With respect to MATTY BRESCIA of Memphis, Tennessee, who was interviewed regarding his acquaintanceship with JACK L. RUBY, the following should be noted:

In an investigation entitled, "LEW FARRELL, with Alias Louis Farrell, etc., ANTI-RACKETEERING," Omaha Office of Origin, Bureau file 92-3185, the name of MATTY BRESCIA, 1235 West Perkins Road, Memphis, Tennessee, has appeared as having associated with FARRELL in Des Moines, Iowa, during June of 1958. FARRELL was described in this investigation as a Top Hoodlum of the Omaha Office, residing at Des Moines, Iowa. FARRELL originated in Chicago where he was considered on the fringes of the CAPONE mob and moved to Des Moines about 1939, where he commenced operation as a beer distributor, backed gambling activities and established connections with hoodlums in other Mid-Western cities. It was reported in recent years FARRELL had moved into the labor union field and demonstrated influence and friendship in the Teamster Union ranks, including his alleged close association with Teamster leader JAMES HOFFA.

BRESCIA, it was developed during this investigation, had numerous contacts with FARRELL in person and by telephone. The nature of these contacts were not developed and BRESCIA was not interviewed in that investigation in view of the instructions limiting the nature of the investigation, based upon FARRELL's labor connections.
