RUBY Q. AND A.-PART

CONFIDENTIAL PRESIDENT'S COMMISSION ON THE

ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT KENNEDY

Dallas, Texas Sunday, June 7, 1964 • 11:45 a.m.-2:50 p.m.

PROCEEDINGS

RUBY: I went to the building of the Times Herald. I went to the Times Herald-may I read that, Joe? May I please? RUBY: Not yet. (Reading) "This is the girl that"-

(what?_"that started Jack off." What is this other word? MR. TONAHILL: Culminated?

• RUBY: That is untrue. That is what I wanted to read. (Throwing pad on table.) Gentlemen, unless you get me to Washington, you can't get a fair shake out of me. If you understand my way of talking, you have got to bring me to Washington to get the tests. Do I sound dramatic? Off the beam?

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: No. you are speaking very. very rational, and I am really surprised that you can remember as much as you have remembered up to the present time. You have given it to us in detail.

RUBY: Unless you can get me to Washington, and I am not a crackpot. I have all my sense-I don't want to evade any crime I am guilty of. But Mr. Moore, have I spoken this way when we have talked?

MR. MOORE: Yes.

RUBY: Unless you get me to Washington immediately, I am afraid after what Mr. Tonahill has written there, which is unfair to me regarding my testimony here-you all want to hear what he wrote?

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: Yes, you might read it. If you need glasses again, try mine this time (handing glasses to Ruby.)

RUBY: (Putting on glasses) "This is the girl"-MR. TONAHILL: "thing." isn't it?

RUBY: "This is the thing that started Jack in the shooting.

MR. TONAHILL: Kathy Kay was talking about Oswald. RUBY: You are lying Joe Tonahill. You are lying.

MR. TONAHILL: No. I am not.

RUBY: You are lying, because you know what motivated me. You want to make it that it was a premeditation.

ميدولا فالمتكافحة وكالمتعمل والمتعادين

MR. TONAHILL: No.

RUBY: Yes, you do.

Rankin?

MR. TONAHILL: I don't think there was any premedita-MR. TONAMILLS. I used and tell it your way. That is what we at you to do. That is what the Chief Justice warris-RUBY; Not when you specify this. You are Senator

-MR. RANKIN: No, I am the General Counsel for our Commission, Mr. Ruby.

MR. TONAHILL: You go on and keep telling it down to Caroline and the truth.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: Mr. Ruby, may I suggest this, that if we are to have any tests, either a lie detector or. as you suggest, maybe a truth serum. I don't know anything about truth serum, but if we are to have it, we have to have something to check against, and we would like to have the rest of your story as you started to tell us, because you are now getting down to the crucial part of it, and it wouldn't be fair to you to have this much of it and then not have the rest.

RUBY: Because the reason why, Joe knows from the time that I told Attorney (Melvin) Belli, and the story I wanted to tell on the stand, and Mr. Tonahill knows this isn't the time. The thought never entered my mind. He knows it.

MR. TONAHILL: I didn't say the thought entered your mind. I didn't say that.

RUBY: You are inferring that. MR. TONAHILL: Unconsciously, maybe, is what I meant to any.

RUBY: Why go back to Friday, Joe?

MR. TONAHILL: You are going to come right down-RUBY: Why go back to Friday? That set me off. Then it is greater premeditation than you know is true.

MR. TONAHILL: I don't say it is premeditation. I never have. I don't think it is.

'Im Here to Tell the Truth'

RUBY: Because it never entered my mind when they talked about, the officer, cutting him to bits. You would like to have built it up for my defense, but that is not it. I am here to tell the truth.

to tell the truth.

RUBY: You want to put that into my thoughts, but it never hanpened. I took it with a grain of salt what he said at that particular time. Well, it is too bad. Chief Warren, that you didn't get me to your headquarters six months ago.

CHIEP JUSTICE WARREN: Well. Mr. Ruby, I will tell you why we didn't. Because you were then about to be tried and I didn't want to do anything that would prejudice you in your trial. And for that reason, I wouldn't even consider asking you to testify until the trial was over.

That is the only reason that we didn't talk to you sooner. And I wish we had gotten here a little sooner after your trial was over hut I know you had others things on your mind, and

- Landerson and - we had other work, and it got to this late date. But I_sessure you, there is no desire on our part to let this matter go to any late date for any ulterior purpose. I assure you that. And as I told you at the beginning, if you want a test of some kind made, I will undertake to see that it is done. ~

RUBY: You have power to do it, even though the District Attorney objects to me getting the tests?

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: Yes, I do.

RUBY: How soon can it be done?

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: Well, I am not familiar with those things, but we will try to do it expeditiously, you may be sure, because we are trying to wind up the work of this Commission. And I assure you we won't delay it.

RUBY: Are you staying overnight here. Chief Warren? 'CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: No. I have to be back, because we have an early session of the court tomorrow morning.

RUBY: Is there any way of getting a polygraph here?

SHERIFF DECKER: May I make a suggestion? Jack, listen, you and I have had a lot of dealings. Do you want my officers removed from the room while you talk to this Commission?

RUBY: That wouldn't prove any truth.

SHERIFF DECKER: These people came several thousand miles to interview you. You have wanted to tell me your story and I have refused to let you tell me. Now be a man with a bunch of men that have come a long way to give you an opportunity to. You asked me for permission to tell your story, and I told you "No." This is a supreme investigating committee at this particular time. Now give them your story and be a man, if you want them to deal with you and deal fairly with you.

RUBY: It is unfair to me unless I get all the facilities to back up what I say.

'Be a Man About It'

SHERIFF DECKER: You tell him your story. Nobody is denying it. You tell this man, he has come a thousand or more miles to listen to you. Now be a man about it.

MR. MOORE: What I suggest: Jack at one time I was a polygraph operator, and you would not be able to go through the entire story that way you have here. So, seriously, you should tell the story and the things you want checked, you can be asked directly. Because you can only answer yes or no on the polygraph examination. So I think in view of what you want, you should tell your story first, and then the points that you want verified, you can be questioned on.

As the Sheriff mentioned, the Commission has come a long way to have the opportunity to listen to your story, and J am sure that they know you are telling the truth, in any case.

RUBY: I wish the President were right here now. It is a terrible ordeal. I tell you that.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: I am sure it is an ordeal for you, and we want to make it just as easy as we can. That is the reason that we have let you tell your story in your own way without being interrupted. If you will just proceed with the rest of your statement, I think it would make it a loo easier for us to verify it in the way that you want it to be done. RUBY: I don't know how to answer you.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: Well, you have told us most of what happened up to the time of the incident, and you are almost within, you are just within a few hours of it now.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: Yes, that is true.

RUBY: Well, I will go into a certain point, and if I stop, you will have to understand if I stop is get my bearings together.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: Yes.

RUBY: I am in the Times Herald building. I go upstairs, naturally.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: This is about what time? BUBY: This is, I imagine, is—I left KLIF at 2:00 a.m., and I spent an hour with the officer and his girl friend, so it must have been about 3:15 approximately. No, it wasn't. When you are not concerned with time, it could have been 4:00 oclock.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: It doesn't make any differ-

RUBY: Forty-five minutes difference. I am up there in the composing room talking to a guy by the name of Pat Gayloesch. He was so elated that I brought him this twist board, and I had it scaled in a polyethylene bag, but he wanted to see how it is demonstrated, how it was worked. It is a board that is on a pivot, a ball bearing, and it has a tendency to give you certain exercises in dwisting your body. So not that I wanted to get in with the hilarity of frolicking, but he asked me to show him, and the other men gathered around.

When you get into the movement of a ball bearing disk, your body is free to move. I know you look like you are having a gay time, because naturally if your body is so free of moving, it is going to look that way. I am stating this in that even with my emotional feeling for our beloved President, even to demonstrate the twist board, I did it because someone asked me to. You follow me, gentlemen, as I describe it?

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: Yes, I do.

Black Border Around Ad

RUBY: Then we placed the ad in, and if I recall. I requested from Pat to put a black border around to show that the ad was in mourning, or something, because we were, everything was in mourning. Bill, will you do that for me that you asked a minute ago? You said you wanted to leave the room.

SHERIFF DECKER: I will have everyone leave the room, including myself, if you want to talk about it. You name it, and out we will go.

RUBY: All right.

here, and Joe Tonahill is here. You asked me anybody I wanted out.

FREEPEF DECKER: Jack, this is your attorney. That is your lawyer. • • •

RUBY: He is not my lawyer.

(Sheriff Decker and law enforcement officers left room.) Gentlemen, if you want to hear any further testimony. you will have to get me to Washington soon, because it has something to do with you, Chief Warren. Do I sound sober enough to tell you this?

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: Yes, go right ahead. RUBY: I want to tell the truth, and I can't tell it here. I can't tell it here. Does that make sense to you?

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: Well, let's don't talk about sense. But I really can't see why you can't tell this Commission.

RUBY: What is your name?

MR. BALL: Joe Ball. CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: Mr. Joe Ball. He is an stiorney from Los Angeles who has been working for me.

RUBY: Do you know Belli too?

MR. BALL: I know of him.

RUBY: Ball was working with him. He knows Belli. You • know Melvin Belli?

MR. BALL: I was not acquainted with him.

MR. BALL: I was not acquainted with hun. CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: No association of any kind. MR. BALL: We practice in different cities. CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: Five hundred miles away. Mr. Ball practices in Iong Beach, and Mr. Belli practices in Ban Francisco. There is positively no connection between anybody in this room, as far as I know, with Mr. Belli. I can assure you of that.

RUBY: Where do you stand. Moore?

MR. MOORE: Well, I am assigned to the Commission, Jack.

RUBY: The President assigned you?

MR. MOORE: No, my Chief did. And I am not involved in the investigation. I am more of a security officer. •

RUBY: Boys, I am in a tough spot. I tell you that.

MR. MOORE: You recall when I talked to you, there were certain things I asked you not to tell me at the time, for certain reasons, that you were probably going to trial at that time, and I respected your position on that and asked you not to tell me certain things.

RUBY: But this isn't the place for me to tell what I want tell. to MR. MOORE: The Commission is looking into the entire matter, and you are part of it, should be. .

Fears for Warren's Life

RUBY: Chief Warren, your life is in danger in this city. do you know that?

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: No. I don't know that. If that is the thing that you don't want to talk about, you can tell me, if you wish, when this is all over, just between you \sum and me.

RUBY: No. I would like to talk to you in private.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: You may do that when you finish your story. You may tell me that phase of it.

RIBY: I bet you haven't had a witness like me in your whole investigation, is that correct?

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: There are many witnesses whose memory has not been as good as yours. I tell you that honestly.

RUBY: My reluctance to talk-you haven't had any witness in telling the story, in finding so many problems? CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: You have a greater problem than any witness we have had.

RUBY: I have a lot of reasons for having those problems. CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: I know that, and we want to respect your rights, whatever they may be. And I only want to. hear what you are willing to tell us, because I realize that you still have a great problem before you, and I am not trying to press you.

I came here because I thought you wanted to tell us that story, and I think the story should be told for the public, and it will eventually be made public. If you want to do that, you are entitled to do that, and if you want to have it verified as the thing can be verified by a polygraph test, you may have that too. I will undertake to do that for you, but at all events we must first have the story that we are going to check it against.

FUNT: When are you going back to Washington?

CUTEF JUSTICE WARREN: I am going back very shortly. after we finish this hearing. I am going to have some lunch.

RUBY: Can I make a statement?

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: Yes. RUBY: If you request me to go back to Washington with you right now, that couldn't be done, could it? CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: No. it could not be done. It could not be done. There are a good many things involved in that, Mr. Ruby.

RUBY: What are they?

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: Well, the public attention that it would attract, and the people who would be around. We have no place there for you to be safe when we take you out, and we are not law enforcement officers, and it isn't our responsibility to go into anything of that kind. And certainly it couldn't be done on a moment's notice this way.

RUBY: Well, from what I read in the paper, they made certain precautions for you coming here, but you got here. CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: There are no precautions taken at all.

RUBY: There were some remarks in the paper about some a-ackpots.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: I don't believe everything I read in the paper.

MR. MOORE: In that respect, the Chief Justice is in public life. People in public life are well aware they don't please everyone, and they get these threats. Incidentally, if it is the part about George Senator talking about the Earl Warren Society, the Chief Justice is aware of that phase, and I am sure he would like to hear anything that you have to say if it affects the security.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: Before you finish the rest of your statement, may I ask you this question, and this is one of the questions we came here to ask you.

DID YOU KNOW LEE HARVEY OSWALD PRIOP TO THIS SHOOTING? .

RUBY: That is why I want to take the lie detector test. Just saying no isn't sufficient.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: I will afford you that opportunity. You can't do both of them at one time.

RUBY: Gentlemen, my life is in danger here. Not with my guilty ples of execution. Do I sound sober enough to you as I say this?

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: You do. You sound entirely sober.

RUBY: From the moment I started my testimony, have I sounded as though, with the exceptional of becoming emotional, have I sounded as though I made sense, what I was speaking about?

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: You have indeed. I under-stood everything you have said. If I haven't, it is my fault.

RUBY: Then I follow this up. I may not live tomorrow to give any further testimony. The reason why I add this, since you assure me that I have been speaking sense by then. I might be speaking sense by following what I have said and a the only thing I want to get out to the public, and I can't say it here, is with authenticity, with sincerity of the fourth of everything and why my act was committed, but it can't be said here.

It can be said, it's got to be said amongst people of the highest authority that would give me the benefit of doubt. And following that, immediately give me the lie detector test after I do make the statement. Chairman Warren, if you felt that your life was in danger at the moment, how would you feel? Wouldn't you be reluctant to go on speaking, even though you request me to do so?

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: I think I might have some reluctance if I was in your position, yes, I think I would. I think I would figure out very carefully to whether it would endanger me or not. If you think that anything that I am doing or anything that I am asking you is endangering you in anyway, shape or form, I want you to feel absolutely free to say that the interview is over.

BUBY: What happens then? I didn't accomplish anything.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: No. nothing has been accomplished.

RUBY: Well, then you won't follow up with anything further?

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: There wouldn't be anything to follow up if you hadn't completed your statement.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN; Within the purview of our Executive Order which established the Commission. We have the right to take testimony of anyone we want in this whole situation and we have the right, if we so choose to do the to verify that statement in any way that we wish to do it.

- BUTT But you don't have a right to take a prisoner back with you when you want to?

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: No. We have the power to subpocha witnesses to Washington if we want to do it, but we have taken the testimony of two or three hundred people, I would imagine, here in Dallas without going to Washington.

RUBY: They weren't.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: Now I want you to feel that we are not here to take advantage of you, because I know that you are in a delicate position, and unless you had indicated not only through your lawyers but also through your sister. who wrote a letter addressed eliber to me or to Mr. Rankin, saying that you wanted to testify before the Commission. unless she had told us that. I wouldn't have bothered you.

Because I know you do have this case that is not yet finished, and I wouldn't jeoparate your position by trying to insist that you testify. So I want you to feel that you are free to refrain from testifying any time you wish. But I will also be frank with you and say that I don't think it would be to your advantage to tell us as much as you have and then to_ stop and not tell us the rest. I can't see what advantage that would give you.

RUBY: The thing is this, that with your power that you , have, Chief Justice Warren, and all these gentlemen, too much time has gone by for me to give you any benefit of what I am saying now.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: No. that isn't a fact, because until we make our findings on the Commission, and until we make our report on the case, it is not too late. And there are other witnesses we have who are yet to be examined. So from our standpoint, it is timely. We are not handicapped at all by the lateness of your examination.

Too Tragic to Discuss

RUBY: Well, it is too tragic to talk about. MR. RANKIN: Isn't it true that we waited very late in our proceedings to talk to Mrs. Kennedy? CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: Yes, I might say to you that we didn't take Mrs. Kennedy's statement until day before yesterday. Mr. Rankin and I took her testimony then. So we are not treating you different from any other witness.

RUBY: I tell you, gentlemen, my whole family is in jeopardy. My sisters, as to their lives. : CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: Yes?

RUBY: Naturally, I am a faregone conclusion. My sisters, Eva, Eileen and Mary, I lost my sisters. My brothers. Sam. Earl, Hyman, and myself naturally-my in-laws, Harold Cominsky, Marge Ruby, the wife of Earl, and Phyllis, the wife of Sam Ruby, they are in jeopardy of loss of their lives. Yet they have, just because they are blood related to myself-does that sound serious enough to you, Chief Justice Warren?

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: Nothing could be more serious if that is the fact. But your sister, I don't know whether it was your sister Eva or your other sister-. .

RUBY: Eileen wrote you a letter.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN:-wrote the letter to me and told us that you would like to testify, and that is one of the reasons we came down here.

BUBY: But unfortunately, when did you get the letter,

Chief Justice Warren? CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: It was a long time ago. I admit. I think it was, let's see, roughly between two and three months ago.

RUBY: Yes.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: I think it was. yes.

RUBY: At that time when you first got the letter and I was begging Joe Tonahill and the other lawyers to know the truth about me, certain things that are happening now wouldn't be happening at this particular time.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: Yes?

RUBY: Of why that Sunday morning-that thought never entered my mind prior to that Sunday morning when I took it upon myself to try to be a martyr or some screwball, you might say.

But I felt very emotional and very carried away from Mrs. Kennedy, that with all the strife she had gone through -I had been following it pretty well-that someone owed it to our beloved President that she shouldn't be emerted to come week to face trial of this heinous crime. And I have never had a chance to tell that, to back it up, to prove $1. Consequently, right at this moment. I am being victimized as a part of a plot in the world's worst tragedy and crime at this moment.

Months back had I been given a chance-I take that back. Sometime back a police officer of the Dallas Police Department wanted to know how I got into the building. And I don't know whether I requested a lie detector test or not, but my attorney wasn't available. When you are a defendant in the case, you say "speak to your attorney." you know. But that was a different time. It was after the trial, whenever it happened.

At this moment, Lee Harvey Oswald isn't guilty of committing the crime of assassinating President Kennedy. Jack Ruby is. How can I fight that, Chief Justice Warren?

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: Well now, I want to say. Mr. Ruby, that as far as this Commission is concerned, there is no implication of that in what we are doing.

RUBY: All right, there is a certain organization here-CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: That I can assure you.

RUBY: There is an organization here, Chief Justice Warren, if it takes my life at this moment to say it, and Bill Decker said be a man and say it, there is a John Birch Society right now in activity, and (former Maj. Gen.) Edwin Walker is one of the top men of this organization-take it for what it is worth. Chief Justice Warren. Unfortunate for me, for me giving the people the opportunity to get in power, because of the act I committed, has put a lot of people in jeopardy with their lives. Don't register with you, does it? CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: No. I don't understand that

RUBY: Would you rather I just delete what I said and just pretend that nothing is going on.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: I would not indeed. I am only interested in what you want to tell this Commission. That is all I am interested in.

RUBY: Well, I said my life, I won't be living long now. I know that. My family's lives will be gone. When I left my apartment that morning ... CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: What morning?

RUBY: Sunday morning. CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: Sunday morning

RUBY: Let's go back. Saturday I watched Rabbi Selecman. Any of you watch it that Saturday morning? CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: No, I didn't happen to hear it.

RUBY: He went ahead and eulogized that here is a man that fought in every battle. Went to every country, and had to come back to his own country to be shot in the back. (Starts crying.) I must be a great actor. I tell you that, CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: No.

A Period of Depression

Sec. 19

RUBY: That created a tremendous emotional feeling for me, the way he said that. Prior to all the other times, I was carried away. Then that Saturday night, I didn't do anything but visit a little club over here and had a coca-cola, because I was sort of depressed. A fellow that owns the Pago Club, Bob Norton, and he knew something was wrong with me in the certain mood I was in. And I went home and that weekend. Sunday morning, and saw a Letter to Caroline, two columns about a sixteen-inch area. Someone had written a letter to Caroline. The most heartbreaking letter. I don't remember the contents. Do you remembr that?

MR. MOORE: I think I saw it.

RUBY: Ycs. And alongside that letter on the same sheet. of paper was a small comment in the newspaper that, I don't know how it was stated, that Mrs. Kennedy may have to come back for the trial of Lee Harvey Oswald. That caused me to go like I did. That caused me to go like I did.

The back in the train of the reavery Oswald. That caused me to go like I did. That caused me to go like I did. I don't know, Chief Justice, but I got so carried away. And I remember prior to that thought, there has never been another thought in my mind; I was never malicious toward this person. No one else requested me to do anything.

I never spoke to anyone about attempting to do anything. No subversive organization gave me any idea. No underworld person made any effort to contact me. It all happened that Sunday morning. The last thing I read was that Mrs. Kennedy may have to come back to Dallas for the trial for Lee Harvey Oswald, and I don't know what bug got hold of me. I don't know what it is, but I am going to tell the truth word for word.

I am taking a pill called Preludin. It is a harmless pill, and it is very easy to get in the drug store. It isn't a highly prescribed pill. I use it for dicting. I don't partake of that much food. I think that was a stimulus to give me an emotional feeling that suddenly I felt, which was so stupid, that I wanted to show my love for our faith, being of the Jewish faith, and I never used the term and I don't want to go into that—suddenly the feeling, the emotional feeling came within me that someone owed this debt to our beloved President to save her the ordeal of coming back.

I don't know why that came through my mind. And I drove past the Main Street, past the County building, and there was a crowd already gathered there. And I guess I thought I know he was going to be moved at 10:00 o'clock. I don't know. I listened to the radio; and I passed a crowd and it looked—I am repeating myself—and I took it for granted he had already been moved.

And I parked my car in the lot across from the Western Union. Prior to that, I got a call from a little girl—she wanted some money—that worked for me, and I said, "Can't you wait till payday?" And she said, "Jack, you are going to be closed." So my purpose was to go to the Western Union my double purpose—but the thought of doing, committing the act wasn't until I left my apartment. Sending the wire was when I had the phone call—or the money order.

I drove down Main Street—there was a little incident I left out, that I started to go down a driveway, but I wanted to go by Reed's and I saw him and started to cry again. Then I drove, parked the car across from the Western Union, sent the money order, whatever it was, walked the distance from the Western Union to the ramp—I didn't sneak in. I didn't linger in there.

"I Didn't Crouch or Hide"

I didn't crouch or hide behind anyone, unless the television camera can make it seem that way. There was an officer talking—I don't know what rank he had—talking to a Sam Pease in a car parked up on the curb.

I walked down those few steps, and there was the person that—I wouldn't say I saw red—it was a feeling I had for our beloved President and Mrs. Kennedy, that he was insignificant to what my purpose was.

And when I walked down the ramp-I would say there was an eight-foot clearance-not that I wanted to be a hero, or I didn't realize that even if the officer would have observed me, the kleig lights, but I can't take that.

I did not mingle with the crowd. There was no one near me when I walked down the ramp, because if you will time the time I sent the money order, I think it was 10:17 a.m. Sunday morning.

I think the actual act was committed—I take that back —was it 11:00 o'clock? You should know this.

MR. MOORE: 11:21.

RUBY: No, when Oswald was shot.

And I have a friend of mine-do you mind if it is a slipshop story?

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: No, you tell us in your own way.

RUBY: A fellow whom I sort of idolized is of the Catholic faith, and a gambler. Naturally in my business you meet people of various backgrounds. And the thought came, we were very close, and I always thought a lot of him, and I knew that Kennedy, being Catholic, I knew how heartbroken he was, and even his picture of this Mr. McWillie flashed across me, because I have a great fondness to him.

"All that blended into the thing that like a screwball, the way it turned out, that I thought that I would sacrifice myself for the few moments of saving ME Kennedy the discomfiture of coming back to trial. Now all these things of my background. I should have been the last person in the world to want to be a martyr. It happens, doesn't it, Chief Warren?

I mean, for instance. I have been in the night club business, a burlesque. It was a means of liveshood. I knew persons of notorious backgrounds years age in Chicago. I was with the Union back in Chicago, and I left the Union when I found out the notorious organization had moved in there. It was in 1940.

Then recently, I had to make so many numerous calls that I am sure you know of. Am I right? Because of trying to survive in my business. My unfair competition had been running certain shows that we were restricted to run by regulation of the Union.

But they violated all the rules of the Emion. and I didn't violate it, and consequently I was becoming insolvent beto seeing if they can help out, with the American Guild of Variety Artists. Does that confirm a lot of things you have heard? Every person I have called, and mmetimes you may not even know a person intimately, you sort of tell them, well, you are stranded down here and yos want some help-If they know of any official of the American Guild of Variety Artists to help me. Because my competitors were putting me out of business.

No Link to Underworld

I even flew to New York to see Joe Gazer, and he called Bobby Faye. He was the National President. That didn't help. He called Barney Ross and Joey Adams. All these phone calls were related not in any way involved with the underworld, because I have been away from Chicago seventeen years down in Dallas. As a matter of fast, I even called a Mr .- hold it before I say it-headed the American Federation of Labor-I can't think-in the State of Texas-Miller. CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: I don't know.

RUBY: Is there a Deutsch I. Maylor? I called a Mr. Maylor here in Texas to see if he could help me out. I want to set you gentlemen straight on all the telephone calls I had. This was a long time prior to what has happened. And the only association I had with those calk, the only questions that I inquired about, was if they could help me with the American Guild of Variety Artists, to see that they abolished it, because it was unfair to professional talent, abolish them from putting on their shows in Dallas. That is the only reason I made these calls. Where do

We go from there? CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: Well, I will go back to the original question that I asked you. DID YOU EVER KNOW OSWALD?

RUBY: No. Let me add-you are refreshing my mind about a few things. Can I ask you one ming? Did you all talk to Mr. McWillie? I am sure you have. . . VOICE (Not Identified): Yes.

RUBY: He always wanted me to come down to Havans. Cuba: invited me down there, and I didn't want to leave my business because I had to watch over it. He was a key man over the Tropicana down there. That was during our good times. Was in harmony with our enemy of our present time.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: Yes? RUBY: I refused. I couldn't make it. Finally he sent me tickets to come down, airplane tickets. I made the trip down there via New Orleans. and so I stayed at Thir's Apartments. and I was with him constantly. And I was bored with the gambling, because I don't gamble, and there is nothing exciting unless you can speak their language, which is Spanish. I believe. And that was the only environment. That was in August of '59.

Any thought of ever being close to Bavana. Cuba, I called him frequently because he was down there, and he was the last person to leave, if I recall, when they had to leave, when he left the Casino.

As a matter of fact, on the plane, if I recall, I had an article he sent me, and I wanted to get it published because I idolized McWillie. He is a pretty nice box and I happened to be idolizing him. When the plane left Harana and landed In the United States, some school teacher remarked that the United States is not treating Castro right. When they landed in the United States this Mr. Louis McWille slugged this guy for making that comment.

So I want you to know, as far as him having any subversive thoughts, and I wanted Tony to pas 2 in the paper here. That is how much I thought of Mr. McWillie: And that is my only association. The only other association with him was, there was a gentleman here that sells guns. He has a hardware store on Singleton Avenue. Have I told this to you gentlemen? It is Ray's Hardware. His name's Ray Brantley.

This was-I don't recall when he called me, but he was Tittle worried of the new regime coming is, and evidently he wanted some protection. He called me er sent me - latter that I should call Ray Brantley. He wanted some four little Cobra guns-big shipment.

So me. I should say myself rather, feiling no harm, I didn't realize, because he wasn't sending them to me, and I thought there was no crime, the man wanier protection, he -is earning a livelihood. I called Ray Brazery and I said, "Ray McWillie called me." I don't remember if he sent me a letter or he called. He said he wants four little Cobras, something like that.

He said, "I know Mac. I have been doing business with him for a long time." Meaning with reference to when he was living in Texas. He did a lot of hunting and things like that.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: Yes?

RUBY: That was the only relationship I had of any mention, outside of phone calls, to Mr. McWale, or any person from Havana, Cuba.

...

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: When was that?

RUBY: Now the guns—am I correct? Did you ever go to check on it? On Ray Brantley? MR. MOORE: No. . .

متعالمة المربعة

RUBY: He denies I ever called. Evidently he feels, maybe he feels it would be illegal to send guns out of the country. I don't know if you gentlemen know the law. I don't know the law.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: I don't know. RUBY: I kept—did I tell you this, Joe, about this?

MR. TONAHILL: Yes, you did. RUBY: That I wanted someone to go to Ray Braniley?

RUBY: That I wanted someone to go to Ray Braniley? MR. TONAHILL: Yes.

RUBY: When Phil Burleson came back with a letter, signed an Affidavit that Ray Brantley said he never did receive a call from me, and the only gun he sent to McWillie was to the Vegas, but it came back that they didn't pick it up because it was a C.O.D. order.

This definitely would do me more harm, because if I-tell my story that I called Ray Brantley, and he denied that he ever got a call from me, definitely that makes it look like I am hiding something. Haven't I felt that right along, Joe? MR. TONAHILL: You sure have. Jack.

RUBY: Now, the reason I am telling you these things. I never knew Lee Harvey Oswald. The first time I ever have seen him was the time in the Assembly Room when they brought him out, when he had some sort of shiner on his eye. CHIEP JUSTICE WARREN: When was that little incident about the Cobras? About what year? That is all I am interested in.

RUBY: Could have been prior to the early part of '59. CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: Yes; all right.

RUBY: That is the only call I made. And as a matter of fact, I didn't even follow up to inquire of this Mr. Brantley, whether he received it or what the recourse was. That is why I tell you, Chief Justice Warren—who is this new gentleman, may I ask?

MR. RANKIN: This is Mr. Slorey from your community. a lawyer who is working with the Attorney General, and Mr. Jaworski, in connection with watching the work of the Commission so that they will be satisfied as to the quality of the work done insolar as the State of Texas is concerned.

(Pause for reporter to change paper, and Ruby asked about one of the gentlemen, to which Chief Justice Warren replied as follows):

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: (Referring to Mr. Specter) He has been working with us on the Commission since very close to the beginning now.

MR. RANKIN: How long did you spend in Cuba on this trip?

RUBY: Eight days. A lot of your tourists were there. As a matter of fact, a lot of group tourists were going down, students of schools. I mean, he had a way of purchasing tickets from Havana that I think he purchased them at a lesser price. He bought them from the travel agent in the Genri Hotel. He bought them-did you meet McWillie? MR. MOORE: I didn't. يحدونه

MR. RANKIN: He was checked by the Commission in connection with this work.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: There was some story in one of the papers that you had been interested in shipping jeeps down to Cuba. Was there anything to that at all?

RUBY: No. But this was the earlier part, when the first time Castro had ever invaded Cuba. There was even a government article that they would med jeeps. I don't recall what it was, but I never had the facilities or the capabilities of knowing where to get jeeps.

But probably in conversation with other persons—you see, it is a new land, and they have to have a lot of things. As a matter of fact, the United States Government was wanting persons to help them at that pericular time when they threw out the dictator, Batista.

And one particular time there was gentleman that smucricd guns to Castro. I think I told you that, Mr. Moore; I don't remember.

MR. MOORE: I don't recall that."

RUBY: I think his name was Longley out of Baysomething-Texas, on the Bayshore. And somehow he was, I read the article about him, that he was given a jail term for smuggling guns to Castro. This is the early part of their revolution.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: Before the Batista Government fell?

RUBY: Yes. I think he had a boat, and he lived somewhere in Bay something. Bayshore, in the center part of Texas. Do you know him, Mr. Storey? Do you know this man?
