

SEATING PROBLEM

Getting ready to seat the 900 citizens called for jury duty during the time of the Jack Ruby trial, these courthouse workers move in crates of folding chairs to the central jury room. From left are Willie Easley; Bill Shaw, district clerk; C. A. Maxwell, bailiff of the central jury room; James Hightower, and Henry Jennison. Staff Photo.