Mr. WILLIAM WISE, 275 Lakedale Road, Berlin, New Jersey, was contacted at his place of employment at Marlton, New Jersey, at which time he advised as follows:

His wife, MARY WISE, was not available, having gone out of town for the day, but would return late that evening. He recalled that on the late afternoon of November 24, 1963, his wife and he were watching a television broadcast regarding the assault by JACK RUBY on LEE HARVEY OSWALD, which emanated from Dallas, Texas. Approximately twenty minutes after the broadcast, his wife, who is employed as a telephone operator by the New Jersey Bell Telephone Company, stated she had possibly placed a person-to-person call to a man named RUBENSTEIN (phonetic) on Saturday, November 23, 1963, and the call may have been placed to Texas. His wife was concerned as to whether she should report the telephone call to her supervisor at the telephone company in view of the importance of the events which occurred at Dallas, Texas. She also indicated she was not sure of her recollection regarding the name RUBENSTEIN or the place called because she handled a large number of toll calls on November 23, 1963, and she was hesitant to report her impression since she did not want to create a problem for the telephone company.

Mr. WISE added he later learned from his wife that she had notified her supervisor regarding her impression of having placed such a call. He commented that his wife is an emotional person and was very much affected by the events which took place in Dallas, Texas, on that week end in November, 1963, as was the general public.

Mrs. MARY J. WISE, 275 Lakedale Road, Berlin, New Jersey, was interviewed at the office of the New Jersey Bell Telephone Company, Collingswood Toll Office, Collingswood, New Jersey, at which time she advised as follows:

At the outset, she said that she feels that in view of the fact she would have handled over fifty toll calls an hour on the evening of November 23, 1963, she believes there is a strong possibility that she associated details of different toll calls to the events which occurred at Dallas, Texas. She added that she feels her impression may have been due to the strong emotional shock she felt upon hearing of the incidents at Dallas, Texas, during the period from November 22 through November 24, 1963. She stated that to the best of her knowledge she recalls that on November 24, 1963, she and her husband were listening to a news broadcast at approximately 4:00 P.M. in which the name JACK RUBENSTEIN was mentioned. Upon hearing the name RUBENSTEIN, she recalled a telephone toll call she had placed on the evening of November 23, 1963, which she believed may have been made to an individual with a similar sounding name. She recalls the incident regarding the toll call as follows:

At approximately 7:00 P.M. on November 23, 1963, while engaged at her position as switchboard operator, at the Collingswood, New Jersey Toll Exchange of the New Jersey Bell Telephone Company, she received a call which she believes requested her to place a person-to-person call to an individual she believed was named RUBENSTEIN or RUBENSTINE, and she believes the call may have been placed to Texas.

She feels she recalled the name since she questioned the spelling. She cannot recall if the name JACK was mentioned but recalls that possibly the initial "J" was used by the person placing the call. She remembered that the toll call was not completed; however, she could not recall any of the details as to the answering of the telephone at the receiving end. This being true she would have checked the cancel box on the toll ticket. The only writing appearing on the ticket would have been the name of the individual to whom the call was placed since the toll ticket used is coded and the area code number, exchange called, and the telephone number called would be indicated by marking the coded "bubble" or box opposite the coded number.

Mrs. WISE advised she cannot specifically recall any particular call placed on November 23, 1963, in view of the large number of toll calls handled by her each hour and the fact that the name RUBENSTEIN had no significance to her until she heard it on the news broadcast.

She said that she cannot be positive the name of the individual to whom the toll call was placed on November 23, 1963, was named JACK RUBENSTEIN. She added that she cannot be positive the place called was Dallas, Texas. She feels it is very possible she has associated incidents from the large number of toll calls she handled on November 23, 1963, with television broadcasts watched on November 24, 1963.

Mrs. WISE added she was hesitant to report the call to her supervisor in view of the fact she was uncertain of the specific details regarding the name of the individual calling or the place called.

[Mrs. LAURA KELLUM, Chief Operator] New Jersey Bell Telephone Company, Collingswood Toll Office, 601 Haddon Avenue, advised that on November 25, 1963, at approximately 1:30 P.M. Mrs. MARY WISE, an operator on the toll board of the New Jersey Bell Telephone Company, Collingswood Office, advised her that she was disturbed regarding the possibility that she had placed a call to an individual she remembered as RUBENSTEIN placed on the evening of November 23, 1963. Mrs. WISE advised her she believed the call was placed to Dallas, Texas, but did not recall the source of the call, and it was the recollection of Mrs. WISE that the call was not completed. Mrs. WISE advised her she had recorded the call on a toll ticket and that the toll ticket would reflect the details regarding the call.

[Mrs. KELLUM] advised that the toll ticket would contain the name of the individual called, which would be written in the appropriate box by the toll operator. All other information would be recorded in squares which are referred to as "bubbles" which are placed opposite a series of numbers which run in sequence on the toll call. The toll call would also contain the marking reflecting whether the call was cancelled or completed and would reflect the number assigned to the operator handling the call.

[Mrs. KELLUM] advised the records reflect Mrs. WISE worked the following hours on the pertinent dates:

November 23, 1963	9:30 A.M. - 12:30 P.M.
	4:30 P.M. - 8:30 P.M.
November 24, 1963	10:30 A.M. - 1:30 P.M.
	6:00 P.M. - 11:00 P.M. (which includes one hour overtime)

[Mrs. KELLUM] stated that Mrs. WISE was uncertain regarding the details of the call placed to the individual she believed was named RUBENSTEIN, but indicated to [Mrs. KELLUM] that she wanted to bring the matter to the attention of [Mrs. KELLUM] in the event the call was pertinent to the events which occurred at Dallas, Texas. [Mrs. KELLUM] added that after receiving the information regarding the telephone call, she advised

[Mr. ALMA A. RICHARDSON, Legal Department] New Jersey Bell Telephone Company, 540 Broad Street, Newark, New Jersey, advised that during the latter part of November, 1963, [Mr. O. M. ASNIS, Traffic Department] New Jersey Bell Telephone Company, 1490 Prospect Street, Trenton, New Jersey, directed a thorough and complete search of all tickets reflecting long distance telephone calls from the Collingswood, New Jersey area to Dallas, Texas, for November 22 through November 24, 1963, inclusive. The following central offices were involved: 424, 428, 429, 546, 547, 767, 854, 858, and 983. All units, accounting and "Centralized Traffic Investigations", that handled these tickets were thoroughly sorted, checked and rechecked and no call was found to Dallas, Texas, by Operator #7, who was Mrs. MARY WISE of the Collingswood Exchange. Both completed and cancelled calls plus coin boxes revealed no such call.

[Mr. RICHARDSON] added that, in fact, no calls were made from any of the central offices mentioned above by Operator #7 to any place in Texas, and no name was found on any of the tickets to any party named RUBENSTEIN or any name similar to RUBENSTEIN.

The above information furnished by [Mrs. LAURA KELLUM and Mr. RICHARDSON] is confidential and can only be made public by the issuance of a subpoena duces tecum. This subpoena should be directed to the New Jersey Telephone Company, 540 Broad Street, Newark, New Jersey, marked attention A. A. RICHARDSON, Room 1800.

Rabbi HILLEL SILVERMAN, 6146 Lupton Drive, Rabbi of Temple Shearith Israel, advised the service at the synagogue on the night of November 22, 1963, began at 8:30 P.M. and ended at approximately 9:50 P.M. He said he did not see JACK RUBY enter the synagogue. When the service was over, Rabbi SILVERMAN took a position at the door to greet those leaving the synagogue. At that time he saw RUBY. He said at the time he assumed RUBY had entered at the beginning of the service.

RUBY has subsequently told Rabbi SILVERMAN that he came in very late and missed the greater portion of the service. RUBY has told him that he saw JOE GOLMAN (Dallas City Councilman) and a Mrs. LEONA LANE at the synagogue. Rabbi SILVERMAN said he has confirmed through Mr. GOLMAN that GOLMAN did, in fact, see RUBY. He said he had not been in contact with Mrs. LANE in this regard.

Rabbi SILVERMAN said RUBY looked on the night of November 22, 1963, as if he were in a daze. He appeared to be depressed or "in shock". Rabbi SILVERMAN said RUBY did not, surprisingly, say anything to him relative to the assassination of President KENNEDY, but, rather, thanked the Rabbi for having visited RUBY's sister, EVA GRANT, at Gaston Hospital a few days previously. He said he recalls nothing specifically regarding RUBY's manner of dress on this occasion, but "has the feeling" RUBY was dressed in a dark suit, which was his usual dress when observed at the synagogue. He does not know how long RUBY was there.

With regard to the service on November 23, 1963, Rabbi SILVERMAN stated he did not see JACK RUBY on this occasion, and doubts very much he was present. He said he had stated on previous interview that RUBY had attended this service, his statement being based purely on hearsay. He said there was considerable talk by various people after RUBY's arrest on November 24, 1963, that they had seen RUBY at the synagogue. He said he believes it highly probable these persons were confused about when they saw RUBY, and possibly saw him on the night of November 22, 1963, rather than on November 23, 1963. He said he does not at this time recall the identities of any persons who told him they saw RUBY at the synagogue on November 23, 1963.

Rabbi SILVERMAN said RUBY has, himself, told him that he went to bed very late, possibly at about 5:00 A.M. on the morning of November 23, 1963. RUBY related that he received a call from LARRY CRAFARD, employee of the Carousel, at about 8:00 A.M. He said RUBY has never told him that he was at the synagogue on the morning of November 23, 1963, and that it is his impression that RUBY likely went back to sleep after receiving the call from CRAFARD.

Mr. JOE H. GOLMAN, of Joe H. Golman & Co., fruit and vegetable brokers, 2700 Stemmons Freeway, who resides at 6530 Northport, Dallas, Texas, and is a member of the City Council for Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

During 1963, he was Vice President of Congregation Shearith Israel Synagogue in Dallas, and is presently President. During services at the Synagogue, the Vice President and President are seated on the pulpit. On November 22, 1963, services were held at the Synagogue on Friday evening following the death of President KENNEDY, and during the services he was seated on the pulpit. He estimated that at least 1,000 persons were present for the services.

Following the services, refreshments were served. Sometime during the time refreshments were being served, GOLMAN was talking with someone, and he does not remember with whom he was talking, and he saw JACK RUBY walk by. GOLMAN explained that for a year or more, he has known JACK RUBY when he sees him, and knew that RUBY operated a night club, but he has never been a personal acquaintance of RUBY. As RUBY passed GOLMAN, RUBY said either, "Hello, JOE", or "Hello, Mr. GOLMAN." GOLMAN answered RUBY by saying either "Good Sabbath, JACK," or "Good Sabbath, Mr. RUBY." He does not recall seeing RUBY with anyone as RUBY walked by, and he does not recall seeing RUBY before or after this occasion when they spoke to each other. He does not recall the exact time when this happened, but believes it occurred sometime between 11:00 P.M. and 12:00 Midnight. As their conversation only lasted a few seconds, GOLMAN has no opinion as to whether RUBY was upset, or whether his demeanor was the same as usual. RUBY's general appearance was about the same as it usually is, in that he was well-dressed.

Mrs. LEONA LANE, Van Gogh Studios, 1710 Jackson Street, who resides at 3786 Northview, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

On the evening of November 22, 1963, she attended special services at Shearith Israel Synagogue in Dallas, Texas, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. ESTHER MILLER, and her sons, SEYMOUR LANE, aged 18, and CARY LANE, aged 16. Following the services, coffee was served for those in attendance, at about 11:00 P.M. She had been in the room where refreshments were being served for about five minutes when she noticed JACK RUBY standing by himself, so she, her mother and sons walked over to talk to JACK RUBY. Mrs. LANE introduced her mother and sons to JACK, and reminded him that he had met them about four years ago when they had Passover Dinner together at the home of SAM RUBY, JACK's brother. After the introductions, Mrs. LANE remarked how terrible the assassination of President KENNEDY had been, and JACK RUBY said, "It is worse than that." Mrs. LANE thought that JACK seemed very nervous, upset, and depressed, and they talked about mutual friends for about five minutes, and they left.

She did not see JACK RUBY talking with anyone else, and did not notice him again after they walked away from him.

Mrs. LANE explained that she was originally from Chicago, Illinois, and moved to Dallas about seven years ago. Someone, she does not now recall whom, told her to look up PHYLLIS RUBY, the wife of SAM RUBY, when she got to Dallas, and she did so. Through Mr. and Mrs. SAM RUBY, she met JACK RUBY, and has probably seen JACK only ten or twelve times during the past seven years. This one occasion has been the only time she saw him at the Synagogue.

From her limited contact with JACK RUBY, she has found him to be always extremely happy, or extremely sad, with no in-between status. On the night of November 22, 1963, at the Synagogue, everyone present seemed to be shocked and depressed over the death of President KENNEDY. JACK RUBY was well dressed in his appearance, but his conversation and demeanor indicated that he was very sad over the death of President KENNEDY.

1Date 6/4/64

Mrs. ESTHER MILLER, 3786 Northview, Dallas, Texas, related the following information:

On the night of November 22, 1963, following the death of President KENNEDY, she attended special services at Congregation Shearith Israel Synagogue. The services concluded at approximately 11:00 P.M., and she, her daughter, Mrs. LEONA LANE, and grandsons, SEYMOUR and CARY LANE, went to the room where refreshments were being served. They had been there for only a few minutes, when Mrs. LANE noticed JACK RUBY, and they all went over to talk with him.

Mrs. LANE introduced Mrs. MILLER to JACK RUBY, and reminded him they had met previously several years before. Mrs. MILLER said she did not engage in any conversation with JACK, but Mrs. LANE and JACK talked for about five minutes. Something was said about the death of President KENNEDY, but Mrs. MILLER does not remember just what was said. She does recall that JACK RUBY seemed very sad over the assassination, and seemed nervous and upset. She does not recall seeing anyone else talking with JACK RUBY before they spoke to him, and did not see him again after they left him.

Mrs. MILLER said she formerly lived in Chicago, Illinois, and she knew an aunt of Mrs. PHYLLIS RUBY. This aunt suggested that Mrs. MILLER look up PHYLLIS RUBY when Mrs. MILLER arrived in Dallas, and she did so, thereby becoming acquainted with the SAM RUBY family in Dallas, and meeting JACK RUBY.

KENNETH L. DOWE, who currently resides at 4617 Samuell Boulevard, telephone EV 8-1555, advised he has been employed as a radio announcer for radio station KLIF, Dallas, Texas, since October 23, 1963. Mr. DOWE is 23 years of age and prior to his present employment was employed by radio stations WQXI, Atlanta, Georgia, for ten months; KBOX, Dallas, Texas, approximately eight to ten months; KDEO, San Diego, California, for eight months; WABB, Mobile, Alabama, for six or eight months, and previously was employed while attending college by radio station WHSY, Hattiesburg, Mississippi.

DOWE advised the only time to his knowledge that he ever personally met JACK L. RUBY was either on the first or second day of his employment by radio station KLIF, which was October 23, 1963, or October 24, 1963. He recalled he was being "shown around" the radio station by CHUCK DUNAWAY who was then also employed as an announcer by KLIF, and, on this occasion, JACK L. RUBY was engaged in a conversation with an unknown person, who may or may not have been an employee of the radio station, and they were standing in the front lobby of the station. DUNAWAY interrupted RUBY's conversation with the individual to whom he was talking long enough to introduce DOWE to RUBY. He recalls only that RUBY was described by DUNAWAY in this introduction as the owner or proprietor of a Dallas night club and that RUBY invited him to visit his night club.

DOWE advised he has never visited RUBY's night club and has never personally seen RUBY since that time. He also advised he has never seen RUBY in the premises of radio station KLIF since the occasion on which he was introduced to him.

The only occasion on which DOWE ever spoke with RUBY by telephone occurred on Saturday, November 23, 1963, at which time DOWE was on duty from 12:00 noon until 6:00 p.m. During this period RUBY called the station on three occasions, however, it is DOWE's impression that RUBY identified himself by name on only the last two calls. It is his present recollection that on the occasion of the first call which would have been during the early or middle part of the afternoon RUBY was attempting to reach the news service and inquired as to whether the station had any information concerning the transfer of LEE HARVEY OSWALD from the Dallas City Jail to the County Jail. He recalls he advised RUBY, who had not at this point identified himself, that he, DOWE, had no such information.

It is DOWE's recollection that on the occasion of the second call RUBY inquired as to whether any of the newsmen from station KLIF were in the vicinity of the Dallas City Hall and on this occasion that the caller identified himself as JACK RUBY. He advised the name JACK RUBY meant nothing to him and he inquired of some other employee of the station, whose identity he does not now recall, "Who is Jack Ruby?" or words to that effect.

On the occasion of the third call from JACK RUBY, it is DOWE's recollection that RUBY again identified himself and was again attempting to reach the news department and told him that he, RUBY, was going personally to the Dallas County Jail, County Building, or City Hall, he does not now recall specifically which, and in the event he, RUBY, obtained any news story, he would recontact the station.

In this connection, it is DOWE's recollection that RUBY mentioned he was acquainted with HENRY WADE and that he felt he could "get a story" from WADE.

DOWE advised he does not know what prompted the telephone calls to this station by RUBY. He is sure that all three calls were made on the station's "hot line" which was at that time Riverside 7-9319, and that all three calls were made on the afternoon of Saturday, November 23, 1963. He explained the "hot line" calls are screened by the station's switchboard operator each weekday until 5:00 p.m. and on Saturday until 12:00 noon. DOWE explained the station's "hot line" is an unlisted telephone number, however, the number is posted at various places in the station, is known by all station employees, and he feels certain it is also known by the immediate families of station employees and by close personal friends of these employees. He said he does not know how RUBY obtained the "hot line" telephone number but he feels relatively sure the number is rather widely known and its principal purpose is to screen the numerous calls by "youngsters" calling the station to make requests for the playing of certain musical records from other telephone calls.

DOWE advised as of November 23, 1963, on which date these calls were received from JACK RUBY, he, DOWE, was not well acquainted or familiar with the locations of the Dallas City Hall or County Buildings, and he is not now certain with respect to the third telephone call from RUBY which of these public buildings RUBY indicated he was going to visit. Regardless of which building RUBY indicated he would visit, he did not indicate what he planned to do at that building but merely stated he would call the station again if he secured a news story.

DOWE advised that on Friday, November 22, 1963, it is his present recollection he would have been on duty as an announcer at this station from 3:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. and that being a new employee, he was present at the radio station from approximately 10:00 a.m. to at least 7:30 p.m. On Saturday, November 23, 1963, he was on duty at this station from 12:00 noon to 6:00 p.m. and was "on the air" during this period and was probably in the station for some time prior to 12:00 noon familiarizing himself with the operation of the station. On Sunday, November 24, 1963, he recalls that he went to the home of CHUCK DUNAWAY who was then also employed as an announcer by station KLIF and that upon arrival at DUNAWAY's home he was advised that he, DUNAWAY, had just witnessed on television the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD by JACK RUBY. It is his recollection that he spent practically all day on Sunday, November 24, 1963, at the DUNAWAY home.

DOWE advised information previously furnished by him was possibly misleading regarding the number of visits of JACK RUBY to the premises of radio station KLIF, however, he is presently positive he has never seen RUBY at this station except on the occasion of his introduction to him.
