ReBuairtel to Dallas, et al, 3/5/64, relating to request from President's Commission for details of toll calls by RUBY and others in period September 26, 1963, to November 22, 1963.

Dallas is affording this matter continuous attention; however, due to number of individuals on which data must be developed at Dallas, Buded of March 13, 1964, cannot be met. Phone company, Dallas, encountering difficulty assembling toll tickets on phone numbers involved as such records retired to dormant storage and of necessity require time to locate. Repeated daily contacts being made with phone company official in effort to expedite record availability. Additional delay anticipated once records provided, inasmuch as leads are contemplated for auxiliaries as well as Dallas Division to identify subscribers to numbers called.

Dallas will provide this matter continuous, preferred and aggressive attention to insure submission of comprehensive report at early date.
