CIA Link Repeated

VANCOUVER (CP) - A link between Lee Harvey Oswald, the assassin of President John F. Kennedy, and the CIA is claimed by an American now in Vancouver.

Oswald, 24, was in an interview Saturday, he recalled all these while he was on the payroll of the CIA.

Norton first came to see The Sun July 8, says the newspaper. "Since then many details of Oswald's story have been confirmed. But the authenticity of the central claims only verification by normal newspaper investigation."

MUSICIAN
Lee Harvey Oswald was named by the Warren Commission as the lone assassin of President Kennedy in November 1963. Clay Shaw, a New Orleans businessman, has been indicted by a grand jury on charges of conspiring to kill the president following an investigation by district attorney Jim Garrison of New Orleans.

David Ferris, who died in February of this year, was a central figure in Garrison's investigation. Mr. Garrison claims the assassination resulted from a complex conspiracy involving para-military groups linked with the CIA and disloyal Cuban exiles.

Norton, a musician and a native of Columbus, Ga., told The Sun that Ferris, a pilot, was his contact man in 1958 on a CIA assignment to carry about $20,000 into Havana, Cuba.

MET SHAW
He said the money was to be used to support the revolutionary activities of Fidel Castro. He knew Ferris as Hugh Morris.

"This man, known to me as Hugh Morris, delivered to me the case which contained the money I was to take to the CIA contact in Havana," Norton said.

Norton said he met Shaw in Alabama in August, 1962, before a CIA assignment to Monterrey, Mexico.

OSWALD
He said Shaw was with a man who gave him an attache case, containing about $50,000 to be delivered to a contact in Monterrey in exchange for another case containing documents.

"During the publicity of the assassination, when the information as to Oswald was revealed to the public, I almost immediately was asked to help in the search for Oswald. I did not do this until 1962, in the city of New Orleans, Louisiana.

"I believe this was for a Monterey to Calgary. After that Norton said he spent seven months in Calgary, Alberta, where he made himself known months before the assassination of Oswald. This was a CIA assignment. He was then contacted and Canada and finally arrived and turned over the documents in Vancouver July 6.
