ceived, and I shall always spirit and faith.

Some day I'm willing I hope view of it.

With all my heart I will always remember her sweet kind have expressed them.

Love her, I am willing I would love to meet you and your husband in person.

Yours truly

P.S. I should have mentioned that your letter was first given to me yesterday, and I haven't been able to say one in weeks. However, I just had to answer you.

The reason for this being was that my sister had taken your letter up from the desk and she has been opposing the idea for some time. I had to wait for some time.

① article of sinning that most of the accidents of this year happened on Christmas.

I received both letters from Maria and Ann, and also one from Harold, and sincerely enjoyed all of them.

O! all the mail did receive, the one I cherish the most is one from a ten year old boy from

#815
② W. H. W. Will. Am going to read his head on to help and that way it will be made easier - had my trying to explain the wonderful human interest in his thoughts. And will how he lists all of his brothers and sisters and their ages. I would appreciate any check if possible at some would <sup>to</sup> them a money order or some gifts, it should appear more appropriate.

③ From my family, or tell Will if he should happen to be in their vicinity that he should drop in and say hello and perhaps get a snapshot of them. After you read the contents of the book, you will understand such warm feelings for this so good boy.
Speaking of praying, his heart will be filled with affection and the great men of our faith

Could the people <sup>with</sup> them in the hills looking about Abraham & his Jacob, Isaac, David, & his descendants have given me strength and courage during these trying times.

Ed. was up to see me today Sunday, and for a change it was good talking to her. She was glad to see her hands full. The different little things she gave me, such as Peppercorn coffee, C. J. coffee which is a Jeweled coffee!

⑥ I'll close now, and sincerely hope that everyone at home is feeling well. For my sake please don't read the papers because the stories look so expecting at times. Don't at the end. They make news
- I've been receiving some very understanding words from people all over the world, and please me there are a lot of wonderful people in this world.
My love to all at home.
By yours to Harold and his friends (or)
