She further furnished RUBY's year of birth as 1913.

Records of MRCA reflect a credit report from Chicago, Illinois, dated July, 1955, indicating that he had been known to their office since December, 1953. Chicago's report reflected wife PHYLLIS was only known dependent and that RUBY was employed at Earl Products Novelty Concern since 1943 as a partner. Estimated annual income of this concern was $10,000.00. Report further showed RUBY to be renting a home while living in that area.

A source of the Chicago credit office furnished information to the effect that RUBY's brother was his partner in the Earl Products concern and that this business was well established inasmuch as the company's financial rating was in excess of $50,000.00. The only known bank account of the Earl Products Novelty company was a four-figure balance which was closed in March, 1955. Records of the credit association did not furnish a specific bank.
