

TRANSLATION FROM FRENCH

Airmail, special delivery letter, bearing the number 1389, addressed to:

Mr. Jacques Rubynchtein (sic)
Dallas Jail
Dallas, Texas
U.S.A.

from:

Mrs. Jacqueline Ganem
13 avenue Marie Blanche
Sarcelles Locheres Seine et Oise
France

Sarcelles, February 19, 1963
(sic)

Dear Sir:

Before beginning to write a letter, I wish to let you know that I consider you as the "blood avenger" of President Kennedy and, in this sense, I have taken the initiative of writing to you, for, in order to save an innocent man, one must not shun from anything. Thus, open the Holy Bible, "Synodic Version" (sic), page 146, numbers 34 and 35, chapter 35, and your judges will find therein the answer to the problem which they are trying to find; for the earthly laws are nothing compared with those of our Lord, the Eternal God of the Hosts.

My faith is my law.

Please accept, dear sir, the expression of my distinguished sentiments.

Signature: Mrs. J. Ganem

TRANSLATED BY:
FRIEDRICH NEUHAUSER: jm
March 5, 1964

1190