Liberal Senators, like Hubert Humphrey, and the AFL-CIO, propose instead an individual income tax cut giving emphasis to lower bracket rate reductions. Most arguments on both sides, declare a tax cut is desirable to prime the stagnant economy and forestall a threatening recession. The business idea is that with more after-tax profits, there will be more investment, stimulating the capital goods industries, which are the most stagnant. The liberal argument is that there is already overcapacity, what is needed is to raise consumer purchasing power to stimulate production. (82)

THE PRESIDENT echoes the big business view: "The consumer purchasing power has held up. What has been particularly disappointing has been investment, and we have to consider whether a tax cut, and if so, what kind of a tax cut would stimulate investment if that becomes our need."

An immediate Chamber of Commerce-type cut is held up by (a) hesitation of many Congressmen to vote it before the elections; (b) the opinion of some businessmen that they can get more in two bites than in one; and (c) the fears of some of an increased deficit. But the delay to January may be cancelled right now if the economic panic signals are flashed. (83)

The big business-Administration argument is wrong, and labor's argument correct, so far as it goes. The financial journals concede that tax cuts already granted have not, and those pending are unlikely to, positively affect capital investment much. There is plenty of after-tax profits — a record amount. The critical lack is any sphere for application of expanded capacity, at home or abroad.

It is of our own Communist Party. "This anti-monopoly coalition," says Gus Hall, "is and will be, as it develops, a political expression of the gap that is growing between the monopolies with their ruthless drive for profits and total disregard of the interests of the people, and national interests which emerge in this new epoch."

"GUS HALL has written a convincing, eloquent and well-reasoned pamphlet which many Canadians should read."

U.S. Communist spokesmen into great detail in the democratic alterations which stand before the country. Harper fight against the ultra-Right and independence. Political action and the left in struggle against the monopolies, for the interest against the Wall Street -- this is Communist policy, as "The great democratic traditions of the American people are strong allies for Canadians in their own new battle for independence and peace. In fighting against the U.S. domination of our country we must always distinguish between Wall Street and the American people. Gus Hall's pamphlet is a fine lesson in politics for Canadians."

Hill at American Line

I have often wondered why it is that the communist, ^{corrupted} ~~corrupted~~ and even the fascist elements in America, always profess patriotism toward the land and the people, if not the government, although their ^{movements} ~~movements~~ lead to the little destruction of all and everything.

I am quite sure that people must hate not only the government but ~~the~~ ^{the} ~~the~~ ^{the} culture, traditions, heritage and very people itself, and yet they stand up and proudly pronounce themselves patriots, displaying their war medals, the they gained in conflicts ~~between~~ between themselves.

I wonder what would happen if somebody was to stand up and say he was utterly opposed not only to the governments, but to the people, to the entire land and complete foundations of his society.

There have already been a few organizations who have declared that they shall become effective only after conflict between the two world systems leaves no world country without defense or foundation of government, organizations such as the maintenance for entrance, however they stand are preparing to simply defend the present system and reinstate its influence after mutual defeat of both systems mutually which is more or less taken for granted.

These owned groups will represent the remaining hard core of fanatical American capitalist supporters.

There will undoubtedly be similar representations of this kind by Communist groups in Communist countries.

There will also be many divided religious segments of putting forward

When I first went to Russia in the winter of 1959 my funds were very limited, so after a certain time, after the Russians had secured themselves that I was really the naive American who believed in communism. They arranged for me to receive a certain amount of money every month or it come technically through the Red Cross as financial help to a political emigrant but it was arranged by the K.G.B. I told myself it was simply because I was broke and everybody knew it. I accepted the money because I was hungry and there was several inches of snow on the ground in Moscow at that time but what it really was was payment for my desertion of the U.S. in Moscow in ^{November 1956} and a clear promise that for as long as I lived in the USSR life would be very good. I didn't realize all this, of course for almost two years.

I have heard and read of the resurgence

However there will also be anarchist pacifist and quite probably fascist splinter groups. However all these, unlike the minority men and communist partisan groups, will be unarmed.

The mass of survivors ~~to~~ ^{possibly} however, will not belong to any of these groups. They will not be foolish enough to join extremes, and will be too disillusioned to support either the communists or the capitalist parties in their respective countries. To a person knowing both systems and their factional accessories, there can be no mediation between the systems and as they exist to-day and the person.

He must be opposed to their basic foundation and representations and yet it is inevitable to take the sort of attitude which says "a curse on both your houses!"

This is the two great representations of power in the world, simply expressed as left and right, and their ^{opponents} ~~opponents~~ and careers.

any practical attempt at an attempt must have as its nucleus the traditional ^{values} ~~values~~ of both systems, and yet be utterly opposed to both systems.

At the turn of the century in America In the emerging industrial revolution private enterprise triumphed because it offered a new, efficient and promising future while still observing the democratic ideal of its overthrow of the rural small enterprise.

and at about the same time in Russia the aristocracy was overthrown by the peasants and workers and the road laid open for the going of power by the bolshewics because they too, offered a bright new future without violating historical traditions of Russian working class life.

Therefore in history there are many such examples of the nucleus of the new order rooted in the idealistic traditions of the old.

At the industrial revolution began the present atomic age and yet it has developed as a natural part of its cycle its own electronics.

Automation may be compared to the more subtle aspects of industrialization and mechanization which bring the a general decay of classes into shapeless societies without real cultural functions regimentation; not so much of people since industrialization actually provides for more free movement of classes more freedom of expression throughout

In the communist experiment several factions and unavoidable developments have emerged which Marx and Engels could not possibly have foreseen. This emerges with increasing clarity two more of the mistakes which Marx ^{and Engels} made, not all mention the way for the state of Marx's economic theory, the doctrine of surplus value which has always been ^{some} ~~value~~ unshakable and controversial.

The first mistake is fairly well known even at this stage in the communist development the "withering away of the state" ^{as it was called} ~~conceived~~ ~~down~~ ^{may} ^{emphasized} that the abolition of classes would lead to the gradual reduction of state apparatus.
However this is not the case and is better observed than contemplated. The state rather becomes more ^{central} ~~centralized~~ in that while the powers of ministries or departments they are not reduced in the dividing of origin of state powers into smaller units at lower levels as although the ^{now} ~~ministries~~ of have actually ^{now} ~~increased~~ in number they have become more entrenched than ever at lower levels thus in dividing power you multiply units and in everyday life you become more and more dependent on these organs of state power, ~~the more~~ ^{wherever} ~~you turn~~ you meet them and they touch the lives of the people more and more, ~~and~~ a new bureaucracy, rather than a withering away of the state. In Prussia at the last two years there has been a shift of power from the capital of Moscow to the so-called "republics" but state apparatus simply grows into a greater size throughout these republics, thus in mind the capital of Belorussia the ministry of Dnieper becomes responsible for ~~the~~ ^{for determining the eligibility of} ~~the~~ ^{applications} for ~~the~~ ^{to get} ~~the~~ ^{exit visas} too leave the USSR, formerly the official program of Moscow alone but now that this state ministry in Moscow has withered away it becomes all the more difficult to get an exit visa since now one has to go to the area, city and republican state on top of all that a last final the sitting of the state as was envisaged was a universal mistake pointed out by very ~~many~~ critics of 1904 the second mistake England was made the much more direct but further tally just as important

In 1858 Engels wrote ~~in~~ ~~the~~ ~~first~~ ~~part~~ ~~of~~ ~~his~~ ~~critique~~ ~~of~~ ~~political~~ ~~economy~~ did rightly criticize Eugen Dühring, a German idealist who was supposedly not consistent in his materialism for the critique Engels said with much heavy sarcasm that Dühring only changed a word in his ~~fat~~ that ~~word~~ ~~changed~~ ~~word~~ was community level, many and Engles advocated a centralized state which would later "wither away".

but in the ~~past~~ Engles was mistaken again.

as history has shown time again the state remains and grows whereas true democracy can be practiced only at the local level, while its ~~is~~ centralized its administrative, political or supervisory remains there can be no ^{real} democracy (a loose confederation of communities at a national level with out centralized state what so ever.

in equal division ~~and~~, with safeguards against coalition of communities there can be democracy, not in its centralized state delegating authority but in numerous equal, ~~fully~~ ~~existing~~ ~~separate~~ ~~states~~ ~~communities~~ practicing and developing democracy at the local level.
