 CHARLES ~~MILLER~~¹⁰¹, Clerk and Messenger, "Dallas Morning News", advised he has been casually acquainted with JACK RUBY for about the past year in connection with RUBY, coming to the paper to place ads. He has never developed a personal acquaintanceship with RUBY and is not aware of his friends, associates, or habits.

MILLER stated he has been in the Carousel Club about three times during the past year. On several of the occasions, RUBY would write him an informal pass to attend the club while RUBY was at the paper to place an ad.

About six weeks or so ago, the last time that he saw RUBY at the newspaper, RUBY issued him a Carousel Club pass card number 138 sealed in plastic.

On the night of Thursday, November 21, 1963, he and ROBERT LANDERS, another employee, went to the Carousel Club with their passes. They did not talk with RUBY at the club, but saw him there. During an intermission, RUBY was at the microphone on the stage giving away prizes. There was a man in the audience who appeared to be intoxicated, who was creating a disturbance by using dirty language, telling RUBY to get the prizes over with and to bring on the girls. RUBY told the man to behave, which the man refused to do. RUBY made a statement something to the effect that he wanted to "flip a coin with the man to pay for the furniture that would be busted if the man did not leave the place." The man then left the club at RUBY's insistence peacefully and RUBY did not have to use any force to eject him. RUBY then apologized to the audience for the disturbance and the show continued.

MILLER was not acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD, knew of no association between OSWALD and RUBY and knew of no association by other individuals with these two men in connection with the shootings.
