

SUMMARY FROM FRENCH

A half-page handwritten note, dated 11/29/63, and addressed to the FBI from "R. G.", Paris (no return address given).

* * *

The writer, a "small business man" has an idea that Ruby "suppressed" Oswald in order to silence him, knowing that Oswald was not the assassin or, at least, not the only one. While the police believed Oswald to be the guilty party, the actual assassin "saved his skin."
