Worth, Texas in 1952-53. During the period WALLACE met the father of PIKE who resided in some small town in Maine.

VALLACE said PIKE was a good salesman at the time but always broke. He currently has a wife and child in Fort Worth, Texas. He said after the above employment he knows PIKE spent a number of years in Corpus Christi, Texas, later worked for a Wolkswiges dealer in Fort Worth, Texas, and thereafter believed to have lived in California. He said sometime in the fall of 1963, PIKE called him from Las Vegas, Nevada, stating he was coming to Dallam, wanted WALLACE to assist him in selling a Porsch sports far and also wanted to obtain employment.

WALLACE said upon PIKE's arrival in Dallas, he assisted him in selling the automobile and ment him to C. O. MORGAN, automobile dealer in Dallas, where he obtained employment, Subsequently, he assisted PIKE in getting employment with COLLINS Ford Company. PIKE was unsuccessful in both jobs. The next job PIKE had was as a bartender at Northpark Inn, Dallas. WALLACE said he knew that PIKE had worked intermittently for JACK L. RUBY when in the Dallas area previously and during the latter period, had also worked for RUBY for a short time. WALLACE said on the concern in that he had previously worked for RUBY and knew his name and address were undoubtedly in RUBY's possession. Subsequently, upon laaving Dallas to go to California, PIKE contacted WALLACE to return a car he had borrowed from WALLACE and stated at the time he believed it best for him to leave the area since he had previously worked for RUBY.
