

Dear Lil

Service Club

5/12/43

I am taking an intermission in a few per boy
day of straight

Simply want to relax and get my eyes off numbers. I am anxious & a letter I get from Gene. It made me feel nostalgic. I like the kid, I mean his description he is getting "cuter."

There is nothing new. We are supposed to get 200 additional clothing this afternoon, but that just means more work for me. I'll have to give it out, by eye, I will - line all the items again. And tomorrow we are to go out on the range, from the current schedule.
Either that or we are to shoot the 200 at the waving target I showed you, over the hill. I hope it is lots. I'm terribly anxious to get the shooting in.
I don't want to take any chance on being in a position to be shipped without being marked "Completed basic".
There have been no new recruits along this line but I must wait, to go through again... From today we have but 10 days.

How was your brief visit in 49.5.
Was it pleasant? Successful shopping?
Get ~~to~~ back tired from all your travelling? Are you going to mail the chocolates tomorrow in the next day, unless it rains tonight. I have a half-dozen large bars, & I'm going to try to get a few more. I'm to go in town for my laundry tonight, & I hope to be able to leave in time to get to see "Sabudo Angos" at the movie. The weather makes the whole thing a question, but the few movies I have seen lately have been so good. I'm encouraged to want to see "Ma".
Well, it is almost 1 pm; so

I'd best pick up my work.

I hope your trip was as pleasant to you as it was to me & that you are all rested up.

Regards, to the J. M., & the H. J.

Love
John
