JACK MARCUS, Attorney, 134 North La Salle Street, Chicago, Illinois, advised he visited Havana, Cuba, for four days and three nights early in September, 1959, during the Labor Day weekend. He stated he was accompanied on this visit by SHERWIN BRAUN and JAY BISHOV, also of Chicago, Illinois.

MARCUS informed that they traveled to Miami, Florida, in BRAUN's privately owned automobile and stayed at the Nautilus Hotel located on Collins Avenue in Miami Beach, Florida. MARCUS stated they checked out of the Nautilus Hotel the day prior to leaving for Havana, Cuba, from Key West, Florida. He explained that he and his friends knew they would be out most of the night and planned to drive to Key West, Florida, early in the morning, so they checked out of the hotel the day before leaving for Key West. After driving to Key West, Florida, they left their automobile in an adjacent parking lot and purchased tickets on the "Q" Airlines, which MARCUS described as a Cuban-owned airline. He stated further that they obtained their visas or travel permits to Cuba at the same place where they purchased their travel tickets. MARCUS stated there was little or no problem in obtaining these permits or visas, and that little background data was requested for same. He recalled that they flew to Havana in the afternoon, and that the airplane was definitely Cuban as the personnel on the plane were Cuban.

MARCUS stated he believes that it was on the third night or last night that they were in Havana, Cuba, that he saw JACK RUBY at the Tropicana Night Club. He added that he could not elaborate any further concerning this meeting other than that information furnished on November 25, 1963.

MARCUS reiterated that he is certain this visit to Havana took place over the Labor Day weekend of 1959;

LOUIS POLLACK, Assistant Manager, Nautilus Hotel, 1825 Collins Avenue, advised that this hotel was closed from 1960 to 1962. He stated that when the hotel reopened, many of the old records were destroyed. He searched his old files kept in a storage room and was able to locate a box of registration cards for the years 1958 and 1959. He made a complete search of these cards, but could locate no registration under the names JACK MARCUS, JAY BISHOV or SHERWIN BRAUN. POLLACK said he had no way of determining whether or not this box of cards was complete for the years 1958 and 1959. He further advised that a check of all his records since the hotel reopened was negative for any registration in the above names.

Files of the Dallas FBI Office reflect Mr. R. L. ADAMS, President of Plastelite, 920 Foch Street, Fort Worth, Texas, was interviewed by SA FRANK J. HUDSON in 1952 in connection with an official investigation. He advised his company was formed on April 1, 1941, with ADAMS as President. At that time it appeared Plastelite was engaged at least in part in the manufacture of certain aircraft parts.

Files reflect SA EARLE HALEY interviewed RICHARD LLOYD ADAMS, 3521 Dorothy Lane, South, Fort Worth, Texas, President of Plastelite (reported as Pastelite) Engineering Company, 920 Foch Street, Fort Worth, on December 9, 1963, in connection with this investigation. Mr. ADAMS informed his firm in August or September, 1963, began the manufacture of a small item called the "twist board" used by dancers in performing "the twist." He informed that in the latter part of September, 1963, he received a telephone call from JACK RUBY and had additional contacts with RUBY thereafter in connection with the sale and promotion of the "twist board."

In interview on November 24, 1963, JACK RUBY advised SA C. RAY HALL he had recently been trying to sell an item known as the "twist board" which is manufactured by Plasti-Lite Products, Incorporated, owned by LLOYD ADAMS of Fort Worth, Texas. The notation "Plaste-Lite, Inc., R. L. Adams, 920 Foch, Fort Worth, ED 5-1266," appeared among numerous items removed from RUBY's person by Dallas Police Department on November 24, 1963. Previous investigation has established that a number of telephone calls were made by RUBY to telephone ED 5-1266 during the period September 26, 1963, through November 22, 1963.

The following notations appeared in the effects of JACK L. RUBY, taken from his person following his arrest by Dallas, Texas Police Department, November 24, 1963:

"TU 3-7718, Herb Eden, 928 N. Clarke,
Los Angeles, California, OL 2-3849."

Investigation has previously established a station to station telephone call was made from Dallas telephone WH 1-5601, 223 S. Ewing, Apartment 207, Dallas (residence of JACK RUBY) on October 19, 1963, at 3:53 a.m., duration 32 minutes, to telephone OL 2-3849, Beverly Hills, California. It has been established through telephone company records the above telephone was listed to HERBERT EDEN, 928 Clarke Street, Beverly Hills, as of the date of the call.

In interview November 28, 1963, HERBERT EDEN, then residing at 3846 Beverly Ridge Drive, Sherman Oaks, California, advised he had moved a few days previously from 928 Clarke Street, Los Angeles, where he had telephone number OL 2-3849. He identified himself as a comedian who had appeared at the Colony Club, Dallas, in October, 1962, and again in late 1962 or early 1963. He professed to have met RUBY during his first booking at the Colony Club which was located near the Carousel Club operated by RUBY. ROBERT DUPUY, membership clerk, American Guild of Variety Artists (AGVA), 6636 Hollywood Boulevard, Hollywood, California, advised SA JOHN M. CASHEL on April 20, 1964 as follows:

HERBERT EDEN, 3846 Beverly Ridge Drive, Sherman Oaks, California, classified as a master of ceremonies, comic-burlesque, was a previous member of AGVA, and rejoined in May, 1962. His social security number is 119-24-7570, his age 31, weight 165, height 5 feet 9 inches, and he has hazel eyes and black hair. He is currently employed at the Body Shop on Sunset Strip in Hollywood, and his file does not indicate he has used any other name. His main file is at AGVA headquarters, 551 Fifth Avenue, New York 17, New York.

WILLIAM FEINSTEIN, partner, York Club, 7210 South Western Avenue, Los Angeles, California, advised SA PHILLIP B. DEILY as follows on April 23, 1964:

He has been affiliated with the York Club, a cocktail lounge and burlesque house, for nineteen years. HERBERT EDEN, whom he has known for about six years, has worked for him at the York Club intermittently as a master of ceremonies for approximately one year over the past five years. He has only occasional contact with EDEN currently, who is presently employed at the Body Shop, a burlesque spot, on Sunset Boulevard in Hollywood.

EDEN is a person of average ability, dependable and of good character. He has never had any reason to question EDEN's loyalty, and EDEN does not drink. He (EDEN) never seems to have very much money, but this may be partly due to the fact that his wife was seriously injured in an automobile accident several years ago, and the resulting medical expenses were very heavy. He considers EDEN to be a normal, average type individual and a good citizen.

Records at the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Office and at the Los Angeles Police Department were checked on April 20, 1964 by IC PAUL H. CHAMBERLAIN, JR. No record identifiable with HERBERT EDEN, 3846 Beverly Ridge Drive, Sherman Oaks, California, was located.

The file shows a clothing account with Harris & Frank, with a high of $152.00, a balance of $105.00 and this account is also too new to rate. ART WAYNE, Television Producer and Director, 1970 Mandeville Canyon Road, Brentwood, California, furnished the following information:

He has recently returned from a picture making trip in Africa and was out of the country at the time of ex-President KENNEDY's death. He and JACK RUBY were childhood friends in Chicago many years ago. He resided on the West side of Chicago some four or five blocks from the apartment where the RUBINSTIEN family lived. He and JACK RUBY played sandlot baseball, basketball and a lot of handball together. At one time they were fellow members at the Medina Athletic Club in Chicago. JACK neither drank nor smoked and always kept himself in excellent physical condition. JLL

The RUBINSTIENS were a poor family but were very respectable and to the best of his knowledge, all were very fine individuals. He does not recall how JACK made his living in Chicago as he grew into manhood. JACK had a car when he (WAYNE) was first getting into showbusiness and would drive him around to his various singing engagements at clubs and hotels in Chicago. JACK looked up to him as he became increasingly successful in showbusiness in the Chicago area and on many occasions would be in attendance at his various entertainment engagements. He left Chicago about twenty years ago and during this period has been completely out of touch with JACK RUBY. During this period, however, he has seen JACK's brother EARL on several occasions for brief visits.

He recalls JACK RUBY having a very violent temper and always seemed eager to take the part of the underdog in any altercation that confronted him. In one incident about twenty-five years ago when he and JACK were together on a downtown Chicago street, they happened to come upon a man using abusive language to an old lady. JACK took up for the lady and the two engaged in a bitter fight. Shortly thereafter JACK complained of being dizzy and after walking him around for a while, he took JACK to a hospital for treatment somewhere in the North side Chicago area, the name of the hospital not recalled. JACK spent at least several hours in the hospital and it is his recollection that he suffered a slight concussion.

JACK would even engage in bitter fist fights with his brother, EARL, over matters which they disagreed upon. He feels that JACK RUBY, as well as they knew each other, would have not hesitated to punch him in the nose if he (WAYNE) had sufficiently aroused RUBY. There were other incidences, he cannot recall the specifics, where JACK would take up for the underdog and become violently aroused and in his opinion a normal individual would not react to similar situations in such a manner. He recalls that at one time, JACK's brother, EARL, took wrestling lessons and he suspects that EARL might have been motivated by reasons of self-preservation.

Because of the above conduct on the part of JACK, he seriously questions JACK's mental health since he does not feel that a normal healthy individual would have acted and reacted to certain situations as did JACK RUBY. He feels that JACK was completely loyal to his country, never knew him to carry a gun or to be involved in any trouble with law enforcement. He never knew LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has no knowledge of JACK ever associating with persons or organizations of questionable loyalty. He has always liked JACK RUBY, would never want to do or say anything that would be harmful to him, but honestly feels that JACK was not a mentally healthy person at the time of their association in Chicago.
