1. Mr. GENE ACKERMAN, Manager, Records Department, Gibson's Products, 515 Gibson Street, Seagoville, Texas, telephone number AT 7-2570, was contacted to determine the identity of the delivery boy for his company who reportedly had seen JACK RUBY crying on Friday afternoon, November 22, 1963.

Mr. ACKERMAN advised that inquiries concerning this matter had previously been made by some unrecalled investigator and it had been determined that the delivery boy involved was either CLOR MERLE or GERALD COLLINS. Both of these persons have since terminated their employment with the company. Mr. ACKERMAN advised that conversations with company employees had indicated that it must have been GERALD COLLINS that had observed JACK RUBY on that date. He further advised COLLINS had moved from Dallas, Texas to Indianola, Oklahoma, a very small town.

Mr. ACKERMAN advised that at the time of this incident Mr. O. I. LONGFELLOW had been manager of Gibson's Record Store located at 2620 Main Street, Dallas, but that this store has since been closed, and Mr. LONGFELLOW is presently the manager of the Gibson store in Texarkana, Texas.

GENE ACKERMAN further advised that his company has no sales receipt or other confirming document of the delivery made by the delivery boy to JACK RUBY on November 22, 1963. He advised that RUBY always paid cash for his purchase of records, and the delivery boy collected the cash upon delivery and the sale was handled as a cash sale with no record of the transaction being made.

CLOR WILLIAMS MERLE, 4411 Cedar Springs, Apartment 223, Dallas, Texas, advised that from mid-July 1963, until about December 1, 1963, he was employed by Rack Suppliers, Inc., a part of Gibson's Products. He worked under Manager O. I. LONGFELLOW at the store, which was then located at 2620 Main, Dallas. He advised that in November 1963, he, GERALD COLLINS and CARLOS DOWLEARN were the only employees who might have made deliveries of records to customers, and, he said, he believes he made most, if not all, deliveries during this time because he was the only one who had an automobile available.

Mr. MERLE advised he does not believe that any deliveries were made to JACK RUBY or to the Carousel Club on November 22, 1963, and he is quite sure that he did not make such a delivery. He advised he did make a delivery of records to the Carousel Club on November 20, 1963. He delivered the records to a Negro man whose name he does not know, and, he said, he recalls that JACK RUBY was present. He also recalls that RUBY gave him two free passes to the Carousel Club to be given to Mr. LONGFELLOW and to Mr. GENE ACKERMAN, one of the owners of the record department of Gibson's Products (Rack Suppliers).

Mr. MERLE advised he thinks this is the only time a delivery of records was made to either RUBY or the Carousel Club, but he recalls that about a month earlier, JACK RUBY had been in the store inquiring about the price of various records. He advised no record would have been made of the delivery mentioned above because it was handled as a cash transaction.

CLOR MERLE advised he does not know ANDREW ARMSTRONG, LARRY CRAFARD, GEORGE SENATOR or EVA GRANT, and that the only times he ever saw JACK RUBY are the ones mentioned above.

Dr. HYMAN I. RUBENSTEIN, residence 2809 West Fitch, Chicago, Illinois, was interviewed at Mt. Siani Hospital, 2715 West 15th Place, Chicago, Illinois. Dr. RUBENSTEIN advised that his office is located at 2335 West Devon Avenue, Chicago, Illinois.

Dr. RUBENSTEIN stated that his father, ABRAHAM RUBENSTEIN, was a brother of JOSEPH RUBENSTEIN, father of JACK RUBY. His father and uncle, JOSEPH RUBENSTEIN, were born in Poland and immigrated to the United States in the early 1900's, JOSEPH coming to the United States first and his father, ABRAHAM, second in about 1906. The reason why his father came to Chicago was that his father's brother, JOSEPH, had established himself in Chicago already.

Dr. RUBENSTEIN stated he recalled his father had four or five brothers but no sisters. He could not recall the names of any of his father's brothers except JOSEPH. One other brother, name unrecalled, immigrated to the United States from Poland and resided in the Chicago area for a short period of time. This brother, sometime during the 1920's, immigrated to Israel. He has never heard from this brother since and could provide no information concerning him. With regard to any relatives being in Europe or any country abroad, Dr. RUBENSTEIN stated he has no knowledge concerning them. He stated that his father and uncles had had a common father, SHMUEL ZAVIL RUBENSTEIN, who died at about the time his father, ABRAHAM, came to America.

Dr. RUBENSTEIN stated that his father, ABRAHAM, came to the United States in about 1906, but that he, Dr. RUBENSTEIN, his mother and two sisters came to the United States during the late winter of 1912, from Poland.

At the time they arrived in the United States, both his father, ABRAHAM, and JOSEPH RUBENSTEIN were working as carpenters in the Chicago area, and that both families resided in the area of Maxwell and Halsted Streets, Chicago, Illinois. He stated that the family association was close up until about 1920. At this time, the ABRAHAM RUBENSTEIN family left the Maxwell-Halsted area because of his father's financial success, and their connections with JOSEPH RUBENSTEIN's family became less frequent. Dr. RUBENSTEIN stated that he knows of no relative of himself or of JACK RUBY who had ever been a member of the Communist Party or of a subversive organization. He stated most definitely that he himself had never been a member of any such organization.

Dr. RUBENSTEIN stated he knew nothing concerning the background of FANNIE RUBENSTEIN or her relatives.

SIDNEY MILLER, 5816 North Spaulding, Chicago, Illinois, advised that he is the son of Mrs. BERTHA MILLER, who resides in Apartment 2, 2349 West Devon Avenue, Chicago, Illinois. MILLER stated that his mother is 82 years of age and is suffering from a mental condition due to senility. He stated that her mental capabilities are such that she is unable to carry on an intelligent conversation, nor can any credence be placed upon any of her recollections as to events which transpired within the family in the past. Because of his mother's mental condition, MILLER stated he felt an interview with her would serve no useful purpose concerning this matter.

MILLER advised that he is aware that there is a family connection between himself, his mother and the family of JACK RUBY. He stated that he is not certain, but he believes that the family connection is due to the fact that his mother, BERTHA MILLER, and one of JACK RUBY's parents had common grandparents. He stated that he himself knows nothing concerning any brothers or sisters of FANNIE or JOSEPH RUBENSTEIN, the parents of JACK RUBY.

MILLER stated that because he knows nothing about the brothers or sisters of FANNIE or JOSEPH RUBENSTEIN, he has no information as to their activities. With regard to his mother or any member of his family, MILLER stated that none of them, to his knowledge, has ever been a member of the Communist Party or of any subversive organization.

 ALFRED DAVIDSON, JR. was located at Los Angeles, California, on July 24, 1964, at which time he was telephonically interviewed after he had requested that the interview be conducted telephonically due to a recent heart attack which he had suffered and from which he is presently recovering. He said he is presently residing at 569 North Rossmore, Los Angeles, but expects to move from that address in the immediate future. He said he can always be contacted through his agent, DON FULLER, telephone HO 6-4817, or through his answering service, HO 6-7347. DAVIDSON advised as follows:

He is unable to furnish any additional or more accurate information than he has previously furnished to the FBI. He recalls that he received a telephone call from JACK RUBY on approximately November 20 or 21, 1963, but he does not know where the call originated. He was under the impression that RUBY was calling from his club in Dallas, Texas, since they discussed the club's operation and RUBY told him he was presently using a new "twist board" on which his girls performed on the stage. DAVIDSON said he is not thoroughly familiar with the twist board, but that he got the impression it was a revolving board on which the strip-teasers did the twist at JACK RUBY's night club. He said the call from RUBY was just a friendly call to say hello and see how he, DAVIDSON, was getting along. He said RUBY seemed nappy about his business and did not seem at all upset.

DAVIDSON said he is unable to recall the name of the Credit Manager at Nieman-Marcus, who was RUBY's friend, but that he was in charge of the Credit Department at Nieman Marcus.

DAVIDSON said he never had any political discussions with RUBY and does not recall RUBY having any political literature or any scripts for the "Life-Line" radio program in his possession. He said to the best of his knowledge, RUBY never commented about this program.

DAVIDSON recalled that RUBY was an admirer of President KENNEDY and on one occasion had asked DAVIDSON if he ever met Mrs. KENNEDY since DAVIDSON had been associated with OLEG CASSINI, of New York City.

He last saw JACK RUBY Saturday, November 23, 1963, at about 9:05 PM. He stated the band began playing that evening at approximately 9:00 PM and he saw JACK RUBY just a few minutes after the band began playing. He said he was sure it was Saturday, November 23, 1963, because it was the Saturday between the Presidential assassination and the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD by RUBY.

BRANCH said this was not a prearranged appointment. RUBY just happened to come by the Empire Room to discuss hiring a new piano player on behalf of his sister, EVA GRANT. RUBY told BRANCH his sister was not satisfied with her pianist. She didn't like this pianist because he did not play what she wanted. BRANCH told RUBY he would get a piano player, but he did not advise RUBY whom he would hire. BRANCH said RUBY and he discussed the hiring of a piano player for approximately thirty minutes and then RUBY left for the Carousel Club.

BRANCH said it is possible he saw HARRY LEE JACKSON that evening, but he could not be certain that he actually saw him.

BRANCH said that when he saw RUBY on November 23, 1963, RUBY had on dark blue or black pants, white shirt, string, western-type tie, grey sport coat, and a black Fedora hat. RUBY did not wear this hat at the bar.

When RUBY left BRANCH accompanied him to the door. The Hall Diner is next door to the Empire Club and he last saw RUBY walk from the diner towards Ross Avenue, where he had parked his car.

Since RUBY shot OSWALD on the following day, it would have been futile for BRANCH to hire a piano player on RUBY's behalf. BRANCH never contacted a piano player to honor RUBY's request of November 23, 1963. BRANCH stated he never contacted Mrs. GRANT concerning the hiring of this piano player. BRANCH stated that he had, on several previous occasions, discussed the hiring of Negro musicians with Mrs. GRANT, but he did not discuss the hiring of a piano player with her.

BRANCH was unable to recall anyone who might have seen RUBY talking to him at the Empire Club on November 23, 1963. He stated that Patrolman WILLIAM STARKS, Dallas Police Department, may have been present that evening and might be able to verify RUBY's presence at the club on November 23, 1963.

Date 7/27/641

Mr. HARRY LEE JACKSON, 2536 Romine Street, Dallas, Texas, telephone number HA 1-4594, was interviewed at his residence and advised as follows:

The last time he saw JACK RUBY was Sunday, November 17, 1963, the Sunday before RUBY killed OSWALD. JACKSON walked into the Empire Room, 1710 Hall Street, between 8:30 PM and 9:00 PM. He was unable to recall the specific time.

When JACKSON entered the Empire Room, he immediately saw RUBY standing at the bar. RUBY was engaged in a conversation with JOHN HENRY BRANCH. JACKSON was not aware of the conversation between BRANCH and RUBY. RUBY offered JACKSON a beer, which he declined. RUBY then invited JACKSON to drop in at the Carousel Club whenever JACKSON was in the neighborhood and have a drink. JACKSON stated this was the extent of the conversation between himself and RUBY at that time. Following this, JACKSON walked off to mingle with the patrons in the Empire Room.

JACKSON stated that when he arrived at the Empire Room the band was already playing. On Sundays the band begins playing at about 8:30 PM and JACKSON's habit was to arrive at a dance early in the evening. He stated this was why he estimated that the time was between 8:30 PM and 9:00 PM.

JACKSON recalled that when he saw RUBY on November 17, 1963, RUBY was wearing dark colored slacks, a light colored sport shirt, and a dark colored suit jacket. JACKSON was unable to remember the exact color of RUBY's clothing. He thought the suit jacket matched the pants, but he was not certain. When JACKSON saw RUBY, he was not wearing a hat.

Mrs. EVA GRANT, JACK RUBY's sister, 3929 Rawlins, Dallas, Texas, advised as follows:

JOE JOHNSON, band leader and saxophone player, left her employ on or about November 2, 1963. LEONARD WOODS, who was JOHNSON's pianist, elected to remain as pianist at the Vegas Club. However, a few days later, Mrs. GRANT determined that WOODS was unable to read music and deemed his services as unsatisfactory.

On Thursday or Friday of the week prior to the assassination, she telephonically contacted JOHN HENRY BRANCH, Booking Agent, concerning the hiring of a piano player to replace LEONARD WOODS. She was certain that any discussion she had with her brother, JACK RUBY, concerning the hiring of a piano player transpired prior to the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY.

She does not know her brother spoke to BRANCH at all concerning the piano player, although this is possible. She stated that, if he did speak to BRANCH, it is probable it was at the same time she spoke to BRANCH.

She stated she spoke to her brother, JACK, about midnight, November 23, 1963, and he did not mention he had contacted BRANCH about the piano player. She stated it was probable that if he did speak to BRANCH it occurred on a Sunday, since many Negro musicians gather at the Empire Room on Sunday evenings.

He is acquainted with and has known JOHN HENRY BRANCH, Manager of the Empire Room, for approximately sixteen years.

He never met RUBY or had any contact whatsoever with him. The only time he heard of RUBY was after LEE HARVEY OSWALD was shot. Following this, he remembered seeing RUBY somewhere before, but could not recall the location.

STARKS worked from 3:30 PM to 11:30 PM, Saturday, November 23, 1963, and, therefore, was not at the Empire Room that night, November 23, 1963.

STARKS is certain he was at the Empire Room on Sunday, November 17, 1963, but does not specifically remember seeing BRANCH at the club that evening. STARKS stated he cannot recall ever seeing RUBY at the Empire Room and has never seen RUBY engaged in conversation with JOHN HENRY BRANCH.

DEROSTUS MC COLLOUGH MILES was interviewed at his residence, 984 South Normandie Avenue, Apartment Number 101, where he manages the apartment house and he furnished the following information:

He met JACK RUBY at the Carousel Club in Dallas, Texas, a week before the fair opened on October 5, 1963, which would make the meeting date with RUBY about September 28, 1963. He subsequently met with RUBY three or four times prior to October 6, 1963, when his show, "How Hollywood Makes Movies" opened at the fair. These visits occurred at the Carousel Club, were usually between 12:00 PM midnight and 2:00 AM in the morning, and would vary in duration from one to two hours. He usually had someone with him when he visited RUBY, and it was always someone affiliated with his show. His show personnel included BOB CRAVEN, HARRY LOVEJOY, SAM DOUGHERTY, JOE RANDULLA, and MARVIN GARDNER, and one or two of these persons would accompany him when he visited RUBY at the Carousel Club.

The topic of conversation during the above mentioned meetings included show business, dogs, RUBY's bar, and his twist board. Politics were never discussed at these meetings, to the best of his recollection. He took a personal liking to RUBY and enjoyed talking to him.

He has no recollection of seeing RUBY at any time, either in Dallas or at the fair grounds prior to the opening of the show on October 6, 1963, other than the above mentioned contacts. Subsequent to the opening of the show, RUBY visited his show site three to five times. RUBY was alone upon the occasion of these visits which occurred in the morning or the afternoon, and lasted from one to two hours. During the period October 6 through October 19, he and some of his show people visited RUBY at the Carousel Club approximately seven to ten times, usually in the late evening hours. On one occasion, the entire personnel of his show visited the Carousel Club.

Sometime between October 1, 1963, and October 6, 1963, he visited RUBY at the Carousel Club and borrowed several items used as props for his show. One item was a three foot square mirror taken from RUBY's office and a large cooler unit about three feet square and eighteen inches in depth. Both items were obtained from RUBY at the same time and were brought to his show site by RUBY who was assisted by one of his Negro workers.

He does not recall RUBY obtaining any political radio script called "Life Line" or that RUBY ever commented on any Right Wing literature. Politics were never a topic of conversation at any of the meetings with RUBY, as best he can recall.

An itinerant worker, LARRY CRAFARD, had been working at a show located next to his show at the fair grounds but was fired from his job. He felt sorry for CRAFARD and hired him since CRAFARD appeared to need money for living expenses. One night CRAFARD and another individual also employed at the fair grounds engaged in a fight and CRAFARD had several teeth knocked out. He does not know what prompted the fight and was not present at the time the fight took place. CRAFARD appeared to be an illiterate individual and an ordinary itinerant worker. He lost contact with CRAFARD when the show closed on October 19, 1963.

During his contacts with RUBY he became aware of the fact that RUBY carried a gun in a shoulder holster. RUBY also carried large amounts of money on his person, believed to be about $1000 or more. He is of the opinion that RUBY tried to impress people with the idea that he was a successful business man and night club operator.

Mr. ROBERT CRAVEN, 5805 Bucknell Street, North Hollywood, California, who operates a business known both as Mr. "C" Fashions and as Superior Contracting Company, located at 407 East Pico Street, Los Angeles, California, telephone RI 9-9500, residence phone 877-7443, was interviewed, at which time he advised as follows:

He met JACK RUBY approximately one year prior to the time his show, "How Hollywood Makes Movies," opened in Dallas, Texas, on October 5, 1963. He does not recall, however, having any contact telephonically or otherwise with RUBY on September 26, 27, 28, or 29, 1963. He saw RUBY in Dallas, Texas, two or three days prior to the opening of the show on October 5, 1963. The place of their meeting was the Dallas fairgrounds and RUBY continued to visit the Dallas fairgrounds practically every day during the fair and usually visited CRAVEN's show. He cannot remember the exact days or times of RUBY's visits but remembers that on the days he was at the fair it was usually during the afternoon.

CRAVEN visited RUBY's night club in Dallas on several occasions while there but cannot remember the exact dates. He does not recall RUBY ever having any radio scripts called "Life-Line" or any political literature in his possession. He said RUBY did not comment on any right-wing literature being distributed at the Dallas fair by H. L. Hunt or other conservative groups.

CRAVEN recalled that they hired "LARRY" CRAFARD when he came to their show requesting a job. He said RUBY did not know CRAFARD prior to the time he was hired by CRAVEN, but that he met CRAFARD during the fair. He said he had no reason to question CRAFARD's activities in any way while he was employed by them.

CRAVEN stated that RUBY did not invest any money in their show, "How Hollywood Makes Movies."

Mrs. LAURA A. BYRUM, 6039 Singing Hills Drive, employed as the manager of the Pago Club, 2822 McKinney Avenue, Dallas, Texas, advised she is a casual acquaintance of JACK RUBY.

Mrs. BYRUM stated that on Saturday night, November 23, 1963, JACK RUBY entered the Pago Club alone. Mrs. BYRUM stated RUBY was seated at a table near the front of the club by waitress VIRGINIA THOMPSON/HUMPHRIES, who is now employed as a waitress at the Capri Lounge, 3913 Cedar Springs, Dallas, Texas. Mrs. BYRUM advised RUBY sat alone at the table and spoke to no one. RUBY ordered a plain Coke and sipped on this Coke for about thirty minutes. At this time, BOB/NORTON, owner of the Pago Club, approached RUBY, and Mrs. BYRUM stated RUBY and NORTON exchanged greetings.

Mrs. BYRUM stated that during the time RUBY was seated alone at the table, she (Mrs. BYRUM) passed by RUBY's table and said, "Hi, JACK." RUBY exchanged the greeting and commented that the Pago Club had a "nice crowd."

Mrs. BYRUM stated that RUBY has never mentioned the name LEE HARVEY OSWALD and she knows of no association between OSWALD and RUBY.

Mrs. VIRGINIA THOMPSON HUMPHRIES, 3600 Gillespie, Apartment No. 5, presently employed as a waitress at the Capri Lounge, 3913 Cedar Springs, Dallas, Texas, advised she is a casual acquaintance of JACK RUBY.

Mrs. HUMPHRIES stated she was formerly employed as a waitress at the Pago Club, 2822 McKinney Avenue, Dallas, Texas.

Mrs. HUMPHRIES recalled that on Saturday night, November 23, 1963, at approximately midnight, JACK RUBY entered the Pago Club alone. She seated RUBY at a table near the middle of the club. RUBY ordered a plain Coke. Upon being served the Coke, RUBY asked, "Why are you open?" According to Mrs. HUMPHRIES, RUBY asked this question as though it were a sacrilege to be open. Mrs. HUMPHRIES stated she said, "Ask my employer," in answer to RUBY's question and she then walked away from RUBY's table, having no further conversation with him.

Mrs. HUMPHRIES related that a few minutes had passed by when she observed BCB NORTON, owner of the Pago Club, sit down and join RUBY at RUBY's table. NORTON called Mrs. HUMPHRIES over to the table and he also ordered a plain Coke. Mrs. HUMPHRIES served NORTON the Coke. She had no further conversation with either of the men and has no knowledge as to the nature of the conversation between them.

Mrs. HUMPHRIES further advised at approximately 1:00 AM, on November 24, 1963, she was getting her "tabs" ready for her customers to pay, as 1:00 AM was the club's closing time. She observed RUBY was not at his table and had apparently left without paying his tab. Mrs. HUMPHRIES did not see RUBY leave the club and does not know how long he remained in the club after she served NORTON at RUBY's table. She looked around the club for RUBY, but could not find him. NORTON was still in the club, but RUBY was not. Mrs. HUMPHRIES stated she then gave RUBY's tab to the Club Manager, Mrs. LAURA BYRUM, stating she was not going to pay for another club owner's tab. ROBERT L. NORTON, 3414 Manana Street, Dallas, Texas, owner of the Pago Pago Club (formerly known as the Pago Club), 2822 McKinney Avenue, Dallas, was interviewed at his place of residence.

NORTON stated that on Saturday night, November 23, 1963, he had given $50.00 in cash to JACK L. RUBY at the Pago Club prior to RUBY leaving the club that night.

Concerning this $50.00, NORTON gave the following explanation regarding his giving RUBY this money:

NORTON stated that some months earlier in 1963, approximately fifteen owners of different commercial night clubs in the Dallas area had formed a group known as the "Dallas Association of Clubs and Lounges" with the purpose of accumulating a small treasury to enable the owners to have a fund to conduct credit checks, locate bad check passers, and, in general to perform different acts to improve the operations of the clubs and lounges and create a better impression of the club owners in the minds of the local citizens.

NORTON stated that he was elected the first President of this group, which did not have any office space as such.

While the organization had good intentions at first, the few members lost interest and the group decided to fold. However, during the short time the association was in existence, it had accumulated around $400.00 in its treasury.

NORTON stated that JACK RUBY was not an official member of the Association, but at one time he had been given some tickets to sell for a special party given by the Association. The money from the sale of all tickets by the group was to go to the Association's treasury. As NORTON recalls, RUBY was not at the party and did not turn in his money for the tickets or return any tickets.

At that time, the new President and Vice President of the group went to RUBY to get the money for these tickets and RUBY apparently became displeased with their approach and told them he would not give them any money for the tickets. The President then went to see NORTON to tell him about RUBY's refusal to give them any money, but prior to his arrival, RUBY called NORTON and explained to him about the visit of the new Association President; that he had been rude to him as he, RUBY, was tied up with other business matters at the time of the President's visit, and that he (RUBY) was sorry and would give NORTON the money in a few days.

NORTON stated that about two weeks later, RUBY gave him $50.00 for the party tickets. NORTON told RUBY that the group had decided to dissolve, and that he would probably get his $50.00 back.

The Association subsequently held a meeting of the membership, which was advertised in the paper, at which meeting it was decided to disband the organization and split up the some $400.00 which was still in the treasury. NORTON did not attend the meeting, but he learned that the group had voted not to give RUBY a share of the money to be divided as the members did not consider RUBY to be officially a member of the Association.

NORTON stated that he received $48.00 as his part of the division of the treasury. He felt personally that RUBY should also have been given a share of the group's division of money as RUBY had just recently given the organization the $50.00 for tickets to the last party; but inasmuch as the organization had voted who were and were not eligible for the treasury split, RUBY was not entitled to any funds from the group.

NORTON stated that since he had told RUBY that he would probably get his $50.00 back, he felt morally responsible to see that RUBY did receive his $50.00 back from the organization.

NORTON stated that it was this $50.00 that he gave RUBY on Saturday night, November 23, 1963, at the Pago Club. He stated that the sum was actually $50.00 and not $25.00 or any other sum. NORTON does not recall just what type of bills he used in paying RUBY, but he believes it was in fives, tens and possibly twenties.

NORTON stated that he does not believe that RUBY had come to the Pago Club the night of November 23, 1963, to obtain this money from him, but NORTON felt that inasmuch as RUBY was in the club, it was a good time to pay him what he, NORTON, felt was justly owed to RUBY by the Association.

ROY WILLIAM PIKE, also known as Mickey Ryan, Mike Pike, was located at Stockton Quincy Ford, Inc., 1522 Westwood Boulevard, Los Angeles, California, telephone BR 04108, where he is employed as a car salesman under the name of MIKE PIKE. PIKE stated he presently lives at 1138 Euclid Avenue, Apartment 2, Santa Monica, California, and his residence phone is 395-5116. PIKE advised as follows:

He first met JACK RUBY approximately one year prior to November 22, 1963, when he was standing outside RUBY's night club in Dallas, Texas, looking at the poster photographs of the strip-teasers who were then appearing at RUBY's club. He was approached by RUBY, who asked him if he would like to see the show as his guest. He accepted RUBY's invitation and was later that day offered a job as RUBY's bookkeeper. He worked for RUBY for approximately two months until he left Dallas to take a job in Fort Worth, Texas, as a car salesman. During the two months he was employed by RUBY he attended a few parties with RUBY.

He is of the opinion that RUBY was conducting a strictly legitimate business, had no association with the underworld or the Communist Party. He said RUBY liked to give people the impression he was a "tough customer" and liked to surround himself with well-dressed, clean-cut men because it made him feel important.

After leaving Dallas to work in Fort Worth, he occasionally visited RUBY's club in Dallas, where he had dates with some of the girls working for RUBY. The girls he dated most were his present wife and another stripper, whose name he cannot recall but who is presently living with CULLEN BRIGGS, a retired District Judge in Corpus Christi, Texas.

He was watching television with RAMONA WAGNER, also known as Tuesday Ryan (his wife from whom he is presently seeking a divorce), on November 22, 1963, when he heard a news flash that President KENNEDY had been shot. He does not recall exactly what his activities were on November 23, 1963, but does remember that he was watching television with his wife on November 24, 1963, when LEE HARVEY OSWALD was shot. He definitely did not see RUBY on November 22, 23, or 24, 1963. He was working as a bartender at the North Park Inn, Dallas, Texas, during this period of time and was always home during the day. He does not recall meeting RUBY at the Carousel Club on November 21, 1963. He believes he last saw RUBY approximately two weeks prior to November 22, 1963. He said he also believes that he last saw GEORGE SENATOR, RALPH PAUL, HARRY OLSEN, "KATHY KAY" COLEMAN, KAREN BENNETT CARLIN, also known as "Little LYNN", BRUCE CARLIN, TAMMIE TRUE, BRECK WALL, and JOE PATTERSON approximately two weeks prior to November 22, 1963. He is positive he did not see these individuals on November 22, 23, or 24, 1963.

His decision to leave Dallas, Texas, on approximately November 30, 1963, was prompted by a fight which he had had with his wife and not by any actions of RUBY or by any connections which he, PIKE, had had with RUBY.

He never made any long-distance telephone calls from the Carousel Club and he is positive that RUBY never made any long-distance calls from his, PIKE's, phone.

He considered RUBY to be emotionally unstable because he displayed a violent temper on occasions and because of the fact that he liked to surround himself with clean-cut, well-dressed, "Hollywood-type" men to make himself feel important. He never knew LEE HARVEY OSWALD and believes that RUBY was not acquainted with OSWALD.

Mr. WALKER stated he became acquainted with BOB KAPLAN through a client of his, Dr. DANIEL GEVINSON, from Dallas. In addition, Mr. WALKER stated he did not know anything about RALPH PAUL of Arlington, Texas, nor did he know KAREN BENNETT CARLIN, also known as "Little Lynn." Mr. WALKER stated he had no dealings with any of these people.
