SUMMARY FROM RUSSIAN

Items #127-155

Letter from RUTH (sp?) to MARINA stating that things are boring now after our interesting and unusual visit. She adds that life is busy now but not as interesting as with you.

She writes that MICHAEL did not phone her to ask her the way and that finally she had to call him at work and that he is never at home at the apartment. She states that she is mad at him and intends to leave for New York right away to find a lover. She adds that he likes his cars — and that is it. She sends her regards to Lee and asks her to write.
