Dear Mr. Rankin:

Pursuant to your request, I am enclosing herewith the income tax return of Jack L. Ruby for the year 1959. I am also enclosing the income tax returns of Earl R. Ruby for the years 1958 through 1960. The Internal Revenue Service has advised that the return of Earl R. Ruby for the year 1955 has been destroyed.

The income tax returns were furnished to the FBI through liaison arrangements with the Internal Revenue Service, and it is suggested that you contact the Internal Revenue Service prior to any public disclosure of their contents.

All income tax returns requested by you concerning Jack L. Ruby, his relatives and associates have now been furnished to you. No effort will be made to obtain additional returns relating to Jack L. Ruby unless specifically requested.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover
