If these items are not sufficiently legible, you may desire to make inquiry of the Secret Service in this matter.

(2) Records of Jaggars-Chiles-Stovall, Incorporated, Dallas, Texas

a. Twenty-six checks issued to Lee Oswald
b. Employment identification questionnaire
c. Form B-3 (163)
d. 1962 U. S. Individual Income Tax Return Form 1040A
e. Employee's Withholding Exemption Certificate Form W-4 (Revised July, 1960) dated October 12, 1962
f. Time records showing dates and hours worked

In reviewing these records the following is noted.

1. The card following the card dated December 4 (Tuesday), 1962, is dated November 5 (Wednesday), 1962. This is an apparent bookkeeping error as this card should have been dated December 5 (Wednesday), 1962, as a card dated November 5, 1962, which was a Monday, is accounted for.

2. The card dated January 4 (Monday), 1963, that precedes card dated February 5 (Tuesday), 1963, is also an apparent error as this card should have been dated February 4, 1963, as January 4, 1963, previously accounted for, was a Friday.

3. The record following 2-11 (Monday), 1963, is dated 12-2 (Tuesday), 1963. This would indicate the numbers 2-12 were transposed, it being noted Oswald did not work on December 2, 1962.

4. It is further noted two cards are dated March 25 (Monday), 1963, and March 25 (Tuesday), 1963. This is also considered a bookkeeping error in that the card dated March 25 (Tuesday), 1963, should have been dated March 26, 1963, as there is no card for this date.

(3) Records of the Texas School Book Depository, Dallas, Texas

a. Regarding method of payment it is noted the Texas School Book Depository does not utilize a time clock or device to record times of arrival and departure. Employees are paid in cash and are not required to sign receipts.

b. Application for employment dated October 15, 1963

c. Employee's Withholding Exemption Certificate Form W-4 dated October 16, 1963

d. Payroll record sheets indicating days and hours worked by employees including Oswald.
It is noted the record covering the week ending November 22, 1963, lists Lee Harvey Oswald's name as Leslie Oswald. Mr. H. S. Aiken, who is in charge of the payroll records, has advised that carrying the first name of Oswald as Leslie was purely an error on his part when he recorded Oswald's name on the payroll records and that his name should have been listed as Lee Oswald.

(4) William B. Reily and Company, Incorporated, New Orleans, Louisiana

a. Eleven payroll checks

Honorable J. Lee Rankin

(5) Eleven state warrants for unemployment compensation totalling $369, issued by the State Comptroller of Public Accounts, Austin, Texas. All unemployment compensation checks issued to Lee Harvey Oswald, even while he was residing in New Orleans, Louisiana, were issued by the State Comptroller of Public Accounts, Austin, Texas.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover
