The records of Western Union Telegraph Company, 2034 Main Street, Dallas, Texas, reflect the following information:

Western Union (WU) records were checked for the period June 1, 1963, through November 30, 1963. These records were checked against money orders received by JACK LEON RUBY, also known as Jack Leon Rubenstein, and nickname "SPARKY," with check being made on variations of these names as to initials and first names. Records were also examined for money orders received by RUBY at WU, Dallas. A check was also made for messages sent by RUBY from Dallas. WU does not keep any record of messages received by a person with the exception of the messages set forth below, which it was possible for WU to trace to RUBY as the recipient of the message.

The records were negative regarding money orders sent by JACK RUBY from WU, Dallas, with the exception of a money order sent by JACK RUBY on November 24, 1963, at 11:16 AM, which money order was directed to KAREN BENNETT, care of Western Union Office, Fort Worth, Texas. Details regarding this money order previously obtained and set forth in FBI report. WU records did contain the following information concerning messages sent by JACK RUBY:

On May 28, 1963, RUBY sent the following message to "Eddie Kaplan Agency, 1564 Broadway, New York City." The message was signed "JACK RUBY."

On June 15, 1963, at 5:06 AM, the following message was sent to "M. J. TANNENBAUM, 6027 Chef Menteur, New Orleans, Louisiana." The message read as follows:

"Confirming contract for JADA to appear at the Carousel Club, Dallas, Texas, June 28 - July 13, 1963, with three consecutive two-week options. Salary at $550. This telegram will constitute a true and real contract, regardless of any other contract in existence. Sincerely." The message was signed "JACK RUBY."

On August 8, 1963, at 1:50 AM, the following message was sent to BOBBY FAYE, National Administrator, care of American Guild of Variety Artists, 551 5th Avenue, New York City. Message read as follows:

"Dear BOBBY. In spite of our recent discussion regarding the stop order on the amateur auditions, no effort is being made to discontinue same in Dallas. In defiance of your direct order dated July 29th and also following with a wire from your local office from TOM PALMER, dated July 30th, advertisements are still running for this week end for audition. I am relying on your good judgment in this matter. Thanks again for your kindness and consideration for me on my visit. Best regards to Miss ROSALER. Sincerely." Message was signed "JACK RUBY."

The following message was sent to Doctor and Mrs. COLEMAN JACOBSON, care of Mrs. OSCAR NEWMAN, 12 72nd Street, New York City. The message was sent at 9:37 AM, October 29, 1963. Message read as follows:

"We wish to express our sincere sympathy in your great loss." This message was signed, "JACK RUBY and EVE GRANT."

On November 7, 1963, at 5:25 AM, the following message was sent by WU to "BILL DEMAR, Case Mia Motel, Wichita, Kansas." Message read as follows:

"Confirming your wire November 7th. $187 per week for six weeks. Continuous shows starting November 11th. Sincerely." Message signed "JACK RUBY."

Examination of WU records at Dallas revealed the following message was delivered to JACK RUBY on November 13, 1963. It was possible for WU to locate this message since RUBY asked for a report of delivery, which was kept on file in the WU Office, Dallas. The message directed to JACK RUBY read as follows:

"Continuous show policy must discontinue upon receipt of this wire or a relief Master of Ceremonies or act providing the prescribed 45 minute break per AGVA rules and regulations be substituted." This message was signed "TOM PALMER, Dallas Manager, AGVA."

The records of Western Union (WU) Telegraph Company, 2034 Main Street, Dallas, Texas, reflect the following information:

On November 24, 1963, at 12:35 PM, Pacific Standard Time, one PAUL L. COWPERTHWAITTE, Los Angeles, California, sent a money order message to JACK RUBY, care of City Jail, Dallas, Texas. This message read as follows:

"Congratulations for eliminating a rat and doing the country a service. Money is to help procure a lawyer." In this money order message, COWPERTHWAITTE sent RUBY $10.

On November 24, 1963, at 1:28 PM, Eastern Standard Time, one FRANK DRAGOTTA, 27 Gail Drive, Monmouth Beach, New Jersey, sent a money order message to "JACK RUBBIN," Dallas Police Station, Dallas, Texas. The message was posted at 1:28 PM, Eastern Standard Time, from Asbury Park, New Jersey. In the message, DRAGOTTA stated as follows:

"Get yourself a lawyer with this. Will send all you need." In this message, DRAGOTTA sent RUBY $100.

WU records reflect on November 25, 1963, the WU office at Asbury Park, New Jersey, sent the WU office, Dallas, Texas, a follow-up on the DRAGOTTA message in which the following information was furnished: It was stated DRAGOTTA entered the WU office at Asbury Park, New Jersey, at which time he asked for rates on money messages to Texas. DRAGOTTA was asked the destination city, at which time he declined to furnish the identity of the destination city. After receiving a rate quoted him by the WU clerk, DRAGOTTA completed his money order application, placed it face down on the counter at the WU office, along with $110, after which he left the WU office hurriedly. When WU discovered DRAGOTTA had been overcharged, DRAGOTTA was contacted by telephone at 27 Gail Drive, Monmouth Beach, New Jersey, and DRAGOTTA instructed WU to send the overcharge to him at 27 Gail Drive, Monmouth Beach, New Jersey.

On November 24, 1963, at 3:41 PM, one J. D. HARRISON posted the following message at WU, Ann Arbor, Michigan, addressed to JACK RUBY, Dallas, Texas:

"For your legal defense." HARRISON sent RUBY $5 in this money order message.

WU Telegraph Company records failed to reflect RUBY received any additional money order messages, under his true name or other known names, between the period June 1, 1963, to November 30, 1963. Money order messages received were checked for his address at 1312 1/2 Commerce Street, Dallas, the address of the Carousel Club; 3508 Oaklawn, Dallas, the address of the Vegas Club; and 223 South Ewing Street, Dallas, RUBY's home address. WU records were negative regarding money orders sent by RUBY under his true name or other names, between June 1, 1963, and August 31, 1963. These records had previously been checked for sent money orders between the period September 1 and November 24, 1963, with results set forth in previous of-WU records.

The above information should not be made public prior to being properly secured through the issuance of a subpoena duces tecum, which should be directed to Mr. L. R. WILCOX, District Manager, Western Union Telegraph Company, 2034 Main Street, Dallas, Texas.

Date December 18, 1963

PAUL J. DORFMAN, 1221 North LaSalle Street, Chicago, Illinois, advised as follows:

DORFMAN had never known JACK L. RUBENSTEIN by the name JACK RUBY. His first knowledge that JACK RUBY had changed his name from RUBENSTEIN to RUBY was when he was so advised by IRV KUPCINET, Chicago Sun Times columnist, who telephoned DORFMAN in Palm Springs, California. DORFMAN was amazed when he was told by KUPCINET that it was RUBY who had killed LEE OSWALD. DORFMAN had seen the shooting of OSWALD on television but did not recognize RUBY as the RUBENSTEIN whom he had known.

DORFMAN has never considered RUBY as a friend or associate because he, DORFMAN, who is 62 years of age, was probably 12 or more years older than RUBY. He first knew RUBY as a "neighborhood kid" who lived with his parents on Chicago's West Side, somewhere on Independence Boulevard. DORFMAN could not recall the name of any school RUBY may have attended nor the name of his parents, other than their last name was RUBENSTEIN. DORFMAN could recall no names of RUBY's associates, relatives, employments or neighbors. DORFMAN has not seen RUBY since about 1940, except maybe "a couple of times" when he had seen him on the street. The last time he saw RUBY was about 15 years ago and he only learned through RUBY's brother, that RUBY had gone to Dallas, Texas, and was running a cabaret.

About 1940, RUBY was working as an organizer for the Chicago Waste Material Handlers Union. He had been originally employed by JACK MARTIN who was then president of the union. DORFMAN does not know MARTIN's present whereabouts, but MARTIN used to work for the Chicago Sanitary District.

To DORFMAN's knowledge, RUBY was never a salaried employee of the union but probably drew some expense money from collected dues. RUBY was not a successful organizer and finally voluntarily left his employment with the union in 1940, about two months after DORFMAN was appointed to run it. RUBY probably left this employment because he was not making any money. There was only about $.06 in the treasury when DORFMAN "took over". DORFMAN even had to take $15 out of his own pocket to pay the salary of a female employee, whose name he cannot recall.

DORFMAN considered RUBY to be an emotional type of person who was either easily excitable or not capable of dealing with people. As an example, when RUBY was with the union, he would become personally concerned and involved with complainants to a degree that he became very excited over matters which did not appear to be important.

The only other persons who may have known RUBY in the union were JOE BRIEGLE (Ph) and HARRY O'REILLY (Ph), both now deceased who were Regional Directors of the Union.

DORFMAN was appointed by BRIEGLE in about 1940 to head the Union. This occurred after an argument between MARTIN, who was president of the Union and his organizer LEON COOKE, which resulted in MARTIN shooting COOKE, who subsequently died. According to DORFMAN, COOKE was a man about 25 years younger than MARTIN, and when COOKE assaulted MARTIN, MARTIN shot him in self-defense. MARTIN was tried in a Chicago Court and was found not guilty because the shooting was in self-defense.

MARINA OSWALD was interviewed at 11611 Farrar Street. Dallas, Texas Russia

A faded blue cloth jacket with padding bearing label "Sir Jac" with zipper front was exhibited to MARINA. She immediately identified this jacket as being the property of her husband, LEE HARVEY OSWALD. She said she recognized the jacket because she has handled it and washed it for OSWALD. Texas, Russia

MARINA was further questioned concerning JOE R. FRANKLIN, who is presently confined at the Texas Department of Corrections at Huntsville, Texas. She reiterated she does not know this person and that she does not believe OSWALD ever knew him. She said in October, 1962, she was residing either at Mercedes Street in Fort Worth or in the homes of friends in Dallas. She did not reside in the Oak Cliff section during the period of October, 1962. She recalls living in a white frame house with a front porch, but this was located on Mercedes Street in Fort Worth. It was a duplex. The people who lived on the other side were a young couple. The woman was pregnant. MARINA does not recall she and OSWALD having any neighbor identified as an older woman who might have caused trouble between MARINA and OSWALD. She does not recall OSWALD ever bringing a man to her house either on Mercedes Street or where she was living with friends in Dallas. She said she does not recall any occasion when she walked from her house to a car with OSWALD and thereafter OSWALD got in the car and drove off with a man.

MARINA advised that to her knowledge she has never heard of the Texas Import-Export Company of Fort Worth, Texas. She said she has had no employment in the United States, nor has she been connected with any mercantile or commercial enterprise. She does not recall OSWALD being connected with any concern by this name.

MARINA said she knows of no Russian officials or intelligence officers that OSWALD contacted in Russia with the exception of those individuals he may have contacted for the purpose of obtaining the necessary documentation relating to his stay in Russia or his subsequent departure with her.

Possible
She advised of further information concerning Col. NICOLAI AKSIONOV. She had a girl friend whose boy friend was a distant relative of AKSIONOV. This girl friend and her boy friend did on occasions visit the OSWALDs at their apartment. She recalls this boy mentioning the AKSIONOVs. She recalls he mentioned on one occasion that AKSIONOV's wife had had an affair with another man. She said that this boy had several conversations with OSWALD out of her hearing, and it is entirely possible he may have furnished other facts concerning the background and family of AKSIONOV without her knowledge.

MARINA said she was not interested in conversing on political matters with OSWALD. Whenever he began a conversation along these lines, she would simply tell him that she was not interested. She recalls telling him in New Orleans at the time he was passing out the "Hands Off Cuba" circulars that no one would join his movement as most people had families and had to take care of them. She recalls telling OSWALD that the United States is a rich country and that almost everyone owns a home and OSWALD could not promise land or other things and thereby gain followers.

By letter dated December 17, 1963, JEROME A. PERLES of the law firm Perlès, Cohen, Estrow, Kleefeld and Lavy, 501 Madison Avenue, New York, New York, advised that sometime prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY and the shooting of OSWALD, they had been asked to represent Mr. EDDY ROCCO, who is a photographer. The letter further stated that on November 24, 1963, their client had sold two photographs of JACK RUBY to the Associated Press and on November 25, 1963, certain photographs of JACK RUBENSTEIN and two photographs "which show the interior of the Carousel Club in Dallas" and "the contents of EDDY ROCCO's interview with said JACK RUBENSTEIN" were sold to Life magazine.

The letter further stated that ROCCO resides in Hollywood, California, travels on assignments and free-lance work. Therefore, they did not want to waste the Bureau's time but thought there was a possibility that their client might be of help to the Bureau.

Date 12/26/63

Mr. EDWARD ROCCO, generally known as EDDY ROCCO, advised that he resides at 1350 North Laurel Avenue, Hollywood, California. He is presently visiting his father-in-law in Dallas, Texas. ROCCO stated that he had known of JACK RUBY for approximately two years, but he first met the RUBY on approximately the fifth or sixth of November, 1963. He stated in the nature of his business he travels around the country, interviews owners and performers in various night clubs and other similar places of entertainment. He said that he had had correspondence with RUBY approximately two years ago when RUBY tried to get him to do a story on RUBY. He stated he decided not to do it at that time.

He stated that when he came here to do a profile on RUBY, which was on either the fifth or sixth of November, 1963, he was down at the Carousel Club for six or seven nights consecutively. He stated he talked to RUBY every night and also talked to several of the entertainers in the club. He stated his conversation with RUBY consisted of personal things about RUBY in connection with his show business.

ROCCO advised he had never heard of OSWALD prior to the time of the shooting. He had never heard any conversation pertaining to RUBY and OSWALD and did not know any of RUBY's associates other than those who were working for him as entertainers in the club at the time he was there. ROCCO further stated that he had taken two pictures of the interior of the Carousel and that Life magazine had these negatives. He said they were presently threatening to sue him because he was not supposed to show any pictures or make any comments to anyone outside of Life magazine.

ROCCO did not discuss anything else pertaining to the suit but did state that KATHRYN LEE or NATALIE ROSEK were both members of Life News Bureau and they would be the ones to contact in the event anyone wanted to observe these pictures.

ROCCO mentioned the pictures because he stated that when he was in New Orleans a few weeks ago, a photographer TERRY FRIEDMAN, with the "Times Picayune" had told him that the man in the plaid shirt in one of these pictures looked like OSWALD to him. ROCCO made available one of these pictures for reproduction. This picture shows approximately twenty-some people apparently looking at one of the entertainers although this cannot be told by looking at the picture. The man in the near foreground with what appears to be a plaid or large-checked shirt on is the one which FRIEDMAN thought might be OSWALD. ROCCO stated that a man whose name he cannot recall operates a flower shop on Canal Street, quite a way out, was reported to have known OSWALD. ROCCO stated that he went out and talked to this man and the man admitted that he had known OSWALD when OSWALD was about fourteen or fifteen years old. He stated that he had not seen OSWALD for nine years and upon seeing the picture stated that, in his opinion, the man in the picture was not OSWALD although he could not be sure of anything since he had not seen OSWALD for approximately nine years as mentioned previously. ROCCO further stated that at the time he went out to the flower shop to talk to this man, two FBI agents were interviewing the man and he had waited until they had finished before he showed the picture to this man. ROCCO stated that if the man in the picture were OSWALD, it would mean a great deal of money to him but he was convinced in his own mind that the man referred to was not OSWALD but he wanted to relate the matter to the FBI. ROCCO stated that as mentioned above both of the pictures of the interior were approximately from the same angle, therefore, he was of the opinion that the picture which he allowed the FBI to reproduce would show approximately the same that could be seen in the negatives that Life magazine has in their possession.

SA ROBERT M. BARRETT, after having viewed photographs made available by EDWARD ROCCO, 1350 North Laurel Avenue, Hollywood, California, which were taken in the Carousel Club and depicting a person believed by Mr. ROCCO to be LEE HARVEY OSWALD, is of the definite opinion that this person is not OSWALD.

SA BARRETT personally observed OSWALD on the afternoon of November 22, 1963, in the Texas Theater when, along with several other police officers, he assisted in the apprehension of OSWALD.

Special Agent MANNING C. CLEMENTS has observed a photograph purportedly taken on or about November 5, 1963, in the Carousel Club, Dallas, Texas, by EDWARD ROCCO. This photograph is of a group of individuals, predominantly male. Special Agent CLEMENTS is advised that a person on viewing the photograph has stated the individual in the center foreground bears a strong resemblance to LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Special Agent CLEMENTS interviewed LEE HARVEY OSWALD on November 22, 1963, at the Dallas Police Department. Agent states unequivocally the photograph bears no resemblance, in his opinion, to OSWALD.
