CIVIL RIGHTS

The "Washington Daily News" of 7/7/64, contains an item stating that Jack Ruby and Lee Harvey Oswald rented post office boxes twelve feet apart less than a month before President Kennedy was assassinated, according to the "Dallas Times-Herald." Both received mail between the time of the renting and the shooting.

If not already done, this allegation should be thoroughly checked out to determine whether or not it is true and if so what significance it might bear on any possible relationship between Ruby and Oswald. Include results in your next report in this matter.
