Ruby's Family Views His Body in Chicago

CHICAGO, Ill. (AP) — Jack Ruby's sisters and brothers viewed his body Thursday as it lay in a flag-draped casket in a funeral home.

An American flag, token of Ruby's service as an Army Air Corps mechanic during World II, was draped on the bronze casket. Nearby were eight floral pieces.

The body was attired in a black suit, a black tie and a white shirt, and the traditional Jewish shawl and skullcap.

Reporters walked by the casket later. They did so at the request of some members of the family. Hershey Weinstein, president of the Original Weinstein & Sons Funeral Home, said they wanted to forestall any future speculation that the body was not Ruby's.

A family-only funeral has been arranged at the funeral home on the northwest side Friday morning. Ruby will be interred beside his parents in Westlawn Cemetery.

Ruby, 35, the slayer of Lee Harvey Oswald, who was named by the Warren Commission as President John F. Kennedy's assassin, died Tuesday in Dallas.

One brother, Hyman Rubenstein, objected to the presence of reporters in the lobby of the funeral home before they and members of the family viewed the body. But his objections ended after another brother, Earl, talked to him.

A police detail stood guard at the chapel to prevent any disruptive incidents by curious strangers.

Rabbi David Graubart will conduct the funeral services, which he described as a traditional Jewish ritual of burial, at the funeral chapel and at graveside.

At the grave, Ruby's three brothers, Earl Ruby of Southfield, Mich.; Sam Ruby and Hyman Rubenstein, both of Chicago, will recite the Kaddish, a Jewish prayer.
