Watch Castro, U.S. Told

Washington, Oct. 16 (UPI)—Sen. Howard H. Baker, Jr. (R-Tenn.) warned senators today that the United States "must not for an instant let down our guard in our preoccupation with the war in Vietnam." Baker said the death of Ernesto Che Guevara has dealt Castro-led Communism a severe setback. "But it would be a mistake for us to lower our guard in the false security of the Bolivian success."

Shaw Trial

New Orleans, Oct. 16 (UPI)—The assassination conspiracy trial of businessman Clay L. Shaw was pushed back today until February. Judge Edward A. Haggerty Jr. denied a defense request for a six-month delay, but accepted a 4½-month delay proposed by District Attorney Jim Garrison.

Shaw

Haggerty said he would open the trial on the first jury day in February. The defense had requested a six-month delay or a change in trial location, insisting that Shaw, charged with conspiring to assassinate President Kennedy, could not get a fair trial here because of publicity.
