Dear MARINA Nikolaevna —

Few years back my wife and I were in USSR for 10 months (I studied at Moscow University). When we were there, Soviet students often helped us. It seems that now we are in position to help you.

Do not worry Marina; it is a difficult hour for you now, but life goes ahead. You will discover that many people (including us) are ready to help you.

I enclose a small check. Do not hesitate to call on us if in the future we could be of any assistance to you. Call on us and we will do what we can.
