

TRANSLATION FROM RUSSIAN

ITEM 128

A half-page note.

Dear Aleck:

So you are a father now. It is even nice that we have a girl. The delivery went off very well and fast. June was born at 10 o'clock. They saved up only four small outside cracks. I myself did not expect that everything would be so fast. Aunt Valya will probably come to see you this evening. She has been here already today. Do not bring anything today. And tomorrow, bring only kefir (*) and some dessert. I no longer can have chocolates. You already know the rest.

I kiss you,

/s/ Marina.

(*) "Kefir" is a sort of drink.

ITEM-128

Handwritten text on lined paper, possibly a list or notes. The text is written in a cursive or semi-cursive style and is oriented vertically on the page. The lines are clearly visible, and the handwriting is somewhat dense and overlapping. The text appears to be organized into several columns or sections, with some words or phrases being repeated or listed. The overall appearance is that of a handwritten document or a set of notes.
