

Garrison Accuses Warren of Trying To 'Dynamite' Case

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 6 (AP) — District Attorney Jim Garrison has accused Chief Justice Earl Warren of trying to "dynamite" his investigation into the assassination of President Kennedy.

Justice Warren told newsmen in Tokyo Monday he had not seen a single fact—including data compiled by Mr. Garrison—to contradict the Warren Commission's report on the assassination.

Mr. Garrison contends that Clay L. Shaw, New Orleans businessman, conspired with Lee Harvey Oswald and others to murder President Kennedy. The Warren Commission decided the Oswald had acted alone.

"It is a little disconcerting," said Mr. Garrison, "to find the Chief Justice of the United States on his hands and knees trying to tie some sticks of dynamite to the case."

Mr. Garrison said Justice Warren's comment showed that the "Establishment" of the United States was opening a counterattack to try to stop his inquiry.

"Of course, from their point of view it is necessary to discredit the investigation no matter what the cost," Mr. Garrison said. "They don't think we are wrong about the assassination—they know we are right."

Justice Warren told the Tokyo Foreign Correspondents Club that he had "absolutely no doubts" of the Warren Commission report's accuracy and scope.
