NOTE: State Judge J. C. Duvall, Fort Worth, Texas, advised Dallas that he had represented Pike as an attorney in 1943 on a rape charge. Duvall recently advised Pike, who worked for Ruby as a bookkeeper and part-time bartender at time of shooting of Oswald, had spoken to him (Duvall) two or three hours after Ruby shot Oswald and has told him that Oswald had been in Ruby's club on numerous occasions. Pike was interviewed in connection with this case on 11/25/63 at which time he alleged that Ruby was friendly with James Hoffa and the "syndicate" and was a pay-off man of Dallas PD. He could not substantiate these allegations. He said nothing at that time relative to Ruby-Oswald connection. In view of this new information Dallas set forth lead for Los Angeles where Pike now resides for Los Angeles to interview Pike if Bureau approved. Los Angeles instructed to handle the interview. Pike is one of twelve persons known
