SIDNEY MOLDOSKY, 5638 Lea Street, Morton Grove, Illinois, telephone YO 5-5789, owner of Howlan Printers, 1845 West Carroll, Chicago, Illinois, telephone CH 3-7478, advised that he and his brother, SAUL, were in business as the Shelby Printing Company from 1940 to 1947.

He recalled an EDWARD SCHWARTZ being an associate of his brother during the early years of World War II. He said he did not know "SPARKY" RUBENSTEIN, reportedly a friend of SCHWARTZ, who is also known as JACK RUBY and is the individual who shot and killed LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He advised that if SCHWARTZ had any business dealings with RUBY, it might have been known to his brother but it was not known to him. He had no recollection of the name Liberty Distributing Company.

 EDWARD SCHWARTZ, President, Gardena Printers,
 1414 West 166th Street, Gardena, California, furnished
 the following information:

He is a printer by trade, formerly lived in Chicago, Illinois, and from the early 1920's to about 1948, knew the RUBENSTEIN family. They lived in the West section of Chicago, about the 3600 or 3700 block of Arthington, in an apartment. There were two boys and two girls in the family, and he knew the oldest boy, HI, the best. He was only vaguely acquainted with HI's younger brother, SPARKY, but remembers that SPARKY was a "go getter," always interested in ways to make money. He recalled that SPARKY once had several hotdog stands on Ogden Avenue in Chicago. At one time in the early 1940's, SPARKY wanted him to print up some "V" for Victory stickers or plaques, but the venture intended by SPARKY never materialized, for some reason he was unable to recall. He knew SPARKY only vaguely, and has no recollection of his associates or activities. He does not recall SPARKY ever being in trouble of any kind, and SPARKY was single when he (SCHWARTZ) knew him.

The RUBENSTEIN family was a very fine one in his opinion, and the children had a high regard for their mother. He did not know the father of the family, and assumed he was deceased. He lost contact with the family about 1948 when his work took him away from Chicago for long periods, and in 1951, he moved to California.

George Fehrenbach and III

The following investigation was conducted on the basis of allegations of GEORGE WILLIAM FEHRENBACH, Medford, Oregon, in a signed statement dated November 25, 1963, previously reported. In substance, FEHRENBACH alleged his belief, on the basis of recent photographs of JACK L. RUBY, that RUBY is identical with one JACK RUBENSTEIN, who allegedly traveled from Chicago, Illinois to Muncie, Indiana, with an unnamed son-in-law of SAM JAFFE, jeweler and employer of FEHRENBACH, and attended meetings believed connected with the Communist Party at which certain named individuals were in attendance.

It is observed FEHRENBACH was born March 8, 1926, and alleges he went to work for JAFFE at age 16, presumably in 1942. FEHRENBACH stated JAFFE, now deceased, had two daughters, CHARLOTTE, and another, name unknown, who was married to the son-in-law of JAFFE in question. It is further noted FEHRENBACH alleged the individual believed by him to have been RUBY made two trips to Muncie during the period from "six months to a year" after he started to work for JAFFE and FEHRENBACH's entrance into the United States Navy, June 14, 1944; and a third trip shortly after the birth of FEHRENBACH's first child in June, 1947.

In interviews on November 24 and December 21, 1963, RUBY stated he first came to Dallas in June, 1947, returned to Chicago for a short time and again returned to Dallas, all in 1947.

Previous investigation reflects RUBY, as JACK RUBENSTEIN, resided in Chicago prior to induction into the United States Army Air Corps, on May 21, 1943, and entered on active duty May 28, 1943, at Camp Grant, Illinois. The following duty stations are reflected in his military service records:

June 4, 1943 to June 9, 1943 - Company B, 1633 SU, Camp Grant, Illinois.

June 10, 1943 to September 3, 1943 - Company AAF,
Military Police, Recruit Training Center, Keesler Field, Mississippi.

stated he and his wife made occasional trips to Muncie to visit her parents, but were never accompanied by any JACK RUBENSTEIN.

Information concerning the identities of sons-in-law of SAM JAFFE as well as information concerning RUBY's military record were furnished to the Portland Office for use in re-interview of FEHRENBACH, results of which are set forth below.

Date 4/16/64

On April 15, 1964, GEORGE WILLIAM FEHRENBACH, jeweler, Medical Center Building, Medford, Oregon, volunteered the following information and stated that he is willing to testify in a court of law to this information:

In 1942 when he was 16 years old, he left Muncie Central High School, Muncie, Indiana, and took a job with SAM JAFFE as a jeweler apprentice. The jewelry shop was located on Walnut Street between Jackson and Adams Street in Muncie, Indiana. He went to work for SAM JAFFE during the summer of 1942 and he never did return to high school.

FEHRENBACH said he believed he quit when he was in grade 10b. There was a group of men in the neighborhood who talked to him about the Communist Party and about Russia and he believed that they were members of the Communist Party. These men were PHILLIP JASSER, owner of Jasser's Clothing Store, Mulberry Street; LAWSON JAFFE, who owned Lawson's Jewelers on Walnut Street (nephew of SAM JAFFE); MORTON STANDT, who owned Standt's Jewellery Store on Jackson Street; HERB PAZOL and MORTON PAZOL, who owned PAZOL's Jewelry Store. Herbert Pazol

About six months to a year after he started to work for SAM JAFFE, a group of people came down from Chicago and he believed they were going to hold a meeting in Muncie. The group named above was going to attend the meeting and FEHRENBACH believed the meeting had something to do with the Communist Party or with Russia. The meeting was to be held in a union hall above SAM JAFFE's Jewelry Store.

In the group of people that came down from Chicago were SAM JAFFE's son-in-law and his wife, who brought with them a man who was introduced to FEHRENBACH as JACK RUBINSTEIN (phonetic).

FEHRENBACH stated he now recalls that SAM JAFFE's daughter's name is CHARLOTTE JAFFE and her husband's first name is SEYMOUR. He cannot recall their last name. He stated he recalled SEYMOUR was tied up with show business in Chicago because he brought pictures of girls to the jewelry store and showed them to FEHRENBACH. 67 Lakewood Pl. Highland Park, Ill.

FEHRENBACH said the first time that JACK RUBINSTEIN came to Muncie, Indiana, he had a very tall blond girl with him who was in show business. RUBINSTEIN was wearing a business suit and was well dressed. FEHRENBACH said he would describe him as follows:

67 Lake Wood Pl. Highland Park, Ind.

Race	White
Sex	Male
Nationality	American
Height	5'10-11"
Age	In early 30s (in 1942)
Hair	Full head of black, wavy hair
Weight	Approximately 170 pounds.

FEHRENBACH said he would describe SEYMOUR (SAM JAPPE's son-in-law) in 1942 as follows:

Seymour Chazin
Seymour Chazin

Race	White
Sex	Male
Nationality	American
Age	In early 30s
Height	5'11"
Complexion	Dark
Hair	Black, curly
Attire	Well dressed, wearing business suit, white shirt and tie

Ind
C. App. 8. 1942

FEHRENBACH stated the first time SEYMOUR, CHARLOTTE and JACK RUBINSTEIN came to SAM JAPPE's jewelry store was between the last two weeks of January, 1943, and March, 1943. The reason he stated this is he believes it was after Christmas of 1942, because business slowed down considerably.

The second time SEYMOUR, CHARLOTTE and JACK RUBINSTEIN visited Muncie, Indiana, was between March, 1943, and June, 1944, when he went into the service. He could not recall the exact time nor could he recall any details concerning this meeting. He said he could recall, however, that they were going to attend a meeting in the hall above SAM JAPPE's jewelry store and that JACK RUBINSTEIN showed him a few card tricks.

FEHRENBACH said he could not recall whether RUBINSTEIN brought the tall blond girl with him at the second meeting.

FEHRENBACH went in the Navy on June 14, 1944, and was discharged on June 21, 1946. He then went back to his job with SAM JAFFE at the jewelry store.

Shortly before or after his first boy was born in June, 1947, there was another meeting and JACK RUBINSTEIN came again from Chicago, Illinois, with SEYMOUR (last name unknown) and CHARLOTTE JAFFE (last name unknown). This meeting was held in the union hall above the JAFFE store. He could recall that prior to the meeting in the evening these three individuals were talking with SAM JAFFE in his office concerning a map of World War II on which SAM JAFFE kept track of how Russia was advancing into Germany and how the American Forces were advancing also. He could recall there was discussion about the proper indication of Russian and American advances into Germany by the group, and he heard them state that SAM JAFFE did not have the advances far enough into Germany by the Russian forces. The next morning after the meeting he was sent up to the union hall to get a chair that had been taken up there from the jewelry store. Up in the hall he saw a list of names on a table. There were two to four typewritten pages of names and he said he could recall the first name being LAWSON JAFFE and other names on the page as being PHILLIP JASSER, HERBERT PAZOL, MORTON PAZOL, MORTON STANDT, (first name unknown), last name SHUSTER, and JACK RUBINSTEIN. He took these pages containing the list of names to MERVIN COLLINS, an uncle of his wife, who was on the Muncie Police Department, and he stated he would turn the names over to the FBI.

FEHRENBACH said as he recalled, PHILLIP JASSER, LAWSON JAFFE, HERBERT PAZOL, and MORTON PAZOL had asked him whether he saw any papers on the desk at the union hall and he told them no. He could recall that either PHILLIP JASSER or one of the PAZOL brothers told him if he had papers he should give them back because he could get into trouble.

He said he could recall this third meeting because they made remarks of his being in the U.S. Navy.

PD 44-225

He said he also recalled that PHILLIP JASSER was the one who kept telling him to get on the right side of the fence. PHILLIP JASSER and LAWSON JAPPE also told him about communism being the only law to live by and that it is the greatest movement in the world. They also told him that eventually communism would be all over the world, including the United States of America.

He stated he could not recall whether they said JACK RUBINSTEIN was in the armed services but it seemed to him they said he was. However, he is not sure. He said he did know that JACK RUBINSTEIN never had a military uniform on when visiting Muncie, Indiana.

He believed they made the trip from Chicago, Illinois, to Muncie, Indiana, by car and that it was a new car. He recalled SEYMOUR, CHARLOTTE and JACK RUBINSTEIN trying to figure up their gas mileage from Chicago to Muncie to get an idea how many miles per gallon they got on the new car.

SAM JAPPE's other daughter, MARION, was married to MAX PRITZKER and they had a restaurant in Muncie, Indiana. He recalled that MARION and MAX did not associate with the other individuals. As far as he knows, they are still in Muncie, Indiana.

Pobaske Japke Mrs Ind.
To the best of his recollection, SAM JAPPE died in 1959 or 1960 in Miami Beach, Florida, and he was buried in Chicago, Illinois. He does not recall where his widow, SONIA, is living. He does recall that his mother sent him a clipping from the Muncie, Indiana, newspaper, Sony's Jewelers concerning the death of SAM JAPPE.

As far as he knows, the PAZOL brothers and STANDT are still in Muncie, Indiana. The last he heard of LAWSON JAPPE he was living in Dayton, Ohio.

MERVIN COLLINS has passed away and his wife is still living in Muncie, Indiana. In 1961 MERVIN COLLINS' son JACK COLLINS, was manager of Roger's Jewelry Store, which Ind.

is owned by MORTON STANDT.

He stated he is not acquainted with SAM JAFFE's daughter, ROSLYN or her husband, IRWIN BERKE. He only knew CHARLOTTE and MARION JAFFE.

The only individuals whom he can recall travelling from Chicago, Illinois, to Muncie, Indiana, for the three meetings were SEYMOUR, CHARLOTTE, JACK RUBINSTEIN, and the tall blond-haired girl. He believed on the third meeting the tall girl did not accompany them.

He stated to the best of his recollection that the first meeting was approximately in January - March, 1943; the second meeting from March, 1943, to June, 1944, before he went into the U.S. Navy, and the third meeting shortly before or after his first son was born on June 2, 1947.

He still believes that the picture of JACK RUBY in the Oregon Journal, November 25, 1963, is a very good likeness of the person who was introduced to him as JACK RUBINSTEIN. He appears older and the hairline is a little higher.

 Indiana, advised as follows:

He first met SAM JAFFE at Muncie, Indiana, in 1945 when JAFFE was working as a diamond setter for LAWRENCE JAFFE Ind. on South Walnut Street, Muncie. He worked for SAM JAFFE from 1953 to about 1955. He was the Republican candidate for mayor in 1957 in Muncie, Indiana. He recalls that on the third floor of the same building where SAM JAFFE had his office on the second floor, the Disabled American Veterans and also an Ironworkers Union had offices. He recalls considerable gambling activity, slot machines and poker games took place on the third floor. He does not know of any meetings of any kind held on the third floor having any connection with SAM JAFFE.

He has seen photographs of JACK RUBY or JACK RUBENSTEIN and he does not recall ever having seen him. He does not recall SAM JAFFE's sons-in-law ever bringing anyone to Muncie, Indiana from Chicago, Illinois.

He operated a bingo game at Jaffe's Jewelry Store at 215 1/2 South Walnut Street, Muncie, Indiana, in 1948 and until January, 1949. He believes Ross Furriers located on first floor of this address and Jaffe's Jewelry Store on second floor. He operated his bingo game on the third floor just above Jaffe's Jewelry Store.

In 1947 and as far back as 1942, the Disabled American Veterans Organization and the Local Ironworkers Union had meeting places on the third floor to the rear of his bingo game, at this address. He stated considerable gambling activity by cards and slot machines was conducted by the Disabled American Veterans and the above union. He was closely associated with this gambling activity during this period of time. He does not know of any other types of meetings including Communist Party meetings being held at this address or any other address. He has seen the photograph of JACK RUBY or JACK RUBENSTEIN and has never known this person. He knows of no children of SAM JAFFE.

HERBERT PAZOL was interviewed at Pazol's Jewelers, and was exhibited photographs of JACK RUBY which appeared in "Muncie Star" newspaper, issue of November 25, 1963, and he stated RUBY and/or RUBENSTEIN unknown to him. He admitted knowing GEORGE WILLIAM FREHNBACH, stating the latter had worked for SAM JAFFE many years ago. He stated SAM JAFFE died about four years ago while he was residing in Florida. He denied any knowledge of or attendance of Communist Party meetings at Muncie, Indiana, in 1942 or 1947-1948, of any individual identifiable with JACK RUBY. He does not know the names of the sons-in-law of SAM JAFFE, but stated LAWSON JAFFE, nephew of SAM JAFFE, who is presently in jewelry business in Dayton, Ohio, should know the identify of sons-in-law.

HERBERT PAZOL advised no Communist Party meetings were ever held in Muncie at SAM JAFFE's Jewelry Store to his knowledge. He also stated no Union Hall was located above this store, but that in early and middle 1940s, a gambling joint was located there. He advised he does not recall ever going to this gambling joint and he does not recall SAM JAFFE's sons-in-law ever coming to Muncie, Indiana, from Chicago, Illinois, but believed they lived in Muncie until at least the late 1940s, but he cannot be sure of this.

He advised he did not recall RUBEN RESNIKOFF, also known as RUBY COOPER, a "Daily Worker" correspondent of Chicago, Illinois, who visited Indiana on numerous occasions during the 1940s and as late as 1948.

MORTON PAZOL was interviewed at Muncie, Indiana, and advised as follows:

PAZOL admitted joining the Communist Party (CP) in Indianapolis, Indiana, sometime during the year of 1940. He was unable to recall the exact date. He advised he voluntarily went to Indianapolis and looked up an Indianapolis attorney, whose name he was not able to recall, advising him he desired to become a member of the CP. PAZOL further advised he withdrew from the CP sometime during the year of 1947. He was unable to recall the exact date of his dropping membership with the CP. He stated the reason he dropped out of the CP was because he no longer was in sympathy with their ideas. He advised the only reason he joined the CP in the first place was because he considered their activities the same as a Labor Union and he was active and interested in labor activities in Muncie, Indiana. He admitted he was a subscriber to "The Worker", but stated he never subscribed to the "Daily Worker".

PAZOL has stated several meetings were held by him in Muncie, Indiana, during his membership in the CP and that these meetings were held in his home. He stated he did not consider them CP meetings but study groups who were studying the Communist philosophy and doctrines. He further advised the idea of control of this country by Russia was never discussed at any meetings held in his home or any of the CP meetings he attended in Indianapolis. He advised if his wife had been a member of the CP, it was only because of the fact she was married to him and she did not possess any sympathies for the CP.
