CIVIL RIGHTS

Enclosed herewith are two copies of a self-explanatory letter from the President's Commission dated July 3, 1964, requesting certain investigation to determine the seriousness of activities by Hyman and Eva Rubenstein which caused Juvenile Court action to be taken against them in 1916 and 1922.

Chicago conduct the requested investigation promptly upon receipt of this communication and submit results by LHM suitable for dissemination to the President's Commission. Furnish appropriate copies to the office of origin Dallas.

NOTE: At the request of the Commission we previously checked public records relating to all members of Ruby's family and their early years in Chicago. These records reflect that Hyman and Eva Rubenstein were charged by Juvenile authorities in 1916 and 1922 as being incorrigibles. Commission desires that we ascertain the seriousness of such charges.
