DANIEL J. HEALEY, Director of Region 14, AFL-CIO,
Room 1025 at 608 South Dearborn Street, advised as follows:

There are no records of Local 20467 at the AFL-CIO Region 14 headquarters in Chicago, and he feels certain that any of the older records of Local 20467, which is now known as the Waste Material Handlers Union, Local 20467, 72 East 11th Street, Chicago, would be maintained by Mrs. GLADYS M. WALSH, the office secretary. He said Mrs. WALSH has been at that union for many years and would be the only individual who would have any knowledge as to the existence and location of such records.

Mr. HEALEY stated that he was a trustee of Local 20467 during the time that it was under investigation by the United States Senate Committee headed by Senator JOHN L. MC CLELLAN. It is his recollection at that time that he does not recall ever having seen any union meeting minutes of Local 20467 during the time when LEON COOK was the principal official of that union.

He does not believe that any old records of Local 20467 would be in the possession of the International Union of the United Transport Service Employees of America, AFL-CIO, 444 East 63rd Street, Chicago, with which International Union Local 20467 became affiliated in about 1961.

Mr. JOHN LOUIS YANCY, Field Representative of the AFL-CIO, Room 1025 at 608 South Dearborn Street, was re-interviewed, at which time he advised that the old records of Local 20467, which at that time was known as the Scrap Iron and Junk Handlers Union, are not at the AFL-CIO headquarters and he feels very certain that such records would not be available at the offices of the International Union of the United Transport Service Employees of America, AFL-CIO, 444 East 63rd Street, Chicago, because Local 20467 merely affiliated with that International Union in about 1961. Mr. YANCY identified the Director of Region 14, AFL-CIO as DANIEL J. HEALEY with offices adjacent to his.

LEWIS J. MC WILLIE was interviewed at his residence, 3627 Eastern Avenue and advised as follows:

TEXAS FLA Las Vegas Nevada
He went to Cuba in September, 1958, and immediately went to work at the Tropicana Casino, remaining there as manager until May, 1960, after which he left and worked at the Capri Hotel-Casino from May, 1960, to January 2, 1961, as a pitboss. He stated the Tropicana was Cuban owned and that he did not know the owner of the Capri, but that he worked under one ANGELO DI CHRISTOFANO (Phonetic).

In 1959, date unrecalled, he wrote to RUBY and asked him if he would like to come to Havana for a week. He stated there was no ulterior motive and that he had been a close friend of RUBY's and extended this invitation as one would to a brother. He realized RUBY was working hard with his Dallas night club and felt that RUBY needed a rest. Because the cost of plane tickets in Havana could be paid for by pesos for approximately 1/5 of a cost of a ticket in the United States, he purchased a round trip ticket for RUBY at his own expense and mailed it to RUBY in Dallas, after which RUBY boarded a plane and flew to Havana for a visit.

He arranged for RUBY to stay in a small hotel, about three blocks from the Nacional Hotel, name unrecalled. RUBY, during his stay in Havana, would come out to the Tropicana where MC WILLIE was working from nine P.M. to two A.M., and wait for MC WILLIE to get off duty, after which they would have a few drinks together. He does not know of any contacts made by RUBY, if any, and believes that RUBY was sightseeing as any other tourist during his Cuban stay.

With regard to the relationship between CASTRO supporters and the Havana gambling community, MC WILLIE advised that as soon as CASTRO came into power, all Americans had to leave and that as far as he knows, prior to this time, there was no understanding between representatives of the gambling industry and CASTRO's supporters. He recalled that as soon as CASTRO took over, the hired help, such as the waiters, rebelled against casino management and American ownership was forced out of the gambling business. Prior to that time there had been only speculation as to the fate of gambling interests should a change in Government come about but MC WILLIE knew of no arrangements or liaison between the gambling interests and CASTRO.

MC WILLIE characterizes RUBY as being completely apolitical and to his knowledge has no connections with the CASTRO or BATISTA supporters. He never heard RUBY mention politics or any political connections except on one occasion in Dallas. MC WILLIE indicated an acquaintance with Congressman BRUCE ALGER, either a Representative or Senator from Texas, whose wife was a patron of RUBY's night club. This acquaintance was more social and personal than political. Other than ALGER, MC WILLIE knows RUBY to be well acquainted with virtually every officer of the Dallas Police force and had an arrangement whereby off duty policemen were hired at RUBY's expense to maintain order in his night club. Here again MC WILLIE did not feel that RUBY's acquaintance with police officers stemmed from political interest but rather that RUBY had a genuine liking for law enforcement officers. He also noted that RUBY is not a gambler and does not know the gambling business, further indicating to him that RUBY had no motive in visiting Cuba other than for a week of rest and relaxation.

Regarding prisoners of war, MC WILLIE stated that he had not been imprisoned nor were any of his friends; however, he had heard that HARVEY HARR, who had worked at the Nacional Casino had been imprisoned for a year after CASTRO took control. He has since seen HARR in Las Vegas but does not know his present whereabouts. He stated HARR was arrested after he, MC WILLIE, left Havana. MC WILLIE recalled that diplomatic relations between Cuba and the United States were abrogated on January 3, 1961, the day after MC WILLIE left Cuba and that HARR had remained in Cuba after MC WILLIE's departure.

Verda

LV 44-48

He does not know why HARR was arrested but expressed the belief that all Americans who had not heeded a warning to leave Havana faced arrest. To his knowledge, HARR and RUBY are not acquainted. MC WILLIE stated that he personally left Havana to avoid arrest. He recalled a Captain MORGAN whom he had known casually who had been with CASTRO in the mountains and whom he later understood had been arrested by CASTRO and put before a firing squad because he was not completely sympathetic with CASTRO's cause. He stated he does not know a ROBERT MC KEOWN. No 100

MC WILLIE denied that he had had any contact with anyone concerning sale of jeeps or guns or the smuggling of refugees out of Cuba or release of any of CASTRO's prisoners. He stated that likewise to his knowledge RUBY had taken no action in behalf of such prisoners. He did recall that RUBY kept a couple of old guns at his residence, although he was not a gun collector. These were kept for his personal use as protection against intruders and not for any active aggressive use to the best of his knowledge. He feels certain that RUBY had no contact with any one interested in the sale of weapons or jeeps under any circumstances.

With further regard to the air line ticket purchased by MC WILLIE, he stated that as best he can recall, the peso evaluation of this ticket was about $78.11, and that he had personally absorbed the cost. He could not be certain whether RUBY repaid him for this ticket after RUBY reached Havana, again explaining that he purchased the ticket at Havana and mailed it to RUBY at 1/5 of what it would cost RUBY to buy a comparable ticket in Dallas. He does not recall standing any other expenses for RUBY in connection with the trip and was unable to state whether RUBY had repaid him for the cost of the ticket or not.

MC WILLIE did not see or hear from RUBY after MC WILLIE returned to the United States except that in June, 1961, MC WILLIE, then in Florida, obtained employment at Lake Tahoe, Nevada, and en route from Miami to Lake Tahoe stopped in Dallas where he stayed over night in RUBY's apartment. He saw RUBY only for about two or three hours on this occasion, during which time RUBY did not express any interest in politics or any other item of significance, conversation centering around their personal lives and RUBY's night club operation as separated from any political matters.

Concerning more recent contacts, MC WILLIE stated he cannot be certain whether he wrote or called RUBY from Las Vegas to Dallas, Texas, requesting RUBY to obtain a pistol. He stated he knew RUBY could obtain a weapon in Dallas, probably more reasonably than MC WILLIE could procure one in Las Vegas and that he had asked RUBY to send a weapon to him. He knows RUBY caused a weapon to be sent to him as he was notified of a parcel at the post office but that he did not want to go to the post office and pick it up and let it return to the dealer without ever seeing the weapon or taking it out of the post office.

He also believes RUBY called him at the Thunderbird Hotel-Casino where MC WILLIE is employed regarding some union trouble RUBY was having in Dallas and requesting MC WILLIE put him in touch with someone who could help him in this matter. MC WILLIE contacted BILLY MILLER who formerly operated the Riverside Hotel at Reno, Nevada, and believes he may have called RUBY back from his, MC WILLIE's, residence advising RUBY to contact MILLER. He believes RUBY later called him back, not recalling whether at the hotel or his residence, advising MC WILLIE that he was going to New York to meet with the AGVA (American Guild of Variety Artists) president. He believes that RUBY later sent him a post card from New York stating that he had met the AGVA president and had ironed out all his troubles.

He stated he does not recall ever calling RUBY from the Thunderbird Hotel because of the complications of billing his personal calls through the hotel switchboard and that he definitely did not call from any of the Thunderbird pay stations. He stated that when he called RUBY, the call was on his residence phone and that he can recall no phone calls other than those mentioned above.

He stated he has had no contact with RUBY since the assassination of President KENNEDY and could not have anticipated RUBY's killing of OSWALD. He stated he had had no contact with RUBY's attorneys but that a reporter had called him from Dallas regarding the sale of arms and jeeps to CASTRO's interests. He stated that took place during the RUBY trial and that while he did not relish the thought of talking to a reporter, he very truthfully replied to this inquiry that he did not know what the reporter was talking about.

In summation, MC WILLIE stated that his association with RUBY was strictly social and personal without any intertwined business interests or gambling interests, knowing that RUBY is not a gambler and does not understand the gambling business. He did not know of any political interests or activities on RUBY's part nor of any particular affinity RUBY might have for former President KENNEDY. He stated he can only assume in retrospect from his knowledge of RUBY's personality that RUBY felt he would become a national hero by exterminating President KENNEDY's assassin.

GERALD WEAVER, 131 M. Hood Street, Dallas, Texas was interviewed at his place of employment, the American Produce Company, 1120 South Central Expressway, Dallas. He stated that he had known RALPH PAUL for approximately five years through servicing PAUL's Bull Pen Drive-In in Arlington, Texas, with produce and other products, that this was purely a business acquaintance, and that he had never been friendly on a social basis with PAUL.

WEAVER said he had no recollection of having been called by PAUL or anyone else at the Bull Pen Drive-In on November 22, 1963, but may well have been contacted. He said it is not unusual for PAUL or some other employee of the Bull Pen Drive-In to call him at home in the late afternoon or evening, after he has left his place of employment, to ask that french fried potatoes, produce, breaded shrimp, or some other article handled by WEAVER be delivered to the Bull Pen Drive-In the first thing on the following morning. He stated that in all probability, this was the reason for the call from the Bull Pen Drive-In to his home on November 22, 1963.

WEAVER said he had heard, through a source not now recalled, that PAUL was associated with JACK RUBY in some business enterprise. He had heard this following the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD by JACK RUBY.

WEAVER said he is not acquainted with and has never met, to the best of his knowledge, JACK RUBY, LEE HARVEY OSWALD, GEORGE SENATOR, EVA GRANT, BRECK WALL, or JOE PETERSON.

MINNIE SWEAT, 8903 W. McChall Street, Dallas, Texas, advised that in November 1963, she was living with a daughter at that address, but that a telephone was listed in her name at 8833 Beckley, Dallas, the phone number being CA 4-2829, where another daughter and a son-in-law, WANDA and DONALD HELMICK, were residing. She said that in November 1963, WANDA was working as a car hop at the Bull Pen Drive-In in Arlington, Texas, and that Mrs. SWEAT often stayed with WANDA's baby daughter during the daytime when WANDA was working.

Address - 4035 - 5-10-64 - Dallas, Texas MRS. SWEAT - 11-11-63

Mrs. SWEAT said her daughter WANDA had mentioned that RALPH PAUL was the owner of the Bull Pen Drive-In, and that PAUL was acquainted with JACK RUBY. Mrs. SWEAT had no present recollection of any telephone call made to her at 8833 Beckley, Dallas, on November 22, 1963, but she may have been called on that date by her daughter, WANDA, inquiring about her baby.

Mrs. SWEAT said she did not know RALPH PAUL, JACK RUBY, GEORGE SENATOR, EVA GRANT, LEE HARVEY OSWALD, BRECK WALL or JOE PETERSON, and to the best of her knowledge had never met or had any contact with any of them.

WANDA HELMICK, now residing at 902 Bagley Street, Dallas, was interviewed at 2630 Rock Island Road, Irving, Texas, where she is operating a gasoline station. She said she was working at the Bull Pen Drive-In in Arlington, Texas, for about three weeks prior to November 22, 1963, and believes she was also working there on that day. She said she was working a day shift there as a car hop, and it is her recollection she made a telephone call from there to her husband at their residence, 8833 Beckley, Dallas, in the late afternoon of November 22, 1963, awakening him and asking that he come and pick her up when she got off work, which he did.

Mrs. HELMICK said that at about this time her baby got sick, and, following this, she herself got sick, and she was off work from the Bull Pen Drive-In for several days, after which she returned to work for about a week. She said she could recall only having made one call to her home from the Bull Pen and does not remember being called at home by anyone at the Bull Pen Restaurant during the period of her employment there. She said that during this period she had had occasion to call the Bull Pen on eight or nine occasions to tell them she was unable to come to work for one reason or other.

Mrs. HELMICK said RALPH PAUL was her boss at the Bull Pen Drive-In and she found out on the day JACK RUBY shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD, from PAUL himself, that he, PAUL, was in partnership with RUBY in some business enterprise. She remembered being at the drive-in the evening before RUBY shot OSWALD and hearing one part of a telephone conversation between RUBY and PAUL, the latter being at the drive-in that evening. RUBY apparently told PAUL that he had a date that evening, and also mentioned something about having a gun. PAUL asked RUBY on the telephone if RUBY had "gone crazy." It was Mrs. HELMICK's recollection that right after the killing of OSWALD, PAUL had gone into Dallas to hire an attorney for RUBY and did not return to work that night.

ELSON advised that on November 28, 1963, GEORGE SENATOR contacted him personally at the Kings Club and stated he had a complaint to make against the piano player in the Burgundy Room. On the evening of November 28, 1963, the piano player allegedly made a remark about JACK RUBY and ELSON contacted all employees and it was determined that none of the employees had seen JACK RUBY, RALPH PAUL, GEORGE SENATOR, or EVA GRANT from November 22 to November 28, 1963. Date 6/15/64Bill Downey advised that on the day of President KENNEDY's assassination, he arrived back in Dallas from a two-week road trip in connection with his work. On that morning, November 22, 1963, he parked his automobile near the Terminal Annex of the Post Office to transact some business there. Because the Presidential parade route was going to pass near the Post Office, DOWNEY went to the corner of Houston and Main Streets, about one block south of the Texas School Book Depository Building, where he watched the Presidential car drive by. Shortly after the car had passed the corner on which he stood, DOWNEY heard one or more explosions, which he thought were firecrackers. Suddenly the crowd started surging in the direction of the School Depository, and he saw the Presidential automobile drive away from the corner of Houston and Elm Streets in a hurry, at about the time he heard someone in the crowd say the President had been shot. He stayed in the area for about an hour, and then left. DOWNEY said he did not see GEORGE SENATOR that day.
WILLIAM T. DOWNEY, 1424 PLOWMAN, Dallas, Texas,

On Saturday, November 23, 1963, DOWNEY was at home all day, going out only in the evening for a brief period to take his wife, from whom he is now divorced, to dinner. He advised he did not see SENATOR that day.

On Sunday morning, November 24, 1963, GEORGE SENATOR called DOWNEY by phone at his home, about thirty to forty-five minutes before the shooting of OSWALD by JACK RUBY. SENATOR said he was calling from his apartment, that he was alone there, and he asked if he could come to DOWNEY's house and cook breakfast for DOWNEY and his wife. DOWNEY said that he and his wife had just arisen and he asked SENATOR not to come. SENATOR either told him then that he would go for breakfast at the Batwell Cafe or the Waffle Shop at Bryan and Fitzhugh Streets in Dallas, or else he told him later that day that he had gone to one of those places for breakfast.

DL 44-1639

From thirty to forty-five minutes after SENATOR's call, DOWNEY heard a radio announcement that OSWALD had been shot by JACK RUBY, and, knowing that SENATOR and RUBY lived together, DOWNEY then attempted to reach SENATOR by telephone at the residence of attorney JIM MARTIN, where SENATOR had mentioned he had been staying.

Mrs. MARTIN told DOWNEY that SENATOR and JIM MARTIN had left the house to go to the Police Department, to volunteer to answer any questions SENATOR might be able to answer about RUBY. DOWNEY said he then called a mutual friend of his and SENATOR's, MIKE BARCLAY, an attorney. BARCLAY told him that SENATOR had nothing to worry about if he were not involved in the shooting, had done the right thing by going to the police, and there was nothing either BARCLAY or DOWNEY could do for SENATOR at that point.

DOWNEY said he stayed home all day November 24, 1963, and watched television. Sometime around 6:00 or 7:00 P.M., he received a telephone call from GEORGE SENATOR asking DOWNEY to meet SENATOR and MIKE BARCLAY at Dee's Lounge, a bar located at 3220 North Fitzhugh, Dallas. DOWNEY said he assumed SENATOR suggested this place because both of them had been there before and were familiar with the place. DOWNEY also recalled that the Burgundy Room of the Hotel Adolphus, where he and SENATOR frequently saw each other, was closed down after the assassination of the President, from Friday through Sunday, not re-opening until Monday evening, November 25, 1963.

... Around 7:00 P.M. on November 24, 1963, in response to SENATOR's telephone call, DOWNEY went to Dee's Lounge, where he met SENATOR and MIKE BARCLAY. SENATOR was completely sober at the time, and apparently wanted to get together with him merely to talk about the interrogation he had undergone that day at police headquarters. He mentioned some of the questions he had been asked and told of his answers. He was naturally concerned about JACK RUBY, his roommate, and seemed completely surprised at RUBY's actions.

They stayed at Dee's Loung perhaps forty-five minutes, having about one drink during this period, after which DOWNEY drove SENATOR to downtown Dallas, where the latter got into his Volkswagen truck, presumably to drive home.

DOWNEY recalls that SENATOR seemed very reluctant to return to the apartment he and RUBY shared, fearing some action might be taken against him by people angered at the shooting of OSWALD by JACK RUBY. He said that sometime during the following week, exact days not recalled, SENATOR stayed overnight at DOWNEY's apartment because of his reluctance to stay at his own place.

DOWNEY said he has known GEORGE SENATOR for four or five years and originally got acquainted with him through the fact that both were then engaged in the sale of women's sports wear.

DOWNEY said he was acquainted with JACK RUBY, but had not seen him for a long time before the assassination, and did not see him in the period following the assassination.

He said GEORGE SENATOR had never discussed with him the incident concerning RUBY's having taken SENATOR at night to look at an "Impeach Earl Warren" sign.

He said he does not know RALPH PAUL, may have met him at some time, but has no recollection of having done so.

DOWNEY said he does not know BRECK WALL or JOE PETERSON, and never knew LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

MALCOLM JAMES BARCLAY, commonly known as MIKE BARCLAY, Davis Building, 1309 Main Street, Dallas, Texas, advised that on November 22, 1963, he had been at the County Court House prior to the time the late President KENNEDY was due to parade in that vicinity, that he had left the Court House to watch the procession, and did watch the Presidential procession pass the corner of Main and Houston Streets, about one block south of the Texas School Book Depository, scene of the assassination. Shortly after the car bearing the President passed the place where BARCLAY was standing, BARCLAY turned to re-enter the Court House, at which time he heard one or more loud reports which he identified in his own mind as rifle shots. He turned and the crowd seemed to be surging toward the Depository area. He did not see the Presidential automobile at that time, and it apparently left the area immediately. He stayed in that area for about one hour, then returned to his office. He does not remember having seen GEORGE SENATOR or JACK RUBY on November 22, 1963.

BARCLAY said he had known GEORGE SENATOR for about one and one-half years, and believes he met SENATOR through attorney JIM MARTIN, a long-time friend and business associate. He never knew just what SENATOR did for a living, but does remember that at one time he had a Volkswagen truck and was doing some kind of selling from this truck. BARCLAY said he used to frequently visit the Burgundy Room at the Adolphus Hotel after work, for a beer or two, perhaps two or three times a week, and frequently saw GEORGE SENATOR at that place.

BARCLAY said he had known JACK RUBY for many years and believes that either he or GEORGE SENATOR had mentioned at one time that they were roommates.

BARCLAY said he has no recollection whatsoever of having seen GEORGE SENATOR on Saturday, November 23, 1963. BARCLAY said he remembers purposely avoiding going to City Hall or the Court House on that date because of the confusion he thought would probably exist there.

On Sunday morning, November 24, 1963, his mother called him and told him LEE HARVEY OSWALD had been shot. He turned on his television set and saw a replay of the shooting. He remembers that he stayed at home virtually all that day. He said he remembers BILL DOWNEY having called him by telephone that day, worrying about GEORGE SENATOR, whom DOWNEY had helped out from time to time when SENATOR was "down on his luck." It is BARCLAY's recollection that he told DOWNEY not to worry, that there was no reason to believe SENATOR was involved in either the assassination of the President or the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

To the best of BARCLAY's current recollection, sometime in the late afternoon or early evening of Sunday, November 24, 1963, he left home and went downtown, to either his office or to the Court House. It is his further recollection that after he transacted whatever business he had to transact, which may have involved a burglar then confined to jail, whom he was defending, he went to the Eatwell Cafe for a cup of coffee. There, he saw GEORGE SENATOR.

He told SENATOR that his friend, BILL DOWNEY, had been calling inquiring about him, and was worried about him. During the course of his conversation he got the feeling, probably expressed by SENATOR, that the latter was afraid to return to the apartment he shared with RUBY, because he was afraid some action might be taken against him by persons angered at the OSWALD shooting by RUBY. He believes that GEORGE SENATOR had called BILL DOWNEY from the Eatwell Cafe, and the three of them arranged to meet at Dee's Lounge, 3220 North Fitzhugh, Dallas. He and SENATOR proceeded to Dee's in BARCLAY's automobile, where they did meet DOWNEY. They talked generally about the assassination and of RUBY's shooting of OSWALD. He remembers that SENATOR was sober, and that he seemed somewhat pleased at the spotlight which had been focused on him as a result of his acquaintance with RUBY. BARCLAY got the impression that SENATOR was a man to whom nothing important had ever happened, a man who had never been held in particularly high esteem by anyone. SENATOR talked at this time about how nice everyone had been to him during the day, and of the questions which had been asked him by the police and acquaintances.

Sometime during his conversation with SENATOR, although he cannot remember whether it was on this or some other occasion, SENATOR told BARCLAY that he and JACK RUBY were concerned about a full-page advertisement in the "Dallas Morning News" which they considered defamatory to President KENNEDY. BARCLAY is certain that SENATOR never mentioned having gone with RUBY to look at an "Impeach Earl Warren" sign, because he remembers being surprised at this when he read about it in the newspapers sometime after the assassination and the killing of OSWALD.

It is BARCLAY's recollection that they were at Dee's only a short time, after which he, BARCLAY, went on home, and BILL DOWNEY was to drive SENATOR back downtown to get his Volkswagen.

BARCLAY said he does not remember having seen JACK RUBY during the period November 22 through 24, 1963. He said that on the night of November 23, 1963, he, BARCLAY, was at the Court House in Dallas to see a burglar he was defending, and it is entirely possible he saw RUBY that night, but he has no specific recollection of having done so.

BARCLAY said he does not know RALPH PAUL but had heard in that past that he was JACK RUBY's "angel." BARCLAY said he never knew BRECK WALL or JOE PETERSON.

BARCLAY said he used to share a law office with JIM MARTIN and they have been close friends for years. He said he is certain he did not meet at the Eatwell Cafe in Dallas with GEORGE SENATOR, JIM MARTIN and EVA GRANT during the few days following the shooting of OSWALD. He recalled that some months ago, EVA GRANT, whom he had not met before, called his office and told him she was sending a friend who had been arrested for automobile theft, to see BARCLAY. This friend thereafter called at BARCLAY's office, BARCLAY offered to represent him if he could raise the fee, but this individual never returned. Shortly thereafter, EVA GRANT called BARCLAY on the telephone and gave him a severe tongue-lashing because he had not represented her friend for nothing.

For that reason, BARCLAY feels certain he would remember any meeting he might have had which would have included EVA GRANT. He said that during the pertinent period, MARTIN had an office in the same building as BARCLAY, and that they had coffee together at the Eatwell almost every morning. He also said that GEORGE SENATOR was in MARTIN's office almost every day during this time, and it is entirely possible the three of them drank coffee together at the Eatwell on November 25, 1963, but he has no specific recollection of this particular incident. He feels certain that under the circumstances, he did discuss the RUBY case with both MARTIN and SENATOR during this time. However, he said that by this time, some ten attorneys had been mentioned publicly as prospective attorneys for JACK RUBY, that he had no interest whatsoever in getting involved in something that was becoming such a "hassle," and that he was never approached to act as RUBY's attorney.

He said he recalls that after the shooting of OSWALD, SENATOR did indicate a normal anxiety about JACK RUBY, with whom he had shared an apartment, but that his greatest concern immediately following the shooting had been his fear for himself and the possibility that someone might take some violent action against him because of his association with RUBY.

Mrs. MIDDLETON made a search of her records and could not locate a registration card for BILL DeMAR or WILLIAM D. CROWE, however, she did locate a receipt which reflected BILL DeMAR paid a week's room rent on November 18, 1963, which was the last payment made by DeMAR. This would indicate that DeMAR left the motel on November 24, 1963.

An article appeared in the November 26, 1963, issue of the "Dallas Morning News," newspaper of general circulation, by KENT BIFFLE captioned "Memory Expert Interests Agents" with a subtitle "Saw Oswald In Club."

The article is concerned with the allegation of BILL CROWE, whose stage name is BILL DE MAR, to the effect that he had seen OSWALD in the Carousel Club at least once "eight or nine nights" before the assassination of President KENNEDY.

The article goes on to explain that CROWE selects persons in the audience at random to participate in his "memory act" and that he had stated OSWALD, he was sure, had participated in such an act.

The article goes on to relate that CROWE had telephoned his home town, Evansville, Indiana, after OSWALD's arrest to tell a long-time friend, a radio newsman, that OSWALD had taken part in his act. DAVID HOY, News Director, Station WIKY, Evansville, is identified as the person called by CROWE.

HOY is quoted as stating that Federal Bureau of Investigation Agents immediately told CROWE to check out of his hotel in Dallas and go into hiding, that CROWE went into hiding so effectively that when the Secret Service wanted to quiz CROWE, they had to telephone Evansville and talk to HOY. HOY reportedly stated on first contact with Secret Service he did not know CROWE's whereabouts, but would inform them the next time CROWE called. It was reported CROWE called HOY on Monday, November 25, 1963, and later contacted Federal Agents in Dallas.

The remainder of the article is concerned with the description of CROWE's "memory act" and his acquaintance with RUBY.

Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation did not instruct or even advise CROWE to "go into hiding" and, accordingly, the allegation that such was the case appears to be a fabrication of either CROWE or HOY.

APPROX 1931DAVID HOYDAVID EDWIN HOYDAVID HOYMRS DAVID EDWIN HOYShirley Hoy

DAVID EDWIN HOY, age 33, married, stated that his wife, SHIRLEY, and his three children reside at 1400 Adams Avenue, Evansville, Indiana. He stated that this is his permanent address and that he is presently employed in the entertainment field doing a "mind reading act" at Paul's Mall, 733 Boylston Street, Boston, Massachusetts. He stated that he arrived in Boston, June 1, and will leave on the 16th for New York City. He stated that he never knew JACK L. RUBY or LEE HARVEY OSWALD, and that the only time he was in Texas was September or October of 1963 in connection with the Texas Association of Magicians and he was at Fort Worth, Texas and later at Dallas.

HOY stated that he can recall making a prediction at this time that the city of Dallas would soon make some news. He stated he was merely referring to a controversy regarding an airport then going on between Dallas and Fort Worth. He stated that he has known WILLIAM CROWE also known as BILLY DEMAR, who is presently in the entertainment field doing a "ventriloquist act." He has known DEMAR since they attended high school at Evansville, Indiana and has been in touch with him off and on throughout the years. HOY stated that DEMAR, to his knowledge has been married and divorced, but his parents are still living in Evansville, Indiana.

HOY stated that he is a graduate of Bob Jones University, Greenville, North Carolina, and that he studied for the Baptist ministry. He stated that in 1963, he was news director for WIKY which is an AM and FM station in Evansville, Indiana. He was also engaged as a "stringer" for the Associated Press which means he would call into them any story that came to his attention that had more than local news value.

HOY stated that on Sunday, November 24, 1963, following the assassination of President KENNEDY, he was constantly on the air and spent most of the day at his home, and recalls seeing on television OSWALD having been shot by an unidentified man who was subsequently identified as JACK RUBY of the Carousel Club. He stated that his telephone number at his home is Greenleaf (GR 6-7760) and that his business telephone for the radio station that employed him is HA 4-8324.

It is his recollection that BILLY DEMAR who was then playing at the Carousel Club at Dallas, Texas shortly thereafter, called him on the telephone as he knew he would be interested in the news story because he could describe what RUBY was like. He stated he recalls getting a brief description of RUBY from DEMAR in which DEMAR was very generous toward RUBY and thought he was a nice sort of person with an odd patriotic sense of values. He stated that he immediately telephoned his report that he received from DEMAR to the Associated Press in Indianapolis. He stated that he then recalled seeing DEMAR on television in which DEMAR alleged that he believed OSWALD was in the Carousel Club about eight days before. HOY stated he was shocked to hear this and his immediate reaction was that he could not understand why DEMAR had not told him this when he had a short time previously described RUBY. He stated he cannot understand DEMAR knowing that HOY was working for a radio station and being greatly interested in this type of news and still not telling him about it.

HOY stated that he thinks that BILLY DEMAR is the type of person who can be described as a "hard luck guy" and is perhaps extremely naive. He stated he then called the Associated Press who requested that he follow through with DEMAR and that if the story of OSWALD being at the Carousel Club was true, it would be a great development.

HOY stated he kept close to the telephone throughout November 24, 1963, and made a great many calls from his home and received many calls at his home during the afternoon and evening of November, 24, 1963. He said he could not recall exactly who called him and who he called, but does know that he reached BILLY DEMAR about 1:00 p.m. and asked him if he really meant what he said about having seen OSWALD. His best recollection is that DEMAR replied, "DAVE, I think I saw him, I do not forget faces."

HOY stated he told DEMAR that he should go into hiding because he was in a dangerous position if, in fact, there was a compact between OSWALD and RUBY and other members of the underworld. He told DEMAR that he should immediately contact the Dallas Police Department and the Federal Bureau of Investigation or the Secret Service and give them full details and request their protection. He stated subsequently during the afternoon of November 24, 1963, he had other conversations with DEMAR. On more than one occasion he tried to reach DEMAR on the telephone, but was unsuccessful. He stated that sometimes he believes that this OSWALD's alleged appearance at the Carousel Club was the figment of DEMAR's imagination, and subsequently as a result has questioned DEMAR very closely regarding it. DEMAR, however, still believes he saw OSWALD. He stated that he understands that on June 9, DEMAR appeared before the Warren Committee and his version of the incident is that OSWALD held up or mentioned a strange object. HOY states he seriously questioned what DEMAR actually saw.

HOY stated that the Secret Service contacted him on the telephone on November 25, 1963, and he recalls telling them that DEMAR was in hiding in Dallas and that he did not know his actual whereabouts, but if DEMAR contacted him, he would advise the Secret Service where to reach him.

He believes that on the following day when he did hear from DEMAR, he called the local office of the Secret Service and furnished them with DEMAR's address. HOY stated that he himself is extremely interested in Extra Sensory Perception, but does not profess to have any ability at it and tells everyone, "I am a fake". He said apparently people do not believe him, and his act that he is performing now has met with good success. He stated that he has been in the entertainment field since January and intends to give show business a try.

HOY stated he has a background in magic, and has some ability as a Magician. He stated that he recalls that on Saturday, November 23, 1963, his boss insisted that he make a telephone call into Dallas and attempt to get a "Beaper" which he described as a telephone type of recording regarding anything of news value out of Dallas. He recalls that in this regard he made two telephone calls about 2:30p.m. to 3:00 p.m. in the afternoon of November 23, 1963 to KBOX, Dallas, Texas, and that he was unsuccessful in obtaining a "Beaper."

HOY believes that he called Dallas, Texas, on November 24 at about 11:45a.m. It was after DEMAR had first called him and prior to DEMAR's statement on television regarding OSWALD. He stated the subject matter of OSWALD had not come up at this time. He merely got more background on RUBY and DEMAR's observations of what it was like in Dallas on this sad occasion. He stated he cannot remember how many telephone calls he had with him after this or how long this call was, but doubts he talked at 11:55 a.m. for sixty minutes with BILL DEMAR. He stated that throughout the day he was calling New York City and Indianapolis. He stated that about 1:50 p.m. he was in a telephone conversation with DEMAR and that this he believes was after DEMAR's appearance on television at which time DEMAR mentioned OSWALD.

He believes that after 7:00 p.m., on November 24, 1963, he was talking with DEMAR as he was worried about his safety and during this time he obtained more information about RUBY and Dallas which he subsequently used in his news contacts. He stated that he recalls also that after 8:00 p.m. he talked to a Sergeant at the Dallas Police Station and suggested that possibly BILLY DEMAR needed police protection, but he does not know the Sergeant's name with whom he talked. He believes the officer was not interested in what he had to say. He stated that he was talking with MARTIN ANDERSON of the Associated Press of Indianapolis, Indiana on November 24, 1953, and talked to him on more than one occasion and furnished to him all of the information he was able to obtain from his source at Dallas, Texas, which was BILLY DEMAR.

HOY stated his mind always goes back to the first time that DEMAR talked to him on the telephone and he is unable to understand why DEMAR did not at that time tell him about OSWALD. He stated he questioned DEMAR about it very carefully and DEMAR stated, "I did not think it was very important."

HOY stated that he considers DEMAR a reliable person who would not invent a story merely for publicity. He also recalls a Dallas newspaper calling him November 24, and 25 and asking him questions about BILLY DEMAR, his real name, his background and where he was. He stated that he is quite certain that BILLY DEMAR took his advise and got in touch with the Secret Service who suggested to him he change his hotel location, but that DEMAR did not immediately abide by their suggestion.

DALE BURGESS, Associated Press, Indianapolis, Indiana, advised that he recalled receiving a telephone call from DAVID HOY, Radio Station WIKY, Evansville, Indiana, on November 24, 1963. He recalled that he was working from noon until 8:00 p.m. that Sunday and that the call came to his attention shortly after 12:00 noon on this date. He stated the call was probably collect, as 99 per cent of the calls received by Associated Press are collect. BURGESS recalled that HOY indicated that he had some information from an individual by the name of DEMAR who had called him concerning OSWALD's arrest. He believed the gist of the matter was that DEMAR believed that OSWALD participated in a memory act which had been conducted by DEMAR at the Carousel. BURGESS recalls that HOY indicated that the Carousel Club at Dallas, Texas was owned by JACK RUBY.

BURGESS stated that he released the information on the Associated Press Wire and that he believes it was subsequently used in an Associated Press story which was released from Dallas shortly thereafter.
