Item 10. The description of Jack L. Ruby which was obtained when he was contacted by Special Agent Charles W. Flynn on March 11, 1959.

As you were previously advised in my letter of February 27, 1964, Ruby was contacted by an Agent of the Dallas Office on March 11, 1959, in view of his position as a night club operator who might have knowledge of the criminal element. He was advised of the Bureau's jurisdiction in criminal matters and he expressed a willingness to furnish information. He was subsequently contacted by an Agent on April 28, June 5 and 18, July 7 and 21, August 6 and 31, and October 2, 1959. He did not furnish any information and further contacts with him were discontinued.

Honorable J. Lee Rankin

These contacts were recorded only by date along with notations indicating Ruby had not furnished any information. There is no information recorded that was furnished by Ruby in connection with any of these contacts. Ruby was never paid any money and he was never, at any time, an informant of this Bureau.

As you will note, the information pertaining strictly to Ruby was excerpted from the above-listed items and furnished to you in the report of Special Agent Manning C. Clements at Dallas dated November 30, 1963. As the items basically contain information pertaining to other unrelated investigative matters such of which was furnished to this Bureau in confidence, it is requested that the President's Commission continue to maintain this information in the same confidence that it was initially furnished.

Sincerely yours,

Item 2

During the course of an investigation concerning Ralph Eugene Young, which related to a possible violation of the Atomic Energy Act, the following interview was conducted wherein Jack Ruby was mentioned:

A confidential source exhibited the records of the Ambassador Hotel which reflected that Ralph E. Young, 3110 North Clybourn, Chicago, Illinois, was registered in apartment 321. His registration card under remarks reflected that he was connected with the John E. Wahl Engineering Company and Russ Products Company. He had registered at said hotel on August 27, 1950.

The source stated that Young had been brought to Dallas along with R. M. Piper, Fred N. Ruic, Charles Campbell, Donald Henry Mars, Leo Stukas, and Pat Henry Roethe by L. A. Robinson, 4051 LaPorte Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, who was a representative of the John E. Wahl Company. It was the source's understanding that these individuals had been brought to Dallas by Robinson for employment with the Chance Vought Aircraft Company.

The source advised that Piper was a very close associate of Young's and in fact had roomed with Young at the hotel for some time. He stated that none of the above-mentioned individuals with the exception of Young was still registered with the hotel.

The source found a forwarding address for Fred N. Ruic dated September 17, 1950, which reflected he was presently residing in Apartment A, 2112 St. Malo, Dallas, Texas.

The source advised that Joyce Skillman was registered in room 207 and he subsequently reported that she checked out at 2:30 p.m., on October 3, 1950, with M. C. Black. Black's registration card reflected he had registered at said hotel on October 1, 1950, and gave his address as 772 South Los Angeles Street, Los Angeles, California.

At the time Skillman left the hotel she gave the assistant manager of the hotel an envelope containing handwritten note which was addressed to Young. A copy of said note and the original envelope containing same which was addressed to Young are being maintained by the Dallas Division.

Said note is as follows:

"Ralph, the company is Utah Leavell Construction Company, Los Alamos, New Mexico. Hopkins can be reached at: White Electric, Haskell Avenue, Dallas. I am going to Oklahoma City. Will arrive Santa Fe Sunday night. Will call or write you further information.

/s/ Joyce"

The back of the letter contained the following:

"Did not get to talk to Hopkins so if you call him don't mention any connection with me. Will send all information as quickly as obtained."

The source furnished the following telephone calls from Young's room 321 for September 25 through October 3, 1950. Listings for the telephone numbers were obtained from another confidential source.

Item 3

In connection with certain information concerning James Breen which was forwarded to our Dallas Office from our Los Angeles Office by communication dated March 20, 1956, the following interview with Bunny Breen, whose true name is Eileen Curry, is set forth.

On March 18, 1956, Bunny Breen, presently known as Carol Connor, requested the Los Angeles Office to have Special Agent Ambrose K. Law call her collect at Davis 74784, Dallas, Texas. She had been interviewed twice for information she might furnish in the case entitled "Unknown Subject, Abraham Davidian - Victim. Obstruction of Justice." She was acting as was James Breen as informants for the Federal Narcotics Bureau and the Los Angeles Police Department Vice Squad. She indicated she had formerly been with Stanley Adams, a subject in this case. Bunny, at that time, was operating a house of prostitution in Los Angeles on a call girl basis. She furnished no information of particular significance. James Breen was interviewed two or three times as a possible prospective confidential source, but both were constantly in trouble with local authorities and contact could not be maintained with them. Bunny, on March 18, 1956, advised she and James had jumped a local bond on narcotics charges about the first of the year and gone to Dallas. James was driving a cab for the City Transportation Company, and she was apparently operating in some branch of the prostitution racket. Bunny was told by James he had made connection with large narcotics setup operating between Mexico, Texas and the East. James made several trips and returned. He left about three weeks ago and has not returned. He purposely did not give details so she could not get into trouble. He took his clothes about three weeks ago and said he was going on another trip. She heard later that he had left her but heard also from a bondsman named Schott this was not true and that James had contacted him and asked him to look out for her if she got into any trouble. She believes James made connections with the narcotics ring through a former associate from Seagoville Prison where James served time. In some fashion James got the okay to operate through Jack Ruby of Dallas. Several days ago, one Jack (last name unknown) of Houston came to see Bunny with one Gordon Winter of Houston, a friend of hers and James. Jack told her that James was trying to hijack a 300 to 400 thousand load of narcotics from Mexico and was going to try to go with another distribution setup. Jack questioned her as to whether she had information regarding James' whereabouts and threatened her if she was withholding information about James. Also, he stated his life would not be worth anything if he was trying to double-cross the group. Bunny fears James has been killed or kidnapped and wanted to talk to someone she could trust.

Item 5

There is set forth as follows an interview with a confidential source of the Dallas Office wherein Jack Ruby was mentioned.

On September 7, 1961, a confidential source was contacted by Special Agents Richard E. Harrison and Robert P. Gemberling at Room 214, Dallas Hotel, Dallas, Texas. The source refused to talk with Agents out of the presence of a girl friend, Helen Agnew, stating that Helen knew everything she did.

The source stated she had come to Dallas on September 5, 1961, from Shreveport, Louisiana, in her 1959 Corvette bearing Louisiana license plates, number unknown, accompanied by Helen Agnew who, she stated, uses the name Helen Axenfield, and a girl by the name of Bethel "Babs" Kramer or Cramer.

The source stated she owns the Hi Lo Bar, 1900 East Texas Street, Bossier City, Louisiana, and the Little Hangar Bar, 2464 Barksdale Boulevard, Bossier City, Louisiana. She stated she has a mother who lives in Shreveport and a son in school there.

The source stated that Helen Agnew, who described herself as a white female, born December 1, 1941, at Omaha, Nebraska, 5 feet 2 inches, 111 pounds, green eyes, blond hair, was working at the Little Hangar Bar, and that Bethel Kramer had been working at Joe's Studio Steak House at Bossier City, Louisiana, as a waitress and was going to work for her, but she ascertained Kramer was not 18 years of age and for this reason she and her girl friend, Helen Agnew, did not desire to have her living or associating with them at Bossier City, Louisiana.

The source stated she and Helen Agnew had brought Bethel to Dallas in an effort to obtain a job for her as they did not want her with them at Bossier City because the source stated she and "her girls" always share everything. She stated she obtained a job for Bethel through Jack Ruby as a stripper at Ruby's Carousel Club. She stated that Bethel would be staying with the Carousel bartender and his wife.

APR 11 1964

She described Bethel merely as a white female who would be 18 years of age on December 21, 1961, who had been in reform school, had had an illegitimate child and was "a big liar." The source stated she understands Jack Ruby is going to obtain identification for Bethel reflecting she is 21 years of age.

This information was made known on September 8, 1961, to Detective Morris Brumley, Special Service Bureau, Dallas Police Department, Dallas, Texas.

The source stated that she was returning to Shreveport, Louisiana, on the evening of September 7, 1961, and would likely return to Detroit, Michigan, in about a week. She stated the purpose of her trip from Shreveport, Louisiana, to Dallas was to try and buy some "hot furs" for she and "her girls" but that she had not been able to make any contacts. She indicated that she had assisted the FBI in Detroit, had operated houses of prostitution in Detroit, and that she had only been arrested on one occasion and this arrest did not result in a conviction. She denied that her operations at Bossier City, Louisiana, represented the operation of a house of prostitution and stated she was considered a reputable citizen in Greenwood, Louisiana, where she has a home run by a housekeeper.

The source stated that she had no information at this time that would be of interest to the FBI except that she considered Merle Kimblery, who runs Sak's, Bossier City, a pimp and stated that he has advertised in Dallas newspapers for waitresses offering $175.00 per week.

Item 6

There is set forth as follows an interview with Jean Bostick on September 25, 1961, wherein Jack Ruby was mentioned.

On September 25, 1961, Jean Bostick, cashier, Carousel Club, 1312 Commerce Street, telephone number RI 7-2367, home address 117 North Adams, no home phone, Dallas, Texas, telephonically advised that "Babs" Axenfield (Bethel Kramer) was presently residing with her and Harvey Bostick, bartender at the Carousel Club, at 117 North Adams.

Jean Bostick stated that a person named Jimmy Myers told her on September 24 that the FBI was looking for "Babs" Axenfield. Bostick stated that she did not want to have anyone living with her if she was wanted and wished to report "Babs" location. Bostick stated that "Babs" is presently employed by Jack Ruby, owner of the Carousel Club, as a waitress. "Babs" has been employed there for approximately two weeks.

Bostick was advised that the FBI was not looking for Axenfield at the present time, but that we might receive a request to locate her at any time.

Item 7

There is set forth as follows an interview with Mrs. Sue Brown on November 13, 1962, wherein it was mentioned that a brother of Eva Grant at that time owned and operated the Carousel Night Club in Dallas.

On November 13, 1962, Mrs. Sue Brown, 5319 Phillips, Dallas, Texas, telephone number TAYlor 4-2925, advised Special Agent W. Harlan Brown that Eva Grant operates the Vegas Club in Dallas. She said that she had received information from her sister that Eva Grant was formerly connected with the Al Capone Gang in Chicago, Illinois. Mrs. Brown stated that a brother of Eva Grant currently owns and operates the Carousel Night Club in Dallas. She stated that recently she had been with Eva Grant, who formerly operated the Singapore Night Club in Dallas, and stayed overnight with her on one occasion. She subsequently learned that Eva Grant reported that a diamond in one of her rings was missing and as a consequence she was one of the suspects in the alleged theft of this diamond. A Dallas detective with the Burglary and Theft Bureau contacted her and questioned her concerning the missing diamond, she stated, and requested that she take a lie detector test. She stated that she was willing to take this test but upon talking to her attorney she was told by him that tests of this kind were inconclusive and advised her not to take such a test. She advised that Eva Grant spent sometime in Chicago where her family still resides and had also lived on the West Coast. She has been in Dallas for about two or three years, the last time becoming involved during the war years in the illegal sale of sugar stamps which led to the conviction of a man named Jones who was associated with her.

She described Eva Grant as follows:

Race:	White
Sex:	Female
Age:	52 or 53
Weight:	145-150
Height:	5'7"
Eyes:	Brown
Hair:	Dark red
Complexion:	Fair

On August 11, 1953, Special Agent Ralph J. Miles chanced to be in the office of Vincent Lee, Branch Manager, American Guild of Variety Artists, 1818 Live Oak Street, Dallas, Texas, on official business. An individual later identified by Mr. Lee as Jack Ruby, operator of the Silver Spur, 1717 South Ervay Street, Dallas, Texas, came blustering into Lee's office. Ruby demanded of Lee that Lee supply Ruby with some "girls" to put on entertainment at his Silver Spur. Lee told Ruby that Ruby would have to put up a cash bond to guarantee the girls' salary whereupon Ruby began to curse Lee, claiming that he was short on money and that Lee did not make his, Ruby's, competitors put up such a cash bond. Lee maintained that he still could not furnish girl entertainers to Ruby unless Ruby put up some cash at which time Ruby arose and in a threatening tone of voice asked Lee: "Do you want to know whether or not I'm packing a gun?", and "What are you trying to do, be a tough guy in Dallas? Well, I'm just as tough as they come" or words to that effect.

After Ruby stormed out of Lee's office, cursing all the while, Lee confidentially advised Special Agent Miles that Ruby considered himself a very tough Dallas character and was an associate of Joe Bonds, operator of the Sky Club, who was also a "tough" character who bore a grudge against Lee because Lee one time attempted to collect a $700.00 bad check Bonds had given a girl entertainer at which time either Bonds or one of his henchmen had struck Lee across the forehead with a pistol. Lee continued that both Ruby and Bonds always carried concealed pistols and were in constant association with James Robert Todd, better known as Jack Todd, FBI number 1805833, Dallas Police Department number 22255, a well-known Dallas safe-cracker. Lee informed that Ruby, Bonds and Todd, together with other hoodlums and safe-crackers, whose identities were unknown to Lee, usually hung around Sue's Used Car Lot, 3400 Live Oak, Dallas, Texas.

On May 31, 1961, a confidential source was interviewed and advised that she suspects Betty Crosby, the girl friend of the owner of the Holiday Bar, 1212A Main Street, Dallas, and who also is the day bartender at that bar, is practicing prostitution or lining up other girls for dates of prostitution. She stated that Betty is constantly on the telephone at the Holiday Bar during the day, both making calls and receiving calls. She stated that Betty has telephone number AD 5-4650 (listed to E. C. Tanner, 305 Dover Drive, Richardson). She stated that the owner of the Holiday Bar, Cliff Hunsaker, supposedly has a ranch in Oklahoma and that Betty frequently makes several trips a week, stating she is going to Oklahoma with Cliff Hunsaker. She stated that Betty Crosby recently bought a new house in Richardson, Texas, and drives a late model blue colored automobile, make unknown. She stated that the Holiday Bar bank account is maintained at the First National Bank, Dallas, Texas. She stated that Betty has a sister, Rosemary Brewer, who is married to a Buddy Brewer. Rosemary's home telephone number is AD 5-1395 (listed to Lois Jetty, 323 Vista Vista, Richardson). She stated that Rosemary formerly worked at the Cowgirl Bar on Commerce Street and later at Victor's Lounge on Commerce Street across from the Statler Hilton Hotel.

The source stated that Jack Ruby is the owner of the Carousel Club located at Commerce and Field Streets and that he formerly operated the Roundup Club on South Ervay Street and at one time ran the Vegas Club on Oak Lawn. She stated that she knows Jack Ruby and that he is "no good." She stated that he will not permit a girl to work for him unless she is intimate with him.

The source stated she is acquainted with the lady called "Zela" who is the bartender at the Zoo Bar on Commerce Street and who appears to be the boss over the other girls employed as waitresses there. She stated that Zela has recently mentioned to her that she would like her to come to work there. The source stated she had no specific information that would indicate that any of the waitresses at the Zoo Bar were prostituting or that Zela was steering customers to the waitresses for dates of prostitution. She stated Bob Russell is the owner of the Zoo Bar. She stated Zela was formerly married to one Joe Slayton who owns the Orleans Room on Commerce Street which has recently been made into a private club.

The source stated that Penny Pennington, 5306 Gaston, Dallas, Texas, who is approximately 36 or 37 years of age, has two girls who rent apartments at her address and fill dates of prostitution with male tenants she has at that location. She stated she has heard that Pennington gets part of the proceeds received by these girls. She stated she does not know who these girls are or where they came from but that Pennington drives a late model white Cadillac.

The source advised that a lady in her late 30's by the name of Faye Dandridge is manager of Fay's Drive In Liquor Store at 4401 Main Street. She stated she understands Faye has a list of girls who will accept dates with men and she believes it is possible these girls charge the men a fee. She stated she has heard conversation that Faye is in her late 30's and has made the remark "if you are going to go out, you might as well go first class" and that she has allegedly told other girls if they are interested in going out with men to the finer places she can fix them up. She stated that this liquor store is located near the It'll Do Club on Elm Street and that Faye supposedly frequents the It'll Do Club approaching male individuals to find out if they would like to have her obtain a date for them.
