

of my, shame, embark assessment kicked from Dallas to here and then placed on a very slow very leaky boat to Mexico.

It is my hope that the "Special Agent in Charge" following your signature means that you have been assigned to look after Mrs. Oswald's interests, thus assuring her impartial advice.

It was suggested to her by me,
that some might be tempted to not pass on to her the knowledge of all doors which were being opened to her. An actor's agent would hate to see him spot his hat and hurry across the street, so might some now advising her.

I am not going to pose as one wholly without self-interest in this matter. It has vast possibilities for making my remaining years (I'm 69) far more significant, pleasant and rewarding.

In this letter, I told Mrs. Aewald that I would want to be responsible for all food, the girls' clothing, their minor medical and dental expenses, for the premiums on two one thousand dollar life insurance policies for the girls; that she was now the beneficiary to the extent of $500⁰⁰ under the terms of my will, that this was to continue regardless of whether or not they ^{got} died, that in the event they did, each year another $500⁰⁰ would be added;

I could not be as generous as this in
as I would like to ~~see~~ be.

There may be some who would insider what has been mentioned as being adequate, but I certainly would want to add at least 2500
each month.

at this time, with three mortgage payments to make - two of these will be retired within two and one half years -
and with budget provision for taxes
there remains, roughly, $250 each month.

I am one of those who have found truth in the statement that
"the contingencies not provided

of course.
So, I like to allow for the possibility of rental vacancies and delinquent payments. There is a healthy reserve, and I want to keep it so.

I did not mention (oversight) to Mr. Oswald that if Mrs. Oswald, Sr. come, some provision for rent would be necessary as this would involve vacating an apartment to accommodate her.

The wish was also expressed that regardless of whether or not they come to be with me permanently, that I might be allowed to visit them and in turn have them as my guests.

also that I would want to provide for an English course for Mrs. Oswald.

Will you kindly let me know whether or not this has already been arranged?

If not, I will send a money order in payment for same. The local Berkeley people charge $75.00, I think.

Also, is she a record player?

Now, as to the procedure to pursue to get my letter into Mrs. Oswald's possession.

If the post-office department moves the address of that "undisclosed location" there is no problem. A "direct to address only" would be adequate.

Will you undertake to arrange this for me. I will hold the letter until Friday.

Very truly yours

~~Max McLoaf.~~

Dear Sir:

I wish to send this Gospel of St. John in Russian to Mrs. Marina Oswald.
However, I do not know her address.
I am sending it to you, trusting that you will see it placed in her hands.

I have enclosed a letter which you may read.

Thank you for your help.

Dear Mr. Shanklin:

Here is another gift for Mrs. Aswall. Perhaps the rainbow may bring the thought that her path may not be as rough as in the past.

Some might wonder, unless familiar with the name Andrew Carnegie, a Scottish man who gave away his millions, how anyone with a Mc in his name could be liberal.

Well, I never have been so, but certainly liberal, generous. Money is of no significance to me except as related to a reasonable degree of security and present worthwhile living involving the pleasure of gifts to friends.

I do charge you intercepting the letter I mentioned yesterday as you would have been $100⁰⁰. P.S. it will be sent on to you as is when I hear from you.

Letters of acknowledgement have been directed to each of the above with the exception of RAYMOND MAYER (item 2 above). This check was obtained while photographing mail furnished by Secret Service and was not directed to MARINA OSWALD through this office. It was returned to her during interview.

No letter of acknowledgement if directed to DALE WILSON (item 6 above) as there was no check or money received and the letter was directed to MARINA OSWALD care of FBI.

No letter of acknowledgement is directed to MAX MC LOY, Huntington Park, California, because several such letters have been directed to him which letters of acknowledgement he has answered at great length.

Dear Sir: (Re Oswald Case)

h7c

Several months ago we sent a small check ~~██████~~ for toys for the Oswald children to Mrs. Oswald in your care. Since this check has never been deposited we are wondering why — Christmas is long past & though we have read in newspapers that the children were taken care of, at the time we sent the small token there was no evidence that this would be the case.

We appreciate the kindly way in which you have protected this most unfortunate woman — certainly her life would have been miserable without the shield you afforded her against the barbs of fanatics.

Sincerely,

On July 23, 1964, Mr. WYLIE STUFFLEBEME, First National Bank, Grand Prairie, Texas, telephone AN 4-1561, telephonically advised that his bank had received a letter postmarked at Herkimer, New York, July 22, 1964, addressed to "Mr. L. S. STUFFLEBEME, First National Bank, Grand Prairie, Texas," marked "Personal and Confidential." Printed in red pencil was a note to the effect, "Please deposit the enclosed [redacted] in the MARINA OSWALD fund. If this fund is not in your bank, will you please forward the money to the correct depository. Thank you for your trouble. Sincerely, RJC and BAQ."

Mr. STUFFLEBEME advised that enclosed was a crisp [redacted]

Mr. STUFFLEBEME advised that from all indications, this was a legitimate [redacted] but thought he should advise the FBI. He stated he was going to deposit this money to the MARINA OSWALD Trust Fund account at that bank.

The above is being made a matter of record.
