CUSHING FAVORS
 GARRISON'S PROBE OF ASSASSINATION

BOSTON (AP) — Richard Cardinal Cushing said today "I never believed" that the assassination of President John K. Kennedy "was the work of one man."

The Roman Catholic archbishop of Boston said he doesn't think the Warren Commission report on the assassination is complete. He said of Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison's New Orleans probe: "I think they should follow it through."

The cardinal, who yesterday blessed the new gravesite for Kennedy, said his "heart went out to Bob Kennedy" at the ceremony.

He said Sen. Robert F. Kennedy stood at the edge of the grave and looked down for long periods.

"In my opinion," Cushing said, "he relived the whole story of the past; of the assassination of his brother. I felt like going up and pulling him away from the grave."
