A North Hollywood man accused by New Orleans Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison of conspiring in the Kennedy assassination said he had been given a lie test, at his request, and that the results would be announced at a press conference today. Edgar Eugene Bradley, 49, said he is confident the test administered by Beverly Hills polygraph expert Chris Gugas will clear him of any complicity. Gugas confirmed Bradley "was a very cooperative witness and his charts quite readable," indicating his subject passed the lie test.
