RE: Cincinnati airtel dated 12-3-63.

POSSIBLE ACTIVITY BY RUBY IN FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE
FPCC

Referenced Cincinnati airtel is concerned with an anonymous communication postmarked Cincinnati, 12-2-63, by which the writer encircled the picture of a man whom the writer believed bears a "striking resemblance to Jack Ruby" among a group of persons affiliated with FPCC, who were picketing the UN Building in April, 1961.

The New York Office by airtel dated 12-6-63, transmitted to Dallas two blown up photos taken 4-13-61, which corresponded with the photo received from the anonymous correspondent. The individual whose picture was encircled by the anonymous correspondent bears no resemblance to RUBY in the opinion of Agents in the Dallas Office who have observed photos of RUBY taken 11-24-63, following his arrest.

The photos transmitted by the New York Office are being returned to New York with the request sources familiar with activities of FPCC be contacted in an effort to positively identify the individual in question. In the event he is identified with some person other than RUBY, the New York Office should follow through in connection with any security-type investigation which is warranted, since the photos would be of no further interest in the RUBY case.
