CARL F. HANSSON, 1230 Ridgeway Drive, interviewed at his residence, advised he was formerly Chief of Police, Dallas, Texas, until early January 1960. He was the Chief of Police at Dallas during the pertinent periods of 1947 and 1950.

HANSSON stated that during the time he was Chief of Police he was well informed on the investigation regarding PAUL ROWLAND JONES. He also stated that he is well acquainted with the part former Dallas County Sheriff STEVE GUTHRIE and Police Lieutenant GEORGE BUTLER took in the JONES investigation. (T)

HANSSON stated he does not know the present whereabouts of transcriptions of the phonograph records taken of the various interviews between JONES, GUTHRIE and BUTLER. However, he did note that during the course of the JONES investigation, he had on several occasions read these transcripts and does not recall the name of JACK RUBY ever being mentioned. HANSSON stated he positively does not think that the name of JACK RUBY ever came up in the recorded interviews of JONES by GUTHRIE and BUTLER.

HANSSON noted he does not have a good opinion at all of STEVE GUTHRIE and would not place any confidence in any statement by GUTHRIE to the effect that JONES had mentioned the name of JACK RUBY during the interviews.

Regarding the reported return of the transcriptions of the phonograph records to the Dallas Police Department on December 2, 1950, from the Clerk of the Court of Criminal Appeals, State of Texas, Austin, Texas, HANSSON advised this would have been a routine matter and he would surmise the transcriptions were indeed returned at that time to the Dallas Police Department, but he nevertheless does not recall the specific incident.

Assistant Chief of Police GEORGE L. LUMPKIN, Administrative Division, Dallas Police Department, was interviewed in his office regarding the possible location of a transcript of the original recordings taken by the Dallas Police Department in connection with other local law enforcement agencies during the period 1946-1948 in their joint investigation concerning PAUL ROWLAND JONES.

LUMPKIN advised that inasmuch as the investigation was many years ago and the matter regarding JONES has been handled in the courts, he would assume that any such old records have been long since destroyed.

However, LUMPKIN stated on August 6, 1964, that he would have his Records Bureau conduct a thorough search to try and locate the pertinent phonographs and/or their transcriptions.

LUMPKIN subsequently advised on August 10, 1964, that a search by his Records Bureau regarding instant matter was unproductive.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date August 13, 1964

Lieutenant GEORGE E. BUTLER was interviewed in his office located in the Juvenile Bureau at the Police Department, Dallas, Texas. - 311

Lieutenant BUTLER advised on August 6, 1963, in regard to the present whereabouts of phonograph records and/or transcriptions of recordings made by former Dallas County Sheriff STEVE GUTHRIE and himself in connection with their departments' joint investigation of PAUL ROWLAND JONES around 1946 - 1948, he did not believe either the recordings or their written transcriptions were still in existence.

Lieutenant BUTLER stated that when he picked up the recordings from the Clerk of the Court of Criminal Appeals, State of Texas, Austin, Texas, reportedly in December, 1950, in behalf of former Dallas Chief of Police CARL F. HANSSON, he believes it was to deliver the recordings to the Kefauver Committee then holding sessions in Chicago, Illinois.

Lieutenant BUTLER stated he took the recordings to the Kefauver Hearings in Chicago, Illinois.

He noted he would make a search of his "personal" records at his home (6447 Velasco Avenue, Dallas, Texas) to see if he could locate any copy of the transcript of these recordings.

On August 11, 1964, Lieutenant BUTLER advised he had located the original recordings, consisting of twenty-two (22) discs, at his home, but could find no written transcriptions of same or an index.

He stated that when he located the recordings at his home, he noted that they were still packaged in the original, unopened container by which they were returned to him in 1960 from the McClellan Committee.

BUTLER stated that he now remembers that he had loaned the recordings to the McClellan Committee for their use sometime in late 1959 or early 1960.

It was noted that the package by which these twenty-two records were returned to Lieutenant BUTLER had never been opened and had been sent by "Registered Mail - Return Receipt Requested" on March 17, 1960, from the office of Senator McClellan to Lieutenant GEORGE BUTLER, Dallas Police Department, Dallas, Texas. The Post Office stamp on the outside of the package indicated that the package had arrived in Dallas, Texas, on March 21, 1960. The package born Registry Number 220346.

Upon opening the package in the interviewing Agent's presence, it was noted to contain twenty-two records, which Lieutenant BUTLER described as the recordings taken by former Dallas County Sheriff STEVE GUTHRIE and himself in their joint investigation in regard to the joint intelligence investigation of PAUL ROWLAND JONES around 1946 - 1948, the exact dates of which he does not now recall.

Lieutenant BUTLER stated he has retained these twenty-two recordings in his "personal" possession and intends to continue to do so in order to be sure of their whereabouts at all times.

He advised that if the President's Commission desires to personally review the recordings, the Commission should contact him "personally" and not through anyone else at the Dallas Police Department.

BUTLER stated that he had no objection whatsoever to the Federal Bureau of Investigation or the President's Commission taping these twenty-two records or making written transcriptions of them for official use.

DL 44-1639

Lieutenant BUTLER stated he has not listened to these records for years and cannot positively state whether or not the name of JACK L. RUBY is mentioned in any of the records. However, he stated to the best of his recollection, he does not believe that the name of JACK L. RUBY is mentioned in any of the recordings.

Regarding previous written transcripts and/or an index of names mentioned in any of the records, Lieutenant BUTLER stated that while transcripts had been made years ago, he does not know of their present location or even if they still exist. Concerning any index, Lieutenant BUTLER stated he believes the discs may have been indexed years ago, but he does not know of the present whereabouts or even of the present existence of such an index.

BUTLER added it is entirely possible that the McClellan Committee may have transcribed the contents of these twenty-two recordings for their records.

Date August 19, 19641

On August 17, 1964, the twenty-two recordings pertaining to the transcriptions made of the four meetings between former Dallas County Sheriff STEVE GUTHRIE, GEORGE E. BUTLER and PAUL ROWLAND JONES during November and December, 1946, were returned personally to Lieutenant GEORGE E. BUTLER, Juvenile Division, Dallas Police Department. Lieutenant BUTLER stated that he does not know where or what might have happened to recordings # 8 and # 17 of the "first meeting" between JONES, GUTHRIE and himself on November 1, 1946. BUTLER stated these twenty-two recordings, which he had furnished to the FBI on August 11, 1964, were all of the recordings which had been returned to him by the Mc Clellan Committee in 1960. BUTLER stated that he does not recall any questions in the past regarding the absence of any specific records pertaining to the interviews between GUTHRIE, JONES and himself in 1946. He stated that he does not know at this time whether the "missing record" might possibly be an error in transcribing numbers some years ago or whether such a record actually existed at one time.

Lieutenant BUTLER noted that all of these twenty-two recordings were made during four separate meetings in November and December, 1946, between JONES, GUTHRIE and himself in the home of former Dallas County Sheriff STEVE GUTHRIE. He stated that these records are the original recordings of these transcribed accounts of the four meetings.

The twenty-two recordings made available for review by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, with the permission of Lieutenant GEORGE E. BUTLER, Juvenile Division, Police Department, Dallas, Texas, were monitored on August 14, 1964, in the Dallas Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation by Special Agent RICHARD J. BURNETT.

It is noted that at no time on any of the twenty-two recordings was the name of "JACK L. RUBY" or "RUBY" mentioned. The records furnished by Lieutenant BUTLER were twenty-two in number. They are marked and identified as follows:

1. Recordings #1 through #19, inclusive, were recorded on November 1-2, 1946, between the hours of 8:00 p.m. and 2 a.m. The conversations recorded thereon were between STEVE GUEHRLE, GEORGE BUTLER and PAUL ROWLAND JONES. They are described as the "first meeting".

It is noted that recordings #8 and #17 which would be on the same record, but opposite sides, are missing.

2. Recordings #20 through #28, recorded between 3:10 p.m. and 6:00 p.m. on November 6, 1946, were recordings of conversations between STEVE GUEHRLE, GEORGE BUTLER, PAUL ROWLAND JONES, and a fourth individual named as "KRAFF". These records pertain to the second meeting of GUEHRLE, BUTLER and JONES.

3. Recordings #29 through #37 were recorded between 8:40 a.m. and 11:40 a.m., on November 7, 1946. The persons involved in these recordings are STEVE GUEHRLE, GEORGE BUTLER, PAUL ROWLAND JONES, "KRAFF", and a fifth individual called "FARMING". These records are referred to as the "third meeting".

4. Recordings #38 through #42 were recorded on December 13, 1946 (time not indicated), between STEVE GUTHRIE, GEORGE BUTLER and PAUL ROWLAND JONES. These recordings are described as the "fourth meeting".

While the names of JACK L. RUBY or RUBY were not noted to have been mentioned in these recordings, of particular significance might be comments made on recordings #9 and #18 made at the "first meeting" between GUTHRIE, BUTLER and JONES on November 1-2, 1946.

During the conversation between JONES, GUTHRIE and BUTLER regarding the setting up of a gambling joint in the Dallas area by an outside group, JONES mentioned to GUTHRIE, who was then a Sheriff-elect and not as of that time officially in office, that he wanted GUTHRIE to choose his own man to operate the proposed gambling joint in Dallas and JONES stated "You pick the man," and JONES continued, "I'm going to train the man you pick." GUTHRIE stated that he would send in only one man from the outside to be connected with this gambling venture, and this would be a "crap shooter". JONES emphasized that "It's got to be local." JONES in describing the individual (the crap shooter), who he would bring in from the outside, stated that he looks like a preacher, "not a Dago, not a Jew".

On August 17, 1964, Mr. ALPHONSE F. CALABRESE, Assistant Counsel, Senate Permanent Subcommittee on Investigations, Senate Office Building, Washington, D. C., made available to Special Agent RICHARD W. KAISER for examination, the following records of that committee:

A forty-eight page transcript of twenty-two phonographic recordings obtained by the committee from Lieutenant GEORGE BUTLER, Dallas Police Department. BUTLER, undercover for the Dallas Police Department, recorded conversations in connection with the Dallas Crime Investigation from 1946 to 1948. The original recordings were returned to Lieutenant BUTLER.

The above transcript notes that the first seven recordings were not transcribed in detail, inasmuch as they were not considered pertinent to the matter in question.

The detailed transcript concerned two specific meetings.

1. Meeting between PAUL JONES; STEVE GUTHRIE, Sheriff-elect; and GEORGE BUTLER, Dallas Police Department, on Friday night, 8:00 p.m. to 1:30 p.m., November 1, 1946, at the home of STEVE GUTHRIE.
2. Meeting between PAUL JONES; JACK KAPP; EAT MANNING, Sheriff-elect; STEVE GUTHRIE, Dallas County; and Detective GEORGE BUTLER, Dallas Police Department, held at the home of STEVE GUTHRIE, Dallas, Texas, on November 7, 1946.

Mrs. ~~EVA GRANT~~ ^{70 - R. [unclear]} ~~3929 Rawlins, Apartment I, Dallas,~~ ^{70 - R. [unclear]} ~~Texas,~~ was interviewed to determine the identity of the delivery boy from Gibson's Record Store, Dallas, who reportedly had seen JACK RUBY crying on Friday afternoon, November 22, 1963.

Mrs. GRANT telephonically advised she did not know the identity of this person and had never seen or talked with him. She said she learned of the incident through conversations with JACK RUBY and that RUBY had been unable to identify the delivery boy.

Mrs. GRANT suggested that ROBERT WENSON, a private investigator hired by the family, had made some inquiries regarding this matter and might have determined the identity of the delivery boy.

Mr. ROBERT B. DENSON, 8171 Hunnicut, Dallas, Texas, was contacted to determine the identity of the Gibson's Record Store delivery boy who, according to EVA GRANT, had seen JACK RUBY crying on Friday afternoon, November 22, 1963. Mr. DENSON is a private investigator who had been employed by the family of JACK RUBY to conduct certain investigations.

Mr. DENSON recalled the reported episode and advised that he had made inquiries at the Gibson's Record Store to identify the delivery boy. He said that conversations with employees of that company had developed that the person involved was GERALD COLLINS, but that COLLINS had terminated his employment with that company and had moved to Indianola, Oklahoma. He did not have an address for COLLINS in Indianola, but advised it is a very small town and COLLINS would probably be known there. He said, however, he had not interviewed COLLINS because the RUBY family had not believed his interview important enough to justify the expense of contacting him in Oklahoma.

 Mr. GENE ACKERMAN, Manager, Records Department, Gibson's Products, 515 Gibson Street, Seagoville, Texas, telephone number AT 7-2570, was contacted to determine the identity of the delivery boy for his company who reportedly had seen JACK RUBY crying on Friday afternoon, November 22, 1963.

Mr. ACKERMAN advised that inquiries concerning this matter had previously been made by some unrecalled investigator and it had been determined that the delivery boy involved was either CLOR MERLE or GERALD COLLINS. Both of these persons have since terminated their employment with the company. Mr. ACKERMAN advised that conversations with company employees had indicated that it must have been GERALD COLLINS that had observed JACK RUBY on that date. He further advised COLLINS had moved from Dallas, Texas to Indianola, Oklahoma, a very small town.

Mr. ACKERMAN advised that at the time of this incident Mr. O. I. LONGFELLOW had been manager of Gibson's Record Store located at 2620 Main Street, Dallas, but that this store has since been closed, and Mr. LONGFELLOW is presently the manager of the Gibson store in Texarkana, Texas.

GENE ACKERMAN further advised that his company has no sales receipt or other confirming document of the delivery made by the delivery boy to JACK RUBY on November 22, 1963. He advised that RUBY always paid cash for his purchase of records, and the delivery boy collected the cash upon delivery and the sale was handled as a cash sale with no record of the transaction being made.

CARLOS DOWLEARN, Route 2, Seagoville, ^{T.I.I.} employee of Gibson's Products, 515 Gibson Street, Seagoville, advised that in November 1963, he had been employed by Rack Suppliers, Inc., which is a branch of Gibson's Products and which was located, at that time, at 2620 Main Street, Dallas, Texas. He advised the manager of the store at that time was O. I. LONGFELLOW and the store was primarily a record shop.

DOWLEARN advised any deliveries made by the store in November 1963, would have been made by CLOR MERLE, GERALD COLLINS or himself. He advised he did not make any deliveries of merchandise to JACK RUBY or to the Carousel Club on November 22, 1963, and stated further he had never seen JACK RUBY personally and did not know him. He said he does know ANDY ARMSTRONG, an employee of RUBY, but that he did not see him on November 22, 1963.

DOWLEARN advised he does not know LARRY CRAFARD, GEORGE SENATOR or EVA GRANT, and has no information regarding the activities of these people, JACK RUBY or ANDREW ARMSTRONG on November 22, 1963.

CLOR WILLIAMS MERLE, 4411 Cedar Springs, Apartment 223, Dallas, Texas, advised that from mid-July 1963, until about December 1, 1963, he was employed by Rack Suppliers, Inc., a part of Gibson's Products. He worked under Manager O. I. LONGFELLOW at the store, which was then located at 2620 Main, Dallas. He advised that in November 1963, he, GERALD COLLINS and CARLOS DOWLEARN were the only employees who might have made deliveries of records to customers, and, he said, he believes he made most, if not all, deliveries during this time because he was the only one who had an automobile available.

Mr. MERLE advised he does not believe that any deliveries were made to JACK RUBY or to the Carousel Club on November 22, 1963, and he is quite sure that he did not make such a delivery. He advised he did make a delivery of records to the Carousel Club on November 20, 1963. He delivered the records to a Negro man whose name he does not know, and, he said, he recalls that JACK RUBY was present. He also recalls that RUBY gave him two free passes to the Carousel Club to be given to Mr. LONGFELLOW and to Mr. GENE ACKERMAN, one of the owners of the record department of Gibson's Products (Rack Suppliers).

Mr. MERLE advised he thinks this is the only time a delivery of records was made to either RUBY or the Carousel Club, but he recalls that about a month earlier, JACK RUBY had been in the store inquiring about the price of various records. He advised no record would have been made of the delivery mentioned above because it was handled as a cash transaction.

CLOR MERLE advised he does not know ANDREW ARMSTRONG, LARRY CRAFARD, GEORGE SENATOR or EVA GRANT, and that the only times he ever saw JACK RUBY are the ones mentioned above.

Dr. HYMAN I. RUBENSTEIN, residence 2809 West Fitch, Chicago, Illinois, was interviewed at Mt. Sinai Hospital, 2715 West 15th Place, Chicago, Illinois. Dr. RUBENSTEIN advised that his office is located at 2335 West Devon Avenue, Chicago, Illinois.

Dr. RUBENSTEIN stated that his father, ABRAHAM RUBENSTEIN, was a brother of JOSEPH RUBENSTEIN, father of JACK RUBY. His father and uncle, JOSEPH RUBENSTEIN, were born in Poland and immigrated to the United States in the early 1900's, JOSEPH coming to the United States first and his father, ABRAHAM, second in about 1906. The reason why his father came to Chicago was that his father's brother, JOSEPH, had established himself in Chicago already.

Dr. RUBENSTEIN stated he recalled his father had four or five brothers but no sisters. He could not recall the names of any of his father's brothers except JOSEPH. One other brother, name unrecalled, immigrated to the United States from Poland and resided in the Chicago area for a short period of time. This brother, sometime during the 1920's, immigrated to Israel. He has never heard from this brother since and could provide no information concerning him. With regard to any relatives being in Europe or any country abroad, Dr. RUBENSTEIN stated he has no knowledge concerning them. He stated that his father and uncles had had a common father, SHMUEL ZAVIL RUBENSTEIN, who died at about the time his father, ABRAHAM, came to America.

Dr. RUBENSTEIN stated that his father, ABRAHAM, came to the United States in about 1906, but that he, Dr. RUBENSTEIN, his mother and two sisters came to the United States during the late winter of 1912, from Poland.

At the time they arrived in the United States, both his father, ABRAHAM, and JOSEPH RUBENSTEIN were
