NOTE: In a letter to Walter Winchell, dated 11/26/63. Ed Rudy alleged that several individuals in New York are acquainted with Jack Ruby. He furnished the names of these individuals and included a handwritten note on the letter which reads as follows: "Dear Mr. Winchell, I hope that you can use this. No one else has broken this angle, yet. Thanks - Ed Rudy."

In the letter he stated that the FBI, Secret Service and the "New York and Texas gendarmes" are apparently unaware of Ruby's frequent trips to New York and his many friends and acquaintances in and around the show business crowd.
