

TRANSLATION FROM RUSSIAN

Item #134-1.

One-page note

Feb. 20.

Dear Marina,

I hope that you feel well.

How is June; is she all right?

Today at work, all the workers collected money for you (20 rubles) to buy a present. They will send you the present later. Did Aunt Valya visit you today or yesterday? And Aunt Lyuba?

I told her that you need a brassiere; I hope she found one. When are they letting you go? How much does June weigh? I saw Enis and Olga on Saturday and they showed me your correspondence.

We received a letter from Robert in which he invited us to live with him when we will be in the U. S. A.

I probably won't come tomorrow. O. K.?

So long,

/s/ Aleck.
