ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT
JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY,
NOVEMBER 22, 1963, DALLAS,
TEXAS
MISCELLANEOUS -
INFORMATION CONCERNING

On June 13, 1964, Reverend Elton L. Stephenson, Chaplain, Methodist Hospital, Houston, Texas, residence 9223 Fordshire, furnished the following information:

On June 2, 1964, The Reverend Mr. Stephenson obtained fifty one-dollar bills from the University State Bank in Houston, Texas. On June 13, 1964, he noticed that one of these bills had the following statement hand printed in ink around the border of the reverse side: "Help! Kennedy will be shot Nov 22, 1963 Warn him please!"

Two other bills have mustaches drawn on Washington's picture as does the bill with the above statement on it. One of the bills has a swastika drawn on Washington's forehead. The Reverend Mr.
Stephenson stated he knew nothing further regarding the source of these bills or the identity of the writer who placed the statement on the bill. He turned the bills over to the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

On June 23, 1964, Mr. H. M. Dudley, Jr., Vice President, University State Bank, Houston, Texas, advised that it would be utterly impossible to trace these one-dollar bills back to determine where they came from. He stated that if he still had the original band that bound the fifty one-dollar bills, he could determine what banking establishment in Houston furnished these bills to his bank. He stated, however, that this binder is no longer available.

Mr. Dudley canvassed the employees of the bank who customarily count and handle the money and no one was located who had any recollection of having seen this money.

Mr. Dudley further stated that had his employees seen the markings on the bills they would have withdrawn them from circulation which is customary with his bank.

Set out below are the results of the Federal Bureau of Investigation Laboratory examination of these bills:

D-230 Three one-dollar bills furnished to the Houston Office by Reverend Elton L. Stephenson, Chaplain, Methodist Hospital, Houston, Texas.

One of the bills bears hand printing on the reverse side in the wording "Help! Kennedy will be shot Nov. 22, 1963, warn him please." All three bills have mustaches drawn on Washington's picture. One of the bills has a swastika drawn on Washington's forehead.

The hand printing on D-230 was compared with the material in the Anonymous Letter File but no identification was effected.

On 5-25-64, Mr. Wesley James Liebeler of the President's Commission called and in the absence of Mr. Malley, who is in Dallas, Texas, the call was taken by Supervisor H. A. Schutz, Jr. Mr. Liebeler indicated that he was interested in two areas of investigation and made reference to the report of SA Belanger at Tampa dated 12-10-63, page four, wherein a tape recording of a T.V. interview with an individual by the name of Penaz had been reviewed and reported. According to information in the report a cartoon had appeared in the newspaper "Revolucion" depicting damage done in Cuba by hurricane Flora. A caricature of the United States was depicted laughing at the damage. Another cartoon showed a coffin containing President Kennedy with Castro standing above laughing. Mr. Liebeler requested that investigation be conducted to actually determine whether such a cartoon did appear in this paper and if so forward a copy to the commission.

Mr. Liebeler made reference to the report of SA Gemberling at Dallas dated 4-15-64, on pages 527 and 540. The information contained therein related to two transcripts of a debate participated in by Oswald in August, 1963. One was transcribed by radio station WDSU, New Orleans, and the second by an individual named Bill Stuckey. Mr. Liebeler indicated that the commission desired that we obtain copies of these tapes for inclusion in the permanent files of the commission and for comparison with the transcripts. He requested that in obtaining these tapes the Bureau maintain appropriate chain of evidence as to their authenticity.

Gemberling dated May 15, 1964, at Dallas, Texas, captioned "Assassination of President John Fitzgerald Kennedy, November 22, 1963, Dallas, Texas." NOTE:

Since the assassination we have received numerous complaints relating to individuals other than Lee Harvey Oswald. These complaints generally relate to remarks and threats allegedly made by individuals concerning their feelings about President Kennedy, other officials and the policies of the administration. The complaints are initiated by cranks, mental cases and patriotic citizens. Some of these people pose a possible threat to the President and other high officials and we insure appropriate dissemination is made. This will be the fourth such report disseminated to the President's Commission. A copy will be disseminated to the Department and U. S. Secret Service separately. The enclosed report has been reviewed by Mr. Belmont, Malley and appropriate Bureau supervisory personnel.

NOTE:

Details concerning this matter appear in Rosen to Belmont memo, 5-25-64, captioned "Assassination of President John Fitzgerald Kennedy, 11-22-63, Dallas, Texas, Miscellaneous - Information Concerning," RDR:las. Briefly, an anonymous letter was received at the Bureau on 5-18-64, alleging that the writer overheard a conversation in the Spanish language indicating knowledge of the assassination and implying a threat against the Chief Justice. The writer stated the person making these statements drove a car bearing Arizona license EZY 958, which was determined to belong to one Arthur G. Imhoff. Imhoff was interviewed on 6-17-64 and denied having any knowledge of the assassination or acquaintance with any of the central figures. He indicated an interest in extrasensory perception "seers" and "mystics." He acknowledged that he might have talked about predictions of the President's death made by others, but denies making any statements which could be construed as a threat. The Chief Justice and the President's Commission were immediately advised of the receipt of the anonymous letter and were advised we were investigating. In view of outcome of interview, no further action appears warranted and this should conclude our responsibilities in this particular matter.

Height	5'5 1/2"
Weight	140 pounds
Hair	Brown
Eyes	Brown

Lieutenant JACK BAKER, Records Department, San Diego Police Department, on June 5, 1964, made available that agency's file regarding one ARTHUR G. IMHOFF, which contained the following pertinent information:

Age	Approximately 57 (1964)
(Physical description same as set forth in records of San Diego County Sheriff's Office)

The above listed records contained no additional pertinent information regarding ARTHUR G. IMHOFF.

W. H. HOPPIN, Manager of the El Centro Auto Court, El Centro, California, in April, 1940, advised that one ARTHUR IMHOFF had registered at her auto court on

JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY

December 11, 1939, and gave his residence as San Diego, California. She stated he was one of three men who operated a "gospel trailer" and travelled throughout the Imperial County, California, area preaching religious sermons. Mrs. HOPPIN advised she had not observed anything un-American about IMHOFF; however, she recalled IMHOFF said that he would not bow down to any flag as it was in opposition to his religious beliefs.

Mr. and Mrs. JERRY SWEENEY, caretakers, North Park Court, 30th and University Streets, San Diego, California, in April, 1940, advised one ARTHUR IMHOFF in 1939 was a tenant at the North Park Court. Both said they believed ARTHUR IMHOFF had travelled in Germany and appeared to be of German nationality.

Mr. and Mrs. SWEENEY stated they never observed anything that would indicate IMHOFF was engaged in any espionage activities, but that he appeared to them to be a religious fanatic.

Mrs. W. A. SNOW in April, 1940, advised that she and her husband had operated the North Park Grill located at 2950 University Avenue, San Diego, with ARTHUR IMHOFF and his wife for about three months, from December, 1938 to February, 1939. She stated they went broke and gave up the restaurant. Mrs. SWEENEY advised that IMHOFF was a member of a religious organization and after leaving the restaurant business he joined a "gospel wagon" and is now travelling throughout the country preaching the gospel.

Mrs. SNOW said she believed IMHOFF was born in Germany but had been raised in the United States. She said she did not know whether or not he was naturalized. She said she knew IMHOFF's wife, GLADYS IMHOFF, better than she did ARTHUR IMHOFF; that Mrs. IMHOFF is working now at the Casa de Manana Hotel in La Jolla, California, as a waitress.

JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY

Mrs. SNOW said that IMHOFF appeared to be quite intelligent and was a clever man; that he spoke French as well as German. She said that during the time they were closely acquainted with IMHOFF, that IMHOFF had very few visitors and she did not know the names of any of his associates. She said she did not recall anything suspicious about IMHOFF's actions or anything that would indicate to her that he was involved in any illegal activities. She said, however, that he made remarks against the flag and she did not think he was a good American because he would not salute the flag. She said she felt certain that IMHOFF had not been in Germany recently, as he had not mentioned it; that he may have been there several years ago. She said that he rarely had any money and left them to pay the rent on the bungalow they occupied together at the North Park Court.

From the people interviewed, the following description of ARTHUR IMHOFF was obtained:

Name	ARTHUR IMHOFF
Age	38 years
Height	5'8"
Weight	150 pounds
Build	Stocky
Hair	Black
Eyes	Brown
Nationality	Apparently German

Mr. CHARLES PRATTE, President, San Diego Yellow Cab Company, 639 - 13th Street, San Diego, on October 1, 1952, advised that recently he was invited by a friend of his to a dinner at the friend's home. At this dinner party ARTHUR IMHOFF was also present. Mr. PRATTE stated that throughout the course of the evening, IMHOFF kept talking about his background in the scientific field stating he had been employed at an atomic plant in the State of Montana and he also kept talking about "religion, politics, and flying saucers". According to Mr. PRATTE, IMHOFF spoke favorably about Russia and Bolshevism. Mr. PRATTE said IMHOFF claimed he had invented a machine which allegedly crosses magnetic fields and has a speed of 2,000 miles per hour. Mr. PRATTE described IMHOFF as being very friendly, but rather irrational in his conversation.

WHAT HAS FATE IN STORE FOR YOU?

MARY MARGARET FULLER

... A chance to explore the unknown . . . truths you find nowhere else . . . articles and stories to fire your imagination— that's what FATE has in store for you. Here is Editor Mary Fuller's report on stories planned for future issues:

• Reports of weird things falling from the sky keep coming in. Noted UFO investigator Coral Lorenzen describes an unexplained fall of strangely cohesive "foam" in Mexico.

• The fame of Eleuterio Terte, Philippine psychic surgeon, continues to grow. An American who watched him work presents a new report on his "bloodless" operations.

• So-called witches still gather in lonely places today to practice ancient rituals. A British researcher reveals the amazing and little-known nature of their ceremonies.

• One of the strangest mysteries of the sea are the great "wheels of light" seen under certain waters. Ivan T. Sanderson offers an amazing theory to explain them.

Each month FATE publishes more than 10,000 words of true articles on the strange, the unusual, the unknown. You can read each story only in FATE because FATE is the only magazine of its kind in the world!

How Lucas Ray built himself a lake with U.S. Savings Bonds

Like fifteen million other Americans, Mr. Ray loves to fish. Unfortunately, in his part of South Carolina, public lakes are scarce.

Not one to be discouraged, he cashed in a few thousand dollars worth of Savings Bonds and built one. He has it well-stocked with crappie, catfish, bass and other fish. And an attractive 4-room cottage sitting beside it (also built with Savings Bonds).

In case you're wondering, Mr. Ray purchases neither great wealth nor superhuman powers as a reward. He accumulated the money for the lake, fish and cottage by joining the Payroll Savings Plan.

Every week the company sets aside $1 from his paycheck toward the purchase of a U.S. Savings Bond every month. His savings build automatically.

Americans with all kinds of savings goals buy Bonds on the Payroll Savings Plan. And while their dollars build up a nest egg for their future, they help Uncle Sam safeguard our freedom right now.

Must be lots of important things you'd like to have in your future. Why not sign up for the Payroll Savings Plan where you work now? See if it isn't the easiest way in the world to save for them!

Help yourself while you help your country along the sidewalk, on our way home from the town's only theatre. The sun had set just five minutes before and the sky was still very bright.

We happened to glance up to our right and saw a glowing object approaching us at great speed out of the northeastern sky. It was a fluorescent orange in color and had a smooth, metallic appearance. I definitely would say that the object was a vehicle driven or controlled by an unknown and superior power.

As it approached, we noticed a tail of fire at the rear, tapering to a point and trailing off. The fire left no smoke, and continued until the object came even with us, when suddenly it stopped in mid-air about 25 feet overhead.

It appeared to be about 25 feet in diameter. While in flight it made the sound of falling water, but as it hovered above us we heard no sound at all. We stared, transfixed, at the awesome and frightening thing. It remained motionless for about a minute. Then, as we resumed walking along the sidewalk, it followed us, directly overhead, for almost a full block. Again it stopped in mid-air, and then, with stunning speed, it shot straight up at a 90-degree angle, still in a horizontal position. It went out of sight into a clear sky so quickly that we were able to follow it with our eyes for only a split-second, just long enough to see the direction in which it disappeared. Although the highway was jammed with cars, it appears that we were the only persons who saw the object. — Wanda Lockwood, Calif.

REPORT FROM THE READERS

ACID FOR WARTS

I noted the statements of Dr. T. L. Van Dellen on page six of the March, 1963, issue about soaking warts in hot water, which does not always work.

When working as an apprentice boy in a machine shop many years ago, I was troubled by numerous warts on my fingers. We had in the shop a five-gallon stone crock filled with a mixture of hydrochloric and sulphuric acid, used for cleaning brass castings.

One day I took a long wooden match and dipped the end of it about six-sixteenth of an inch into the mixture, and then carefully touched the top (only the top) of a wart with the end of the matchstick. I was careful that the matchstick was only moistened and that there was not a drop of acid hanging on the end.

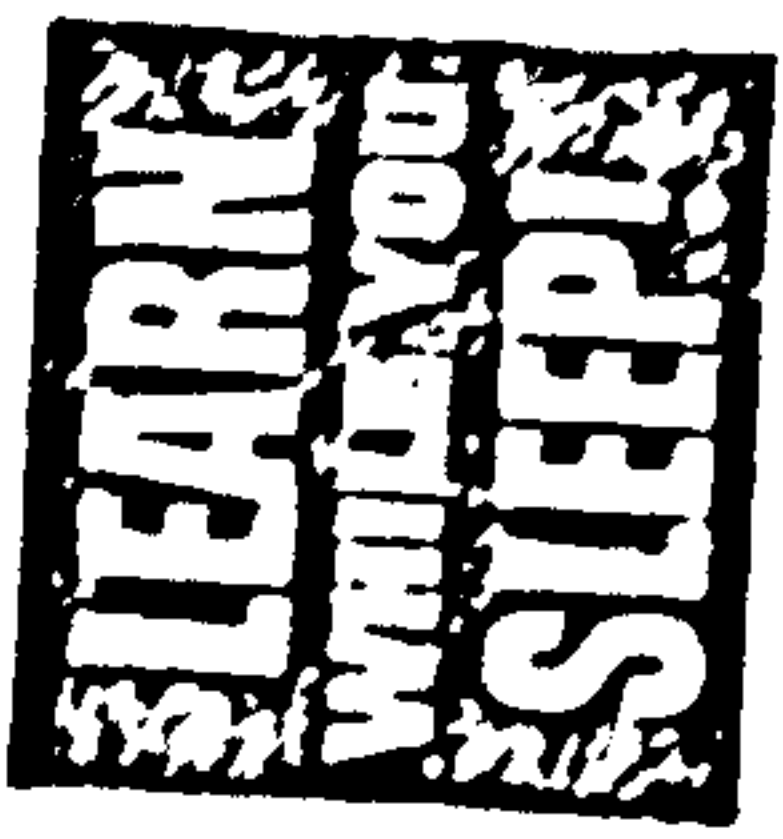

In a few days the wart was gone, and all the rest went the same way. Only one wart should be treated at a time.

I did not bury the matchstick with the head toward the moon—I just threw it down the drain.—Carl Seaman, Swan Lake, N. Y.

FATE

"MOST ASTOUNDING ARTICLE" seen and the Voices of the Dead, in the December issue, is to my mind the most astounding article ever published—"if true as reported."

The problem is that everyone I have asked to read the article seems to feel it is just so much nonsense. If, as reported, voices of the dead actually have been taped, then man surely must be on the verge of a tremendous breakthrough in regard to the survival after death question.

What bothers me is that in this article are claims of a world-shaking order, and the publishers of FATE just report them and let them hang with no conclusions as to whether they are true or false. I wish to have a great deal more information about these claims, and I am sure FATE has the resources to make a searching investigation. Can, in fact, the tapes not be faked, as claimed by sound expert Kjell Stenstrom?

True or false, here is an opportunity for a deep and wide investigation that will create as much interest as did the search for Bigfoot Murphy several years ago.—
R. W. Steinko, Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada.

LOTTE VON STRAHL UNLABELED

In the December issue of FATE you mention, rather disparagingly, on page 21, a well-known local sensitive, Mrs. Lotte von Strahl. She does not call herself the "Baroness von Strahl," and she stresses that the newspapers persist in labeling her with this title, which she says she abhors.

As a result of the publicity given her by newspapers, I interviewed ber and was impressed with her as an unusual human being one would be delighted to know even if she did not have the gift of psychic powers. During the interview she told me that during World War II Allied Intelligence made use of her psychic powers and knowledge of graphology to decode messages.—

S. N. Jensen, Ironland Hills, Calif.

CONSTANT READER

I have been a constant reader of FATE since 1934. In the January, 1964, issue I particularly enjoyed Another Look At Werewolves, And, My Meadows and the Ghost, and The Priest and the Flying Saucer—one of the best UFO articles I ever have read.

Mind-healing is my great interest and I wish to learn more about it. I also am interested in UFOs, having had the thrill of seeing one a few years ago. Other interests are metaphysics and old coin collecting. I welcome letters from the readers of FATE and request that you publish my address so that I may hear from them.—
Clementine V. Wiseman, 384-25 Avenue, San Francisco, Calif. 94121.

On a Sunday afternoon in early September, 1955, my sister and I observed a flying saucer at close range. der the heading "Here We Go Again," dealing with an alleged phenomenon which occurred on the previous July 25. The identical item, minus the last paragraph, appeared on page 22 of the February, 1963, issue. Obviously, the incident could not have occurred both on July 25, 1961, and July 25, 1962.

(2) On the same page of the February, 1963 issue, a UFO sighting, which allegedly occurred "last October 2" is described. Yet, as any UFO buff knows, this sighting occurred on October 2, 1961—not 1962.

(3) In the September, 1963, issue, page 9 ff., there is a report of an incident which allegedly occurred on March 18, 1963. Yet, except for the date and the name of the girl involved, this happening is identical to that described by Frank Edwards in Strangest of All (Ace, 1962) page 83 ff. Even the names and locations of the schools are identical.

I always have admired the high standard of accuracy in "I See By the Papers," but I believe I am entitled to an explanation of the above points.—David Halperin, Levittown, Pa.

We appreciate having inaccuracies called to our attention and are glad to explain how the foregoing occurred.

(1) What happened here is that we have three sets of proofs of each article. One is pasted on "dummy" pages, one is marked with corrections, and the third is placed in an "overset type" file until the article appears. Somehow the third galley for "Here We Go Again" was not pulled when the original article appeared and remained in "overset" for over a year, when it was used again.

(2) The statement referring to 1961 was correct when the article was set in type. However, many months passed before it could be squeezed into the column. By that time, the phrase seemingly referred to 1962.

(3) All material used in "I See By the Papers" comes from newspaper clippings kindly sent to us by interested readers. This particular incident was reported by a Canadian newspaper, which apparently redated an old story. By the time we realized we had seen this story before, it was too late to save it out of the issue.—The Editors.

or seem to cross the lawn in front of the family's home. It is possible that some American families also have phantom animals of this kind which are seen shortly before the loss of some much-loved or intimate member of their circle.

FROGS WITH RAIN

Regarding the article by Raymond Bayless in the February issue—I believe the shrimp did fall from the sky! I say this because I saw frogs that came with the rains!

One minute the ground was dry, with nothing stirring. Then came a torrent of rain and these minute hopping things were everywhere. We mistook them for hailstones from the way they bounced, but when the rain stopped and the things kept bouncing, we went outside to look. They were frogs, tiny, emaciated and almost transparent. When we attempted to pick them up, their thin, little bodies clung like jelly to our skin. The meadow near our house soon was a lake and full of frogs, all about the size of my thumbnail. The ground was so thickly covered with them that we could not walk without crushing them, although they tried to jump away.

The frogs in the meadow-lake survived and grew into normal frogs. You can be sure we had a "bumper crop" that year. Their chorus filled the air every night for weeks.

This all happened in the hills east of Kenwood, Sonoma County, Calif., in the winter of 1939-40. I was 18 years old and living with my parents in an isolated cabin for that one year of ranch-life. The one road to town was washed out by the heavy rain, and so we were unable to communicate with any authorities to have our frog-story verified. By the time we were able to come down the hill, the frogs looked fairly normal, although still very tiny, so no one would believe us. After that experience, I will believe anyone who says "it rained frogs—or shrimp." I saw it happen!—Virginia Vanderford, Sea-foos, Calif.

In the park and, from their dress, speech and mannerisms, I judged them to be English. They were looking up into the air. I did like-wise and saw a larva cigar-shaped object floating there. It had a sort of cabin slung beneath the bag.

As I watched, I saw a spiral of something resembling smoke issue from amidships of the gondola. The smoke increased rapidly in volume. The rear of the ship's engines seemed suddenly to cease, and the dirigible veered to starboard and then forward course. I seemed to hear a wall coming from the passengers in the gondola and cries of horror from watchers on the strand. Then the gondola disintegrated, pieces of it falling earthward. Some of the passengers or crew scrambled up on the inflated bag, but the dirigible broke in two, with one hanging on the two sections of the bag. Then what was left of the gondola fell to the ground.

The images of this spectacular disaster were clearly etched on my brain, and I still can picture the scene I saw at that time.

I dismissed the experience as a dream and plunged into my daily duties. Great was my astonishment late the same day, to see in large headlines news of the disaster I had seen eight hours before. The paper coincided with those I had witnessed. Files of New York and other newspapers will confirm my story.

I was so impressed and amazed by the happening that I wrote a detailed report of it and mailed it to the Society for Psychical Research, New York, within a day or two of the event. Undoubtedly it is included-

REPORT FROM THE READERS

In the records of this society, I received a reply which no longer is in my files.

Heading the list of "Notable Aircraft Disasters," in the World Almanac, will be found the following: "Year, 1921, Aug. 24, Br. Dirigible R-38 (U.S. ZR-2), broke in half. Hull, England. Deaths, 62." I have since had other psychic experiences, but this was the most astonishing and detailed.—J'm. W. Ayre, Eureka, Calif.

"PHANTOM ANIMAL" CASES WANTED

I am preparing a book on phantom animals and those which appear to have registered psychic or supernatural experiences. There are well-authenticated instances of birds carrying telepathic messages and delivering them sometimes by entering the houses of the individuals concerned. Celtic people recognize this form of message as a "bending".

Examples exist, too, of domesticated animals suddenly becoming petrified with fear, their hair raised on end, while human beings nearby have sensed nothing unusual or disquieting.

Stories or legends no doubt exist in many parts of America of phantom horses, dogs or other animals which appear on anniversary dates, frequenting sites where some tragedy or disaster occurred.

In Britain, I have in the course of my researches found a number of families which have their own private phantoms. These are in the main messengers of death. In one family, the messenger takes the form of a headless Scotch Terrier, in another a phantom coach and horses, which rumble up the drive tree to repair the tire and rest a while out of the hot sun. I strolled a short distance along the road to look at the scenery. There were not too many trees and most of them were small. I had turned and was walking back when I was startled by something that passed swiftly and soundlessly between me and the sun, casting a shadow on the ground in front of me.

Looking up quickly, I saw, about 150 feet in the air, a bird that was a whopper. It had a head as large as a Rugby football. In motion its powerful wings looked like waves following one another. I think it must have spotted us from far off and had flown over to get a closer look, just as do all birds of prey when hungry.

I was so amazed at what I was seeing that I did not at once call out to the others. When they finally became aware of the bird, it had flown to a big tree about 500 yards up on the crest of a hill. The thick bottom branch on which it perched bent far down under its weight.

From this viewpoint, it studied the situation, and evidently it did not like a crowd. Before any of the fellows could get a shot at it with a rifle, it flew away, leaving its perch bouncing up and down like a springboard. At the distance from which they viewed it, the others thought that what they saw was just a very big eagle.—George H. France, Windsor, Ont., Can.

GHOST ON THE PORCH
 An unusual circumstance occurred when I moved into this vicinity almost six years ago.

REPORT FROM THE READERS

Several times while driving past an old house with no close neighbors, I distinctly saw an old man with a long beard sitting on a settee on the porch. As he looked quite lonely, I decided to stop the next time I saw him and inquire if I could be of any help. But I never saw him again. I inquired who he was from an "old-timer" up here. This person told me the old man I saw on the porch had lived there—but that he had been dead for several years. This surprised me greatly, to say the least.—Dorothy L. Pierce, Douglas Hill, Mo.

DIRIGIBLE CRASHER
 In 1921, while living in Brooklyn, N.Y., I had an unusual psychic experience. At this time lighter-than-air dirigibles were being built by several nations, prompted by the use of such aircraft during World War I. America had ordered the construction of a huge dirigible in England and it was given a trial run on August 24, 1921. It carried the identifying symbol "U.S. ZR-2." The place was Hull, England. These details then were unknown to me, a young man who held an interesting advertising position in Manhattan.

I went to bed on the night of August 23, without a thought in my mind to explain what followed. At about 5:00 A.M. I awoke, covered with sweat from an unusually disturbing nightmare. It began when I found myself walking idly in a rather small park. The limits of the park, or square, were lined with two and three-story is a more accurate designation for this anthology, for the 26 chapters deal with such assorted matters as witchcraft, dreams, zombies, and werewolves, in addition to haunting and apparitions. Although it is alleged that all accounts are true, documentation varies from excellent (notably the sections by R. S. Lambert) to non-existent; and some of the stories in the latter category sound like fiction. Be that as it may, none of the chapters are dull and some are quite stimulating. FATE readers will have encountered several of these stories previously while others will be new.

The two most interesting sections, both by R. S. Lambert, are the opening account of American Indian shamanism and the extended story of the Amherst poltergeist case. Both, incidentally, illustrate the way in which documentation can make the recounting of paranormal phenomena more convincing and more interesting. If one regrets that all the sections were not equally documented, it still remains that the Singers have gone much further in this direction than the overwhelming majority of similar compilations. This might be an ideal volume for the person who is making the transition from "ghost stories" as pure entertainment to a more serious interest in psychic phenomena.—

AFRICAN THUNDERBIRD
 Every time I read about "Thunderbirds," or big birds in general, I am reminded of an experience I had in 1903. I have delayed reporting it until now for fear of being considered a spinner of tall tales. But the account of Thunderbird sightings in the September issue of FATE encouraged me.

As a young man of 23 I started from Salisbury, Rhodesia, on a bicycle trip with Charlie Day, his son Edwin, Percy Howe and my brother Arthur. We were thrilled with the idea of going into the interior, in big game country, to hunt fish and explore. Our destination was Rocky Spruit, a crossing place 60 miles away in the lower Moso River Valley. We had a good guide in Charlie Day, a prospector who had been out that way before.

We traveled 40 miles the first day and slept the night in our blankets near the river where there were many large, wild lemon trees and also numerous monkeys, judging by the noise that woke us very early the next morning.

We got started on the second lap, traveling through an area that was beautiful and unspoiled by civilization. About 10:30, after we had covered some 10 miles, one of the fellows found he had a puncture. We stopped under a shady

PSYCHIC DEVELOPMENT

Aura researchers have now developed mechanical means of learning human aura — permanent of feet filters mounted in a pair of glasses adjustable to your head-size. The glasses leave your hands free! Up to now the most highly developed psychics have had to learn to see the human aura with the aid of awkward physical means—expensive fragile screens and hand-held films, treated with obscure eye-short-lived power.

to own aura goggles in this country. To detect aura radiation from the human body, animals or inanimate things you need only a few minutes practice with AURA GOGGLES. The leather frames fit close to your head to shut out all unwanted light rays. The filters are pincyanole bromide, a coal tar derivative that is not expensive and will not deteriorate with use. Of the few researchers who have had the privilege of testing the goggles, more than 50% have seen the aura on their first try!

COSMIC CONSCIOUSNESS is rightly considered by one of the great masters of mystical experience. It is not only a powerful and moving book, it is an daring that, although written almost sixty years ago, it is still ahead of its time. A book of this sort can only be produced under very special circumstances. Its author must be a brave and unconventional man who has not only the authority of scientific training and the prestige of an eminent position in that world, but also deep-seated emotional conviction based upon personal experience. Richard Maurice Bucke was just that man. Born in Canada in 1837 he was orphaned in childhood and spent years working on railroads and steamboats and as a miner and prospector. At 21 he returned to his birthplace and graduated from McGill Medical School with distinction, becoming a leading psychiatrist, President of the Psychological Section of the British Medical Association, President of the American Medico-Psychological Association, Superintendent of the Provincial Asylum for the Insane at Hamilton, Ontario, and Professor of Mental and Nervous Diseases at Western University. At 36 he had the sudden and illuminating metaphysical experience that lightened his life thereafter and led to the production of this remarkable book. This extraordinary event proved to be not an isolated occurrence, or a mental aberration, but the emergence of a new faculty which was neither supernatural nor supernatural, but the natural outgrowth of our present level of consciousness to a level that is as far above ours as ours is above the simple consciousness of animals. Dr. Bucke calls this faculty cosmic consciousness. He believes that the man who possesses it, such as Buddha, Jesus, Paul, Dante, Spenser, Blake, Balzac, Whitman, and a growing number of others in our time are forerunners of the beings who will eventually people the earth.

or even unexpressed thought, from the operator."

Podmore regretted that so few statistics were available, but admitted that those which were showed conclusively that faith-healing and mental science were effective in cases where hypnotism would be effective, and failed where hypnotism also failed. "In other words," he says, "in all alike the effect would appear to be due to suggestion; and it has not yet been proved that any one of the recognized modes of imparting the suggestion is conspicuously more effective than another."

Yet, as Erle J. Dingwall says in his Introduction to this book, "The all is said and done, the diverse explanations suggest that an accurate description of what is actually occurring still eludes us. Within ourselves there seems to be a power, which can, given the necessary conditions, heal those maladies responsive to that influence while at the same time the limits of that power are, in the present state of our knowledge, impossible to define."

Podmore tries to get to the root

NEW BOOKS 7

of this unknown power by analyzing carefully much of the written material about the earlier mesmer-ists, not only of their healings but of their interesting experiences with clairvoyants and sensitives. Then he discusses the period in which the techniques were taken up and modified by doctors such as Elliotson and Esdaile, and later Braid, who coined the name hypnotism.

The discovery of ether and chloroform led to the rejection of hypnotism in medicine for many decades, and during this period Spiritualism took a firm hold on the minds of the time. It was discovered, according to Podmore, that clairvoyants could put themselves into receptive states with the aid of magnetism or hypnotism. They even found themselves able to impart healing on occasion. Andrew Jackson Davis and Thomas Lake Harris carried this a step forward, and then came what P. W. H. Myers calls "the other schemes of self-suggestion" such as New Thought and Christian Science.
Phineas T. Quimby originated the latter name and many of its tenets.
These were later adopted, amplified and promoted by Mary Baker Eddy, whom Podmore does not treat very kindly.

Certainly, for the person who wishes to go into the history of faith healing, this is an excellent textbook. And, due to the author's early prescience, in our present era of psychosomatic medicine the book is not in the least dated.—Sway Smith.

The book "MENTAL TELEPATHY" brain processes generate far-reaching electromagnetic fields which explain many psychic phenomena.

Written in simple but scientific on the findings and conclusions of such authorities as Guglielmo Mar-

Nowhere else can you find a herent theory with precise rules valuable insights on hypnotism, clairvoyance and radiesthesia. With these higher powers so impressive

FROM MESMER TO CHRISTIAN SCIENCE, by Frank Podmore. University Books, New York Port, N.Y., 1943. 306 pages, $10.00.

Frank Podmore, a member of the Society for Psychical Research from its earliest days, has long been known as the devil's advocate of this field. Therefore, in From Mesmer to Christian Science, originally published in 1909, it is rather surprising to see him take a firm stand in favor of something so elusive as mental healing. But he reserves the right to his own interpretation of how it works.

After a penetrating analysis of the life and techniques of Anton Mesmer and some of his lesser-known followers—Deslon, de Puységur, Deleuze, Alexander Bertrand and others — Podmore says, "But the question which will most interest the practical man is, 'Do the mental healers heal?' Unquestionably they do."

Yet he rejects the idea that the actual causes of the cures are rays, conduction by iron, streams of light, magnetic crises, or any of the whole machinery on which earlier writers relied as demonstrating the existence of a healing fluid—celestial, magnetic or electric. He agrees instead with Bertrand's conclusions that the "results were due to the imagination of the subject, preternormally alive to the least suggestion, by word, look, gesture, pains, no tensions, no pressures and he went wherever he willed himself to be. He said he was on the outside of the house but could see the bedside scene as well as the whole area surrounding the house. He could see his lifeless body where it lay on the bed; he could see my father, Richard W. Armour, my mother and all the others gathered there by the bedside. The details of what he reported seeing on the outside proved to be true beyond any reasonable doubt.

Grandfather Armour explained further that the pain of returning to his body was greater than any he ever had experienced in life. He said it was not a physical pain but the mental pain of regret for returning from his new-found, complete tranquility and peace.

The actions and reaction at the bedside indicated that Grandfather's spirit returned as the result of some mind-over-spirit power within my mother, Emma. However, Grandfather Armour stated that his mind was crystal clear during the short, 15 minute period of his demise and that, in fact, he did return out of compassion, and not from any sense of compulsion.

Two years later, in 1913, when he was 84, Grandfather Armour suffered another heart seizure and passed quietly away. Now he rests in peace.
