Subway Scare

NEW YORK—Two long-haired hoodlums in black leather jackets emblazoned "Hell's Outcasts" terrorized rush hour subways passengers for five minutes before police seized them and their chains, a gun and two knives. "Hey, man, I think we'll take this train, we're in the big time now," police quoted Ronald White, 19, of Biddeford, Maine, as saying as he drew a dagger.

Two Transit Authority detectives on the train moved in with guns drawn and arrested White and William Riester, 22, of Glendale, Calif.

Faster Treated

CINCINNATI—An 12-year-old anti-war demonstrator, fasting since her imprisonment Dec 7, was admitted yesterday to Cincinnati's General Hospital for malnutrition.

Hospital spokesmen reported DeCoursey Squire's condition good although she had lost about 20 per cent of her normal weight. They declined to disclose her normal or present weight.

The Antioch College coed was sentenced Dec. 7 to nine months in the city workhouse for resisting arrest, disorderly conduct and contempt of court as a result of a 11-war demonstrations. She reportedly has taken no solid foods since her confinement.

Tijerina Trial

SANTA FE, N.M.—Twenty defendants in the Tierra Amarilla courthouse raid case last June 5 refused to enter pleas at a preliminary hearing yesterday, claiming the state district court had no jurisdiction.

But Judge Joe Angel entered innocent pleas for all, including Reyes Lopez Tijerina, leader of a militant Spanish-American group of land grant claimants. He denied defense motions to dismiss the charges.

Call Oswald's Widow

DALLAS—Mrs. Marina Oswald Porter, widow of the man named as President Kennedy's assassin, was served with a subpoena to appear in New Orleans Feb. 8 and 9 at the probe into the alleged conspiracy against Kennedy.

The now remarried widow of Lee Harvey Oswald has said she would go to New Orleans only if required by law, and a hearing has been set for Thursday before a state district judge on the subpoena ordering her to appear there.

If she is directed to appear, it will be the first time New Orleans District Attorney Jim Garrison has succeeded in putting on the stand any witnesses other than residents of Louisiana.
