ReSAairtel 12/463.

Enclosed for Norfolk is one copy of referenced airtel.

On 12/6/63, Lieutenant Commander PETER G. BROWN, Duty Officer, Bureau of Personnel, Department of Navy, advised that Commander CHARLES LEON NAGLE was under transfer to the Office of Navy Comptroller, Executive Office of the Secretary of Navy, Washington, D. C. He advised that he could be contacted through the duty officer in that office.

On 12/7/63, Yeoman DONALD W. ROMINES, Duty Officer, Executive Office of Secretary of Navy, advised SA ROBERT W. DAWSON that he could locate no record for NAGLE.

On 12/7/63 Lieutenant Commander BROWN, above, advised that records of Bureau of Personnel reflect NAGLE was attached to Comphiblant, Norfolk, Va., but was detached during November, 1963 and ordered to report to Office of Navy, Comptroller, Washington, D. C. He stated that NAGLE could have left on any date during the month and may have left later in the month. NAGLE should have advised both his old commander and his new commander of any address where he might delay en route. He suggested that since Office of Navy, Comptroller, does not have any record for Nagle that Comphiblant, Norfolk be contacted.
