

Chicago, Ill.

Gentlemen:

There is an Attorney in Lafayette, Indiana who told Reporters in Lafayette about having dealings with this Man, Jack Ruby who killed the President's assassin, when he lived in Chicago.

The Attorney name is Frederick Hoffman. a practicing Attorney in Lafayette.

Mr. Hoffman represented one of his clients who rented his building to this man who calls himself Ruby now but who retained his real name of Rubin when he was a resident in Chicago.

Mr. Hoffman went to see this Ruby to see if he leave and collect partial rent in advance. He said, "Ruby was a real shady character" for the he paid to Hoffman, they went to an apartment to Rubin's mother and found where in it he brought out $15,000 in cash. Also there was a woman and man child which appeared to be Rubin's wife. The apartment was in the poorest neighborhood and every article in it could have been bought for $50.00 or less. This man Ruby does no business except in cash.

He probably lived like that to fool the Internal Revenue Department and to fool so called robbers and gangsters from robbing him. When the little man working for $1.00 an hour how to pay all the debts taken from his wages, the shady character should have
