On the afternoon of 12/11/63, Mrs. McHugh, in the office of Chief Justice Warren, called to advise that Mr. J. Lee Rankin, Chief Counsel of the Presidential Commission, would like to go over his copies of the above FBI reports; however, Rankin is in New York. She asked if we had someone going up to NY tonight who could deliver these reports to Mr. Rankin. She said they did not want to trust one of their messengers with these reports.

I told Mrs. McHugh we did not have anyone going up to NY tonight; however, if she would send the reports to my office we would see that they got up to NY and were delivered to Mr. Rankin.

The reports were delivered to my office and have been sent up to NY with instructions to have them delivered to Mr. Rankin, at 35 Sutton Place, New York City.
