Shaw Requests Delay
In New Orleans Trial

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Clay L. Shaw, charged with conspiring to assassinate President Kennedy, has asked for a six-month trial delay or a change of venue, claiming a fair trial here would be impossible "now or in the near future."

Shaw's attorneys told Dist Judge Edward A. Haggerty Jr. yesterday that the actions of Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison had "destroyed or seriously prejudiced the right" of Shaw to a fair trial.
